WAVA RUTH ANDERSON BECOMES BRIDE OF ROBERT RIDGEWAY

The Faith Lutheran Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Wava Ruth Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson of Roseburg to Robert Ridgeway, son of Mrs. Vivian Padelford, Glendale, March 22. Rev. Willis F. Erickson officiated.

The church was decorated with baskets of white and lavender stocks and tall white tapers in candelabra.

Frank Moore sang "My World" and "Because" and was accompanied by Mrs. Willis Erickson. At the close of the ceremony he sang, "May The Lord Bless and Keep You."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an off the shoulder gown of white satin trimmed in lace and seed pearls. The gown had a hoop skirt and full train. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was held in place by a coronet. She wore a necklace of seed pearls which were a family heirloom. Her bridal bouquet was of white carnations and rosebuds.

Attending the bride was Mrs. Helen Byrd, matron of honor, who wore a gown of yellow lace and net and carried a nosegay of yellow carnations centered with violets, and Joanne Blakely and Gloria Swanson, bridesmaids, who wore matching gowns of orchid lace and net and carried nosegays of white carnations circled with violets.

Miss Peggy Jessup, niece of the bride, and Miss Patricia Reese were candlelighters and flower girls. Miss Jessup wore a yellow taffeta gown, fashioned off the shoulder and with a hoop skirt and Miss Reese was dressed in pale green taffeta.

Orville Reese was best man for the bridegroom and Leon Hughes and Allen Tengs were ushers. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Anderson was gowned in a dress of gold jersey and wore a corsage of white camellias. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of teal blue and a corsage of pink camellias.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors. Mrs. O. Peterson, Roseburg; Mrs. H. C. Jessup, Portland; Mrs. L. O. Brown, Salem; Mrs. O. G. Reese, Glendale and Mrs. L. P. Christensen, Warrenton, poured. Mrs. Betty Clemmons was in charge of the gifts and Miss Joan Lashua, the guest book.

The bride's table was centered with a four tiered cake decorated in yellow and green. Candelabra holding white tapers flanked either side of the cake.

Following a wedding trip to the coast the couple are now residing at Glendale. For traveling the bride chose a pink suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of small brown flecked orchids.
