CAMP FIRE GROUP ENJOYS FIELD TRIP

A pleasant trip to radio station KRXL was recently enjoyed by the O H On O T group of Camp Fire Girls under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Hyder and Mrs. Leslie Frisk.

Bill McSpadden, announcer on duty at the time of their visit, was particularly helpful in explaining the operation of the station and watching Mr. McSpadden take care of his many duties was itself an education. The teletype machine was of particular interest as well as the mechanism in which the tubes are located.

Most of the girls are working on their Wood Gatherer's Rank and the trip to the station helps them fulfill part of the requirements for that rank. In addition the trip will assist the girls in obtaining the National Birthday Honor on which all Camp Fire Girls throughout the United States are working.

CAMP FIRE GROUP WORKS ON PROJECTS

A-Owa-Ki-Ya Camp Fire group of St. Joseph's School have been making hand puppets for the Camp Fire carnival which will be held in April. They are also entering the flower show and have been helping the bloodmobile by checking coats and baby sitting.

LOOKINGGLASS PTA HAS PLANNING MEET FRIDAY

At a meeting of the Lookingglass PTA held Friday evening, plans were made for a pie social and skating party to be held April 4 at the local gymnasium. Fifth and sixth grade room mothers, Mrs. Homer Elliott and Mrs. Morris, will be in charge of arranging the pies for the auction which will be held during the evening. Proceeds of the auction will be used for 4-H club scholarships. The ladies, young and old, are urged to cooperate by bringing pies for the auction.

The organization also voted to authorize Principal Frank Rose to obtain and show the film "Human Growth" which is being shown in schools over the county. Mr. Rose will send out a questionnaire which the parents are urged to fill in and return indicating their wishes regarding the showing of this film to the children in school.

The program included talks and demonstrations of 4-H Club work in observance of 4-H Club week.

Musical numbers given by the Thompson children's quartette and the "Hay Hands" quartette, were greatly enjoyed. The Thompson's Harold, Dee, Gay and Ann were accompanied by their mother. They are newcomers to the valley and their ability and willingness is greatly appreciated. The Hay Hands quartette is composed of Messrs. Lige Ollivant, Cliff Boling, Arle Roth and Neal Meyer accompanied by Frank Rose. They have become quite popular at social functions during the winter.

The program closed with a social hour and the serving of cake, coffee and punch by Mrs. Mildred Pillion and Mrs. Velma Jacoby.
