In The Armed SERVICES

Cpl. Kenneth Hanna Stationed In Korea

With the 7th Infantry Div. in Korea — Cpl. Kenneth Hanna, 211 W. Washington, Roseburg is learning to use his supplies and equipment more effectively as a result of a "cost consciousness" indoctrination now being carried on by the 32d Infantry Regiment on the Korean front.

The program aims to inform the soldier the value of his equipment and how he can get the most out of it in the field, thereby cutting costs to himself and other American taxpayers. It is being conducted by battle-wise officers and non-commissioned officers at all command levels — from rear areas right up into the front lines.

Corporal Hanna, a squad leader with the regiment's mortar section, holds the Combat Infantryman Badge and the Korean Service Ribbon with one campaign star. He entered the Army in November 1950.
