SPRING FASHION SHOW TO BE LARGE EVENT OF NEXT MONDAY

One of the largest and most interesting affairs of the coming week will be the Roseburg Woman's Club spring fashion show and one o'clock luncheon at the clubhouse Monday, March 31.

Mrs. Carolyn Collier as commentator will present the fashion show by Miller's Department store. A group of students of Ralph Patterson's Roseburg School of Dancing will present the dance, "Spring Ballet." The theme of the show will be "Rustle of Spring." Mrs. Collier reports the spring fashions for the show have just been received by the store.

Reservations must be made by calling either Mrs. W. H. Carter at 3-5393 or Mrs. Sig Fett at 3-3481. Only 152 reservations will be made for the affair.

Mrs. Ethel Minturn will furnish the music for the affair. Miss Alice Ueland and Mrs. H. N. Jacobson are general chairmen of the affair with Mrs. L. F. Nielsen in charge of the fashion show and Mrs. R. L. Whipple as luncheon chairman. Mrs. M. Hazel Dixon is to be in charge of serving.

Members making reservations for the affair will receive their tickets at the door.

ELGAROSE SPICY CHEFS MEET AT HANSON HOME

The Elgarose Spicy Chefs met Monday at the home of Margie Hanson with Loleta Buell in charge of the business session. Roll-call was answered by members giving recipes on cooking rice and cooking potatoes. Charlotte Sand led in the group singing and Margie Hanson led in the club yell.

Table courtesy for the day was given by Charlotte Sand, who also gave the demonstration on "How To Make Spanish Rice." Games were played and lovely refreshments were served to Margie Hanson, Dixie Wooton, Charlotte Sand, Donna Sundberg, Loleta Buell, Mrs. Wooton and Mrs. Hanson.

DILLARD PTA AMATEUR AND TALENT SHOW IS VERY SUCCESSFUL

The Talent and Amateur show was presented before an appreciative audience at the Dillard School Wednesday night, March 19. The program was sponsored by the Dillard Parent-Teachers Association as a project to pay for the curtains recently installed on the stage of the auditorium. The general plans were in charge of the ways and means chairman, Mrs. Fred Albertus, and the president, Mrs. Gene Lesher. The program was arranged by Ernest Jorgensen Jr., from entries submitted from surrounding towns including Roseburg. Mrs. Reba Butler, and Mrs. Walter Middlestadt were in charge of the tickets at the door. Mrs. Clarence Walker sold popcorn.

The program was divided into two age groups. The older contestants ranged from 14 to 21 years. The master of ceremonies, Ernest Jorgensen, introduced Joan and Marilyn Wasson, who played "When Lulu Does the Hula" on electric guitars. Stanley Harryman followed playing "Down Yonder" on the piano. The third number was Mabel Butler singing "Ole Piano Roll Blues" accompanied by Molly Fullerton. Larry Gill gave a clever imitation of Donald Duck trying to run a car. Glen Fish received a large applause when he played "Goofus" on his Spanish guitar. Roberts Butler sang "Smokin' Gets In Your Eyes," accompanied by Mrs. Margaret McCord. June Dale McGuire played a piano solo, "The Desert Song." Molly Fullerton, a piano solo, "Bumble Boogie." Ted Vale, "Don't Say Aloha," on his Hawaiian guitar. Ina Ferro very beautifully played her own accompaniment and sang "My Blue Fedora." Bert and Wesley Grant played two trumpet and piano selections with each changing instruments. They also played a piano duet.

The second half of the evening's entertainment was the juvenile group, opening with Carol Dowdy playing "Shrimp Boat" and "Down Yonder" on the piano. Arlene and Darlene Botsford twins, played "Repatz Band" on their twin accordions. Helen Lee McGuire entertained with a tap dance. Judy Turner in a fast tap, "The Clog Dance." Patty Davidson presented an acrobatic dance. Terese Atturbury gave a cowboy fast tap dance. Beta Lindsey played "Moon Lady Waltz" on her accordion.

The grand prize was awarded to Patty Davidson, acrobatic. Bert and Wesley Grant of Camas Valley, piano and trumpet, won the prize in the adult age group. Arlene and Darlene Botsford on their accordions won first prize in the juvenile group.

At the close of the program, the ladies of the PTA sold delicious refreshments at the snack bar.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR OPERETTA PRESENTATION

Extensive plans are being made for the presentation of the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "The Mikado," by the upper grades of Dillard School, under the direction Mrs. Irene McLaughlin, music director for the school.

The operetta, in which music pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades will participate, will be presented sometime during the month of April. Two performances are planned due to the large crowds which usually turn out for these annual events. The exact date will be announced later.

The Dillard School auditorium, where last year's operetta, "Hansel and Gretel," was presented, was filled to capacity at both performances. Directed by Mrs. McLaughlin, the cast of characters included the lower four grades of the school. Proceeds were used to defray expenses on text books for music classes.

BETTER DRESS WORKSHOP HOLDS TWO MEETINGS

The "Better Dress Workshop," conducted under the auspices of the Winston-Dillard Home Extension Unit, met at the home of Eleanor Shigley, Thursday March 13. The meeting was an all-day affair with a sack lunch at noon.

Participating in the project and present for the day were: Margaret McCord, Carol Hercher, Mayme Manske Jean Carls, Connie Nelson, Neva Conrad and the hostess, Eleanor Shigley.

The following Thursday, March 20, a similar meeting was held at the home of Letitia Halverson. Those present on that day included Margaret McCord, Carol Hercher, Mayme Manske, Jean Carls, Connie Nelson, Eleanor Shigley, Vivian Borgas, Neva Conrad; the hostess, Letitia Halverson and Catherine Sproul, house-guest of Vivian Borgas.

The next meeting of the "Better Dress Workshop" group will be held March 27 at the home of Mayme Manske.

OLYMPIA BEER

"It's the Water"

Centuries of brewing experience have shown that certain waters have a greater solvent quality than others to extract the desirable but highly elusive flavors from the hops and grains, and impart them to the beer. Our artesian water... the property of Olympia Brewing Company... is a faultless brewing water that makes it possible to produce a beer of very fine flavor and constant, unchanging quality... MAN FOUND TIED UP

It was reported yesterday that Calvin Wolf of this city was found tied up in his place of business at 2122 Hollis Street, directly behind Richie's Root Beer Drive-In on highway 99 north.

This was not the first time that Calvin Wolf has found himself tied up and he hopes it isn't the last time. Mr. Wolf pointed out that he finds himself tied up in his work often. He claims it's relatively easy to become tied up, since there is so much hand tying of springs.

Mr. Wolf, conscientious owner of the Expert Furniture Cleaners and Upholsterers, says: "Business isn't GOOD business until it makes a friend, and, as such, he tries to treat the customer as though he were the customer himself. The phone, please — 3-3191... it's an ad."

DONT FORGET THIS IMPOTANT DATE APRIL 15th

What is so important about April 15? It is a day that is very important to every American living in Oregon. April 15 is the last day that you can register to vote in the Oregon Primary. It makes no difference how you vote but be sure that you are eligible to vote in this very important election. The Oregon primary election shows the nation whom you want in our most important elective offices. It costs you nothing to register! There is no poll tax in this state. The only cost to you is a few minutes of your time. It is easy to register! Go to the County Clerk's office and tell them what you want to do. After you have registered, be sure to go to the polls and state your preference on your ballot.

You have to re-register if you have changed political parties, have moved from one precinct to another, if you have not voted in the last two primary or general elections or if you have changed your name; and you should register if you have reached legal age. Voting is a must for every American. Don't miss your opportunity to express your own political choice during the coming elections. Register now! Register next week, but register before April 15!
