Communist Leaders Granted Trial Delay

NEW YORK (AP)—Sixteen secondary Communist leaders have won a delay in their trial until March 31.
They were to have gone on trial Monday, but Federal Judge Edward J. Dimock granted their plea for a postponement so they can have more time to plan their defense.
The 16 were indicted June 20 on charges of conspiring to teach and advocate the violent overthrow of the government.

"Your Ambassador of Mercy"

She can't entirely take the place of loved ones left at home... but her warm friendly smile—her eagerness to help—bring renewed hope and courage to those who cannot help themselves. She is your Red Cross worker—your Ambassador of Mercy to our greatly expanded armed forces, all over the world. The vital work she performs in your name through the Red Cross must be maintained... and this can be done only if you help! Won't you answer the call? Give generously today!

Flower Seeds To Kids For Easter Pay Off

EAST LIVERPOOL, O. (AP)—A minister's idea to beautify the city by giving children packets of flower seeds Easter morning has landed in fertile ground and offers of help are blossoming all over town.
The Rev. Frederick T. Gillette suggested it and John Ridder, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, raised $50 to buy the seeds in bulk.
A big greenhouse firm will get the seeds in bulk, a paper container firm will furnish the envelopes and the East Liverpool

Dahlia Society will weigh and package the seeds, enclosing instructions for the youthful Luther Burbanks.

Each child will be given a mixture of flower seeds—zinnia, marigold, hollyhocks, cosmos, scabiosa and coreopsis.

Married, Jailed, Bailed In Day By Same Man

ELYRIA, O. (AP)—Pearl J. Smith got married, jailed and bailed—all in the same day by the same man.
Smith paid Justice of the Peace C. C. Lord, 90, his last $3 to perform a wedding ceremony. Then Lord remembered Smith was wanted on a paternity charge filed by one June Balser, who was not the bride.

Lord had him arrested, arranged his bail and paid a $1 fee for it because he felt Smith should not spend the first day of his honeymoon in jail.

Lookingglass Grange Starts Clean-up Action

By HAZEL S. MARSH

The county road patrol has been praised for cleaning the rubbish dumps along the canyon road leading to the valley. The controversy reached a climax early in the week when the Grange, through one of its members, John Kerr, circulated a petition requesting the clean-up action. The winding road through the canyon is one of the few natural drives maintained adjacent to Roseburg.

Lookingglass News Briefs:
Cressie Crawford, who has been seriously ill at Douglas Community Hospital for several weeks, improved sufficiently to return to his home last Friday.

Rev. A. Grace Hartley has been confined to her home the past week with an ear infection. Because of her illness, she was forced to cancel her appointment with the Methodist Oregon Conference to participate in the current evangelistic campaign at Linnton, Ore. for the week beginning March 7. A youth center has been set up at the Linnton Church and the Rev. Miss Hartley was appointed to supervise the program. The visitation campaign is in effect throughout the state.

Winifred Williams and a friend, Sylvia Vance were visitors at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams, last weekend. The girls participated in the "capping ceremony" for beginning nurses held at Emanuel Hospital Friday, in Portland. This ceremony follows the first six months of training and upon receiving a cap, the student is qualified to pursue the three year course in clinical nursing. Mr. and Mrs. Williams attended the service and were accompanied home by their daughter and friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones and children of Myrtle Creek were in the valley Sunday checking their sheep and other property interests. Their valley home is currently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Kerr.

Mr. and Mrs. Thor Hansey (Betty Ollivant) and daughters, Sharon, Susan and Shirley, of Eugene were recent guests at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. Fred Schulze. Little two-year old Shirley broke her collar bone four weeks ago. Her shoulder and one arm are still in a cast which she must wear for an additional two weeks.

Dr. S. Raynor Smith, district superintendent of the Southern district of the Oregon Methodist Church, was a visitor at the home of the Rev. J. W. Hamilton, Dr. Smith was on his way to Gardiner for the quarterly conference.

Donald Gould is ill with the measles.

The Home Extension Unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Owsen, the Suloff, Thursday, March 13. The Rev. and Mrs. LaVerna Gould left for Portland Tuesday where they expect to attend the Assembly of God District Council meeting.

Nelson Grubbe and family were guests at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Grubbe.

Lucille Moore, Anna Bower and Rita Dornier, Eugene business visitors this week.

Louis Price made a trip to Monmouth, Ore., Tuesday. He was accompanied by the Rev. J. W. Hamilton as far as Corvallis. Rev. Mr. Hamilton expects to visit his family in Portland later.

Evangelists Present Program Series In Glide

An evangelistic team composed of the Rev. Victor Ernest and Kenneth Raymond, began a series of programs at Glide Baptist Church Sunday.

Each evening except Saturday at 7:30 they will present lectures and music until March 23.

The Rev. Ernest studied at Northwestern Bible School in Minneapolis and Bethel Seminary in St. Paul. He has held pastorates in North Dakota, Minnesota and Oregon during the last 16 years.

Raymond, a graduate of Oregon State College, served as pastor's assistant in the First Baptist Church of Corvallis. He is a piano soloist and has performed with the Oregon State College Symphony orchestra.
