MARILYN FELLER SINGS ON PROGRAM IN SAN FRANCISCO

Marilyn Feller sang with the Mills College Concert Chorus at the college's Centennial Banquet held at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco Friday evening, Feb. 29.

The occasion was the official commemoration of the California college's 100th anniversary. Oldest non-sectarian women's college in the west, Mills has a colorful history, tradition dating back to the opening of a Young Ladies' Seminary in Benicia in the Gold Rush Days of 1852.

Marilyn is a freshman at Mills and performs with the college concert chorus for many on and off-campus programs. The group, directed by Mrs. Claire Upshur, college choral director, provided the feature entertainment of the birthday banquet. More than 500 alumnae, faculty, trustees, students and friends of the college attended the celebration.

Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Feller of Roseburg. She attended Jefferson High School, Portland, before entering Mills College.

CHARMING BIRTHDAY PARTY GIVEN IN HONOR VICKI PETERSON

Vicki Peterson was honored on her seventh birthday Tuesday afternoon when her mother, Mrs. Ted Peterson, entertained at a charming three o'clock party at her home in Winston.

Eighteen youngsters attended the party and they were entertained with a number of interesting games. The large number of gifts were opened and admired, after which refreshments were served by the hostess who was assisted by Mrs. Bert Laurance and Mrs. George Bacher.

The serving table was covered with a novelty cloth of white background with colorful circus characters. Matching napkins were used. Three story-book dolls from Vicki's collection centered the table, around which were placed individual fluted baskets filled with Easter eggs, which were favors for the little guests. The large sheet cake was frosted in white and dotted with pink rosebuds with a large nosegay of matching flowers in one corner. The message "Happy Birthday, Vicki" was inscribed on the cake and seven pink candles surrounded the writing.

Those attending the party included: Jimmy Thomas, Sandy Powell, Frank Thomas, Buck Richardson, Bryce Bacher, Sunny Jean Spearman, Geraldine Tomlin, Carol Ann Markham, Wayne Ware, Jo Ann Markham, Sharon Pruitt, Sherry White, Sheryl, Roxana, and Brian Laurance, Pamela and Nick Laurance and the honored guest, Vicki Peterson.
