Easter Seal Sale Opens In Oregon

The sixth annual Easter Seal Sale, sponsored by the Oregon Society for Crippled Children and Adults, opened in the state's 36 counties today, and will continue through Easter Sunday, April 13. Mrs. E. L. Tauscher, Douglas County Chairman, said seal-containing envelopes, prepared by the Junior Woman's Club, were placed in the mails today for distribution to county residents.

Jessie Rosenbaum of La Grande, society president said an estimated 500,000 Oregon residents will receive Easter Seals in the mail during the next several days. This is a considerable increase over a year ago.

"We are hopeful," Rosenbaum said, "that this year's sale will be the most successful in the history of the Oregon society, since the need for assistance among the state's physically handicapped children and adults is becoming more and more apparent."

so much and win so little" as Taft in New Hampshire. Stassen, who ended third, said he wasn't discouraged.

Still "Formidable"

Although the victors were jubilant, they still rank Taft and Truman as "formidable" adversaries.

And what is the general reaction to the Tuesday election? A survey showed that many American newspapers saw it as a spark to pro-Eisenhower forces, a sharp blow to Truman's standing in Democratic ranks, but not conclusive by any means.

Rudolph Halley, former chief counsel of the Senate Crime Investigating Committee which put Kefauver in the national spotlight, said he thought the Tennessee could defeat almost any other present candidate. That would include Sen. Russell of Georgia, only other announced Democratic candidate, who has strong backing from the South and elsewhere.

Kefauver-for-president sponsors filed their endorsement with the California secretary of state, a move interpreted as officially putting him in the running there. Kefauver has said he will enter all the primaries he can.

TWO DRUNKS JAILED

Two persons were committed to the county jail Wednesday in lieu of fines after pleading guilty to drunk charges.

They are Rebecca Clara Stirts, 45 Azalea, and Henry Stuart Lowe, 28, Glendale, both committed in lieu of $50 fines levied by District Judge A. J. Geddes. Both were arrested by state police.

Minor Traffic Mishaps Draw Police Inquiry

Two minor traffic accidents were investigated Wednesday by state police.

Warren A. Edwards, Cottage Grove, was hospitalized with cuts and bruises after his car swerved out of control and ran off the highway about 4:10 p.m. near Evergreen Grange Hall. The car was heavily damaged.

In a second accident, a car driven by Marvin Morey Cornutt, Myrtle Creek, reportedly collided with a vehicle driven by Theodore Daniel Thuemler, 16, Dillard. Thuemler was making a left turn as the other car was passing, officers said. Thuemler was cited for failure to give right of way. Neither driver was injured. The accident occurred south of Winston about 4:05 p.m.

THREE CHARGES FACED

Complaint charging Roy Aksel Jepperson, 18 Camas Valley, with contributing to the delinquency of a 16-year-old girl was filed Wednesday in district court by state police.

Jepperson was arrested Monday and held on original charges of permitting an unlicensed minor to drive a car and carrying a concealed automatic pistol.

Warning Signs Will Be Posted At Rose School

Caution and warning signs will be posted in the Rose School area as soon as they are available. City Manager W. A. Gilchrist announced Wednesday.

He made the announcement after he had been contacted by Mrs. Paul Geddes, who was appointed to make the request at a meeting of the Rose PTA Monday night.

She was also instructed to ask that yellow markers be painted at all crosswalks in the area immediately adjacent to the school.

PTA members also pressed for adequate police supervision of the student safety patrol, comprised of fourth, fifth and sixth grade students. There are 35 boys and girls in the patrol, sponsored by the Roseburg Lions Club.

Rose School Principal E. S. Hall said a sergeant from the city police force was supposed to check regularly on the patrol's activities.

"Other than selecting children who have obtained permission from their parents and have standing in classes that will allow them to miss class work, the school feels no responsibility for the patrol," Hall stated.

He listed Stephens St. and Jackson St., which runs by the lower building of the school, as hazardous areas.

Fred H. Griner Dies Suddenly Wednesday

Fred R. Griner, about 57, Roseburg, died sometime Wednesday in a friend's apartment following a party Tuesday night, Assistant Chief of Police James McAlpine reports.

Walter Shortridge, occupant of an apartment at 511 W. Oak St., where Griner was staying overnight, discovered the body and notified police.

He told investigating officers that Griner had gone to bed in his apartment after the party had broken up.

Deputy Coroner Howard Crook attributed Griner's death to natural causes.

The body has been removed to the Roseburg Funeral Home, and funeral arrangements will be announced later.
