SEE HERE, PRIVATE HARGROVE, starring Eddie Albert, is tonight's story for MGM THEATER at 8:00. Private Hargrove has the knack of doing things all wrong and his induction into the U. S. Army only alters slightly the kind of things he can do wrong. Tom Mulvehill (Robert Alda) who knows all the answers, spends his army career trying to rick Hargrove out of the money he gets for writing pieces about the army for his home town paper. Of course, there is a female interest in the form of Carol Holliday (Lola Albright) who portrays a Red Cross assistant. Remembering the picture a few years back, we think this will be good listening.

MUSIC YOU WANT tomorrow, 2:30 to 3:00, features guest artist Alexander Brailowsky in an impressive program including two Chopin waltzes.

BECAUSE OF THE outstanding audience reaction to the FAMILY THEATER presentation of William Listz's story "The Little Tree" one year ago, the dramatization will again be included in the pre-Easter line-up of programs. This charming fantasy is scheduled for Saturday, April 5, at 8:00, and is well worth marking your calendar for. This is a tender tale of a tiny tree that first pushed through the ground many centuries ago in a faraway land. The tree, with the aid of a kind faced man, struggled to full growth only to see that same man bear a heavy cross made from one of its branches.

I WAS A COMMUNIST FOR THE F.B.I. Tomorrow at 8:00 p.m. brings the second in this new series based on one of the most provocative documents in America's war against Communism, and starring Hollywood's Dana Andrews. As loyal Americans are going about their daily business, the evil forces of Communism are gnawing at the very foundation of our democracy. This is the imperative message relayed by this most timely and powerful radio show in America.

Morocco Torn By Mobs In Anti-French Riot

TANGIER (AP) — Furious anti-French mobs ran riot through this North African International Zone city Sunday. At least six persons were killed. Hospitals treated 151 injured. Nine persons are so badly hurt doctors fear they will die.

The mobs, bursting from the native quarter, set on end European shops and cafes, smashed and burned automobiles, broke windows and looted. The occasion was the 40th anniversary of French rule over the neighboring protectorate of French Morocco, where rising Arab nationalism has been manifest in recent months.

A century ago farmers brought milk to city homes in cans hanging from yokes on their shoulders.

OLD PILOT, NEW THRILL—James W. Montee, 89, of Los Angeles, Calif., the nation's oldest licensed airplane pilot, will get the thrill of his life when he is taken up for his first ride in a jet fighter plane. Montee, who first soloed at the age of 60, has flown 41 types of aircraft, including an ancient Jenny. He wrote to the commanding general of El Toro Marine Air Station at Santa Ana, Calif., requesting the ride, and Defense Department officials gave their o.k.

Oregon Welfare Funds To Be Cut Again This Year

PORTLAND (AP)—Assistance payments for certain needy children will be withheld again this year during July and August when agricultural jobs are plentiful.

That plan, in effect last summer, will be adopted again this year, Administrator Lon Howard told the State Welfare Commission Friday.

Also the commission indicated it favored court action to force relatives of welfare recipients to file affidavits of taxable income.

Some 400 of the 100,000 who received affidavits last year failed to return them, she said. The affidavits, required under a 1949 law, will be mailed after April 18. They are used to determine the

THEY WON'T WANT A SECOND CUP—Anita Savole, waitress, of Danvers, Mass., displays one of the most expensive coffee-cups in the world. It is one of three from which armored car guards were drinking when their truck was looted of $681,000. To date, no one has asked for a re-fill.

THE "NOBLEST ROMAN"?—Believed to be the first activity of its kind in Europe, an "Eisenhower for President" movement has been started in Italy by the three World War II veterans, above. Wearing their "I like Ike" buttons, they are, from left: James C. Lowry; Alec D'Alessio; Dorsey Anderson. They have opened a campaign headquarters in Rome.

Flier, 89, Given Nod To Go On Jet Flight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—James W. Montee, 89, won't let his age interfere with his ambition to keep up with aviation progress. So on April Fool's Day he gets a ride in a jet fighter plane.

Montee, the nation's oldest pilot, who owns his own light plane, has been granted permission to go on a jet flight and he's already passed his physical examination.

Margaret Truman Knew Father Wouldn't Run

PORTLAND (AP)—It was no surprise to Margaret Truman that her father won't be a candidate for reelection.

Miss Truman was notified of her father's announcement only a few minutes before she appeared on the stage of the Portland auditorium for a concert here Saturday.

"I've known about it before and I learned this afternoon that he was going to make the announcement tonight," she said.
