Students Explain Basic Principles Of Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y

A group of high school students interpreted the principles underlying the Tri-Hi-Y and the Hi-Y at a meeting of the Rotarians Thursday in the Hotel Hmpqua.

The program, consisting of several short speeches, was recorded for broadcast over KRRR Friday afternoon.

Participating were Dorothy Evans, Kay Emery, Roberta John, Velma Langford, Marlene Emmett, Shirley Miller and Frank West.

Ruth Chism, Rotary Club's centennial queen candidate, sang "Only A Rose," and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life." Piano accompaniment was provided by Wendell Johnson of Senior High School.

Each speaker outlined one of the basic tenets that provide foundation for the organizations, which are affiliates of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y were described as combining the following characteristics: religion, education, social activities, athletics and principles of a service club.

West, in summary, said that a spirit of high idealism prevailed behind the work of the organizations, and urged members to create, maintain and extend Christian characteristics.

CHOIR TO APPEAR—The above students are members of the 40-voice Linfield College Choir, appearing in concert at the First Baptist Church in Roseburg Monday, March 24, at 7:30 p.m. The choir is on tour March 24 to April 1, with stops here and Drain and several California cities. ### Teacher Defies Board, Escorts Pupils Via Plane

SAN FRANCISCO — Sixteen eighth grade pupils from Merlin, Ore., are studying Bay Area transportation because their principal defied his school board and brought them here via airplane.

Principal Royal A. Ivory likes to supplement classroom instruction with first hand study. His pupils visited the freighter Hawaiian Merchant Tuesday, Wednesday they visited United Airlines maintenance base and San Francisco Airport. They arrived via United Airliner.

It's Ivory's fourth flying class, financed by parents.

The Josephine County (Oregon) school board doesn't approve. Last month, it refused Ivory permission for the current trip. So he and the parents scheduled this one during a three-day spring vacation. Two mothers came too.

Then the board voted not to rehire Ivory for next year, said Mrs. G. A. Axtell, its chairman, at Grants Pass, Ore. She explained: "We told him we were not going to take the responsibility for any more plane trips. Although I fly myself, and I wouldn't hesitate to put my children on airplanes, I believe there are too many people around this county who want their children kept on the ground—and in the classroom."

Ivory's pupils are enjoying themselves.

Said Robert Anderson: "We're seeing a lot of things we'd never see in school."

Crash In City Offers Better Survival Chance

Fenders are bent. Paint is scratched. Tempers are frayed. But a traffic accident on a city street still offers you a better chance at survival than one on an open highway.

This, according to the Oregon state department's traffic safety division, was proved again last week when accident analysts in the highway department sorted out last year's more than 74,000 traffic mishaps according to urban and rural location.

In 1951, the department said, 332 traffic deaths resulted from accidents on rural highways, while accidents within incorporated cities accounted for 86 deaths. In 1950, there were 330 rural deaths and 98 urban traffic killings.

Death results more frequently in rural accidents, the safety division said, because of the speed at which involved vehicles are traveling.

Spring and summer months are particularly hazardous in rural areas because of increased traffic flow. Many drivers on rural roads during this period are not used to high-speed travel and are unable to keep their cars under control.

Sutherlin Cracks Down On Unlicensed Dogs

The ordinance authorizes hiring of a dog police officer to act as custodian of the pound.

Tax Payment One Mill Short; Official Puzzled

BUFFALO, N.Y. — Collector George T. McGowan is puzzled over what to do about a corporate tax payment that is one mill short.

McGowan said Thursday the firm—which he declined to name—had filed a return showing a tax liability of six cents and had attached a check for two cents.

"They outsmarted themselves on that one," he said. "Corporations are supposed to pay 35 per cent of the total tax due on the first installment. This check covers only 33 1/3 per cent."

He said the payment should have been at least 2 1/2 cents.
