a mighty good newspaper woman to surprise a good newspaper man, but Tess Harding, as "Woman of the Year," tries to do just that tonight at 7:00. Bette Davis has the leading role, while George Brent portrays her sports writer husband.

RISK OF THE GAME... a rip-roaring story of the trucking business, of the men who are known as "Knights of the Road." George Valentine really has his work cut out for him as he goes into the guise of a truck driver himself to help pretty Helen Parker save the valuable trucking firm left in her care by her father. Someone is trying very hard, by creating a series of dangerous "accidents," to ruin Miss Parker's business. Even murder may be on the schedule if George can't stop the vicious trend of events. George pulls out of this fast-moving adventure.

THE MYSTERIOUS TRAVELER is one of five candidates nominated for an "Edgar" by the radio awards committee of the Mystery Writers of America. Balloting will be by mail, and the selection will be announced at the annual Edgar Allan Poe Awards Dinner, to be held by Bob Arthur and David Cogan, "The Mysterious Traveler" is another representative thriller in the spine-tingling and audience building Mutual lineup, as a former "Edgar" winner, this program is believed to have a good chance of gaining the award again. "Mysterious Traveler" is heard Tuesdays at 10:30 p.m.

LATEST REPORTS on Wisconsin primaries... Glenn Hardy, whose 9:00-9:15 p.m. newscasts are heard each evening except Sunday, will air the latest up-to-the-minute reports on the April 1st primaries in Wisconsin. Because of the time differences between the Midwest and the West Coast it will be midnight in Wisconsin when Hardy hits the air. Thus the voting trend will be evident by the time Hardy airs the news.

CONVICTION APPEALED

Transcript on an appeal to Circuit Court of a Roseburg municipal court conviction of Dale W. Clapshaw on a drunk driving charge was received Friday by the higher court.

Clapshaw, of 2125 Taylor St., was convicted Wednesday by a six-person city court jury. Judge Ira B. Riddle fined him $200 and sentenced him to 30 days in jail. Clapshaw has been released in $200 bail pending the appeal.

John Todd Named Fund Chairman For Scout Drive

John Todd has been named general chairman of the Oregon Trail Council Boy Scout fund drive scheduled for May.

He is vice president of the council and holder of the Silver Beaver highest award bestowed on scouters in the council. In addition, he was a member of the council executive board, chairman of Douglas district and is institutional representative for Rose School Club Pack.

All towns in Lincoln, Curry and Douglas County with the exception of Roseburg will be covered during the campaign. Harrisburg in Linn County will also be solicited.

The drive will occur simultaneously in all towns and communities within the drive area. District finance chairman are recruiting drive directors in towns, who will work in cooperation with Todd.

During the drive period, a sustaining membership campaign will be conducted in Lane County, Coos Bay, North Bend and Corvallis. In these towns scouts will receive aid from the community chest.

The budget for 1953 calls for $89,973. The money will be used to organize new units, strengthen existing ones, train leaders and provide services to institutions.
