FASHION SHOW AND LUNCHEON IS LARGE AFFAIR OF MONDAY

One of the largest affairs of the spring season was the Roseburg Women's Club spring luncheon and fashion show, sponsored by Miller's Department store, Monday at the clubhouse. In the front row are three of four girls dancing a ballet number and include, left to right: Kathi Corkrum, Jo Ann Theile and Mary Lynne Parsons. In the back row are left to right: Mrs. Victor Bean, Mrs. Carolyn Collier, commentator and fashion manager at Miller's, Mrs. Leo Young and Miss Janice Erickson. In the picture below are four of the models and who include left to right: Mrs. Harry W. Booth, Mrs. Earl Plummer, club president, Mrs. M. Hazel Dixon and Mrs. Sig Fett. (Pictures by Paul Jenkins)

Miss Alice Ueland and Mrs. H. N. Jacobson were co-chairmen of the successful event. Mrs. Lester F. Nielsen was chairman of the fashion show and introduced Mrs. Carolyn Collier, fashion manager of Miller's, who very ably and charmingly acted as commentator.

Mrs. W. H. Carter and Mrs. Sig Fett were in charge of the tickets. Mrs. M. Hazel Dixon was in charge of serving and Mrs. R. L. Whipple acted as chairman of the luncheon.

Mrs. Ethel Minturn, pianist, played the background music for the affair and accompanied Miss Sandra Melba, soprano, who sang "Sweethearts" and "Who also," sang, "Who'll Buy My Violets," as Kathi Corkrum, Verna Marsters, Mary Lynne Parsons and Jo Ann Theile, danced a charming ballet and then left the stage to present old-fashioned spring nosegays to every guest. The girls were gowned in lavender satin ballet gowns trimmed with clusters of violets with matching violets in their hair. They were from Ralph Patterson's Roseburg School of Dancing as was also Shary Perrault, who opened the program with a beautiful ballet number.

Mrs. Earl Plummer, president, welcomed the guests and turned the program over to Mrs. Nielsen, who introduced the numbers. Mrs. Collier, commentator, presented the following models: Mrs. Leo Young, Mrs. Victor Bean, Mrs. Earl Plummer, Mrs. Harry W. Booth, Mrs. M. Hazel Dixon, Mrs. Sig Fett, Mrs. W. L. Roughcore, Mrs. James Moran, and Miss Janice Erickson.

In addition to modeling most attractive spring suits and dresses a clever scene showing pretty spring housedresses was enjoyed. Coat and evening wear were also shown.

The stage setting was beautiful with a background of spring blossoms. The luncheon tables were centered with miniature spring sunshades made by Mrs. Earl Wiley. The fashion show carried out the theme, "Rustle of Spring."

BANQUET GIVEN IN CELEBRATION OF CAMP FIRE GIRLS' BIRTHDAY

Camp Fire Girls of Drain celebrated the 42nd National Birthday of Camp Fire Thursday by honoring their fathers at a Father-Daughter Potluck Banquet held at the Drain Grade School gymnasium. Ninety four persons were in attendance.

Highlight of the evening was a cleverly illustrated talk given by guest speaker, Harold Hoyt, Roseburg businessman. Mr. Hoyt's talk was entitled "Hold That Line" and was greatly enjoyed by all.

Mistress of ceremonies for the event was Mrs. Rundell, leader of the Opechee group. The welcome was given by Dora May Shaw, Camp Fire Girl. The response was given by Pat Brown, principal of Drain High School and father of one of the girls. Each girl introduced her father after which the sponsors, leaders and special guests were introduced. Of special enjoyment were the program numbers given by the various groups.

The Cheskehamay group presented a play "Mrs. Perkins Hat." The Wetomochick group presented an original skit, "The Easter Parade," in which each girl modeled an Easter Bonnet she had fashioned for the occasion.

All groups joined in singing. The Opechee group concluded the program by singing "The Boating Song."

The banquet tables were decorated with original motifs and designs made by the girls. In charge of banquet arrangements was the Drain Leaders Association, headed by Mrs. Hush Whipple and assisted by Mrs. Clearman, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Rundell, Camp Fire leaders. Several

76th BIRTHDAY IS INSPIRATION FOR LARGE FAMILY REUNION

The 76th birthday of Emil Schiessel was the inspiration for a large family reunion at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schiessel in Medford. The surprise birthday dinner party was served March 16 to the honored guests, children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Pictures were taken of the group and the four generations composed of Emil Schiessel Sr., his son, L.S. Schiessel, daughter, Mrs. William Khulwin and two small children, Vickie, and Billie, of Ashland.

The highlight of the sumptuous chicken dinner was the presentation of a large white sheet cake decorated and presented to the guest of honor by his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Perry, of Billard. The cake was beautiful with the lettering "Happy Birthday Dad" in green and the cake was robed around the edge with pink ribbons and green shamrocks, the handwork of Mrs. Perry.

Mrs. Schiessel received many gifts from Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schiessel Jr., of Klamath Falls, and their son, Jirold, who is home on leave from the Navy; Mrs. George Hazelton and daughter, Ruth; another daughter, Mrs. Glenn Buchanan and son, Neil, all of Klamath Falls; Mrs. Gerol Whitlatch and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Keber of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Schiessel and daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Khulwin and two children, Vickie and Billie of Ashland; Mrs. Ina Di Rae who flew down from Pasco, Wash., in time for the dinner; Robert Baker of Grants Pass; Mrs. Arthur Perry and son Bud of Billard.

After an enjoyable meal and all the guests returned to their respective homes.

WEDNESDAY BRIDGE CLUB IS ENTERTAINED AT P.M. BERRIE HOME

Pink magnolias formed the decorations for the serving table used by Mrs. O. M. Berrie Wednesday evening, when she entertained her bridge club at a delightful seven o'clock supper at her home on East Douglas Street.
