

ELIZABETH TAYLOR and MONTGOMERY CLIFT in a romantic scene from Paramount's "A PLACE IN THE SUN."

KRNR Dial Log

THERE ARE SO MANY program notes for tomorrow, Sunday, that we'll have to give them very briefly. First, if you happen to be a little under the weather, like so many are just now, you don't have to miss church... just tune KRNR at 11:00 a.m. The services migrate among four downtown churches, Baptist, Christian, Methodist and Presbyterian.

THE SAHDOO, Sunday at 2:00, presents the CASE OF THE HYPO NOTIC BOLLIS. Immediately following, TRUE DETECTIVE MYSTERIES presents the CASE OF THE CURIOUS CAT, the story of a good time gal, who spends more time enjoying herself than making her marriage work.

DOCTOR SYLVESTER, a Shakespeare - quoting pitchman cleans up an early Texas election on the GABBY HAYES SHOW from 3:00 to 3:30. NICK CARTER, MASTER DETECTIVE, blasts a killer's story full of holes to solve the case of "The Bloodstained Alibi" at 3:30.

THIS TOWN IS YOURS, a public service program presented by West Bros. Sunday at 4:00, brings an interview of interest to everyone in the Roseburg area... this will be an interview with Paul Elliott relative to the school bond issue.

YOUR VOICE OF AMERICA, the second in a series of transcribed programs to be aired over this station, will be heard at 5:00 p.m. These programs, based on files in the Department of State, take the American public behind the scenes to hear what the Voice of America is doing in its verbal battle for the minds of men in other countries which for many years have been subjected to the intense propaganda by the Communists, particularly the Soviet Union.

MGM MUSICAL COMEDY, from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m., presents the endearing love story of a popular song - writing team, "Lady Be Good," as adapted for radio. Arlene Dahl, Lex Barker and Phyllis Kirk will co-star in the production. The drama traces the trials and tribulations of a talented couple who discover that song writing can be both a help and a deterrent to married life.

PAT FRANK, THE "MR. ADAM" man, joins the panel for "20 Questions," 8:00 to 8:30 p.m. Frank, whose "Mr. Adam" tickled the nation's funny bone, joins regular panelists in playing the radio version of the "animal, vegetable or mineral" game. Bill Slater moderates.

Sen. O'Daniel Won't Enter Oregon Primary
PORTLAND (AP) - W. Lee O'Daniel, a former governor of Texas, told the Oregonian Monday that he will not become a candidate for President in the State's May 18 primary.
O'Daniel, a Democrat, said last night that he might become a candidate.
Reached by telephone at his home in Dallas, Tex., O'Daniel told the Oregonian he "wished it had been possible for him to enter," but that he would have too late a start in the race.
He said he hadn't give up the idea of running elsewhere, though.
