Reporter's Roundup

REPORTERS' ROUNDUP guest appearing on tonight's broadcast is Senator Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, a Democratic candidate for the presidency. He will be interviewed from his native state via a special two-way circuit connecting him with Washington.

Three by-line newsmen will huri queries from the capital. This is a weekly feature heard from 8:00 to 8:30 Fridays.

WITH THE BROADCAST of Monday, 5:30 to 5:55 p.m., "Wild Bill Hickok" inaugurates its second year as a network feature. This fast-moving program, co-starring Guy Madison and Andy Devine as "Wild Bill" and his deputy, "Jingles," dramatizes the colorful life of James Butler Hickok, famed law-enforcement officer of the post-Civil War days.

Starting as a Sunday feature, it scored an immediate hit with the radio public. Starting last New Year's Day it was expanded to a three-times-per-week series, and is now heard each Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings.

WAYNES' QUIZ CLUB will be heard from the American Legion hall tomorrow morning at 10:30. Increasingly popular with the younger set, you can hear these youngsters vie for defense stamps every Saturday morning. If your children would like to participate, they can sign up immediately following the broadcast, or mail their names, addresses, and ages. We will be happy to enroll them and have them on the program in the near future.

CAMERA ENTHUSIASTS, either amateur or a little better, you will glean many helpful hints from BEFORE THE CAMERA, heard Saturday's at 10:15 a.m. Picture-taking always enjoyable can be much more satisfying when some of the tricks of the trade are employed. Now is a good time to bone up for those glorious spring days just around the corner.

OKLAHOMA CITY SYMPHONY, conducted by Guy Fraser Harrison, features a program of memorable music for tomorrow's broadcast, 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. Selections to be heard are Waltz from "Sleeping Beauty," Concerto No. 1 in F Sharp Minor for piano and orchestra, Poem for String Orchestra, and others Monday's program for MUSIC YOU WANT, 2:30 to 3:00, also features the "Sleeping Beauty" Waltz, and "1812 Overture," both by Tchaikovsky. Tuesday, April 1, six tenors of outstanding ability sing six arias.

Chicken Pox Strikes Twice On Twin Boys

LONDON (AP)—A doctor reported Thursday twin five-year-old boys came down with chicken pox twice in six weeks. Second attacks of chicken pox are rare, because a first attack almost always confers immunity.

C. Spencer Whitehouse, writing in the British Medical Journal, said the twins lived in Birmingham.

They caught the disease the first time last Nov. 12 and the second time Dec. 28.

Dillard Man Returns From Korean Front

By MRS. ROSA HEINBACH

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Middlestadt entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hurley and her son and daughter-in-law, Sgt. and Mrs. Tyrus Lovelace of Roseburg, formerly of Westfir, Ore. They spent the evening discussing Sgt. Lovelace's experiences. He is a veteran of Korean combat duty and served with the honor guard as a platoon sergeant.

Sgt. Lovelace arrived in Roseburg last week to visit his parents. He served with Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's Honor Guard Company in Tokyo prior to his return to the United States. He is a graduate of Eugene High School and a former student at the University of Oregon. Lovelace entered the army in 1948, at Ford Ord, Calif., and arrived in the Far East in 1949.

Dillard News Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Haumesser and daughters, Marilyn and Roberta returned from a week's visit to Southern California Sunday night. Traveling south from Dillard they encountered heavy stormy weather. Their first stop was Sacramento. In Tuljunga, Calif., they were guests of Mr. Haumesser's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. K. O. Meyer. They later visited his cousin's, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ekberg and daughters, Sue and Ann. Together they visited points of interest around Hollywood. The girls partook of winter bathing at Santa Monica.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Collins and children, Perley and Andy, spent the week-end in Portland, visiting the former's brother and family. Mr. and Mrs. John Collins and children, Pat and Mike, Mrs. Collins attended the district convention of the Supreme Forest Woodman Circle as a delegate from this district.

Lois Williams, 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Williams, was home with the flu for the past two weeks. She returned to her fourth grade class Tuesday morning. Mrs. Nora Williams, grandmother of Lois, is also recovering from flu.

Marla Kay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Burt, recovered from an attack of scarletina in time to start to school Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Torricellis and son are moving from the Fosback Cabins to Cottage Grove.

Ronnie B. Barryman, operator of the Dillard Super Service Station, is spending a few days in Portland at the Portland clinic.

Mrs. Jack Cluster and Mrs. A. D. Fox motored to Eugene Tuesday on a business and pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Pierson returned from a vacation trip to Portland and White Salmon, Wash. Saturday. In Portland, they were guests of Rev. H. M. Collins. Later, they motored to White Salmon. The Pierson children, Roseanne and Roger, stayed with their maternal grandmother, Mrs. Rose Titus, and son, Donald, who are visiting in Dillard from Prairie City, Ore. Mr. Pierson is at present making contacts and lining up building materials to build a church and parsonage in Ford's Addition. Tentative plans are being made to begin construction in about six weeks, weather permitting.
