Dillard Family Returns From Recent Vacation

By ROSA M. HEINBACH

Mrs. Wade Gentry, son, Wayland and Jerry, and son-in-law, Marian Withers, and grandson, Joe Paul Phillips, arrived at their homes in Dillard following a two-week trip to their former home in Ola, Ark. They report just missing the heart of the tornado. Mrs. Gentry, who has encountered these tornadoes before, stated that while traveling through Leslie, Ark., they were only 30 miles from the main part of the tornado that wrecked homes and killed relatives of residents in this locality. She said they suffered discomfort enough in "being on the edge of the storm." While in the community where the Gentry family lived until they came to Dillard three years ago, they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Edkins, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Phillips, parents of their son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Phillips, of Dillard. In Adona, Ark., they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Metcalf, parents of another son-in-law, W. D. Metcalf, Dillard.

In Dallas, Tex., they visited Mrs. Gentry's son and daughter, Jr. and three year old son, Stevie. Mrs. Gentry reports that she was "thrilled to death" with her first experience seeing television.

Jerry Gentry will resume his studies in the junior class at the Roseburg High School Monday morning. Wayland graduated last year and is soon to be inducted into the army.

Dillard News Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith and children, Janice Marie and Jimmie, have moved into the Foshback Cabin from Kent Creek. Guests last week at the Smith home were Mrs. Agnes Hutton of Mrs. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Ivar Lindstrom of Melrose, parents of Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Heinbach Sr. motored to Grants Pass Tuesday, where they visited their son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Heinbach Jr., Roger Dean and Mary Helen. The latter family are running a thirty-cow grade "A" dairy farm close to Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Heinbach Jr. returned recently from a vacation trip to Southern California and Mexico. In Los Angeles, they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Brewer and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Baker. Both men were school friends of Bill in Lynwood, Calif.

Returning home, Mr. and Mrs. Heinbach Sr. stopped at the Waggoner Hotel to visit Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Solnicka, formerly of this vicinity. They have started construction on three new units and plan to have seven units finished by summer tourist season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fosback, accompanied Paul Hult in the latter's airplane, to San Francisco. They left Dillard Thursday afternoon. The Fosback's went to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Fosback, who now live at Alameda, Calif. Oliver is now an Eurology technician at the Oak Knoll Naval Hospital. Hult went to San Rafael to visit his son, Barton, who is attending the San Rafael Military Academy. They attended the father-son banquet together Thursday evening, and returned Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. McAllister accompanied by the latter's niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mead, of Eugene, left Monday morning on a two week trip to California, Arizona and Nevada.

Methodist Church Sets Communion Services

First Methodist Church of Roseburg will hold special communion services Thursday at 7 p.m. The services are open to the public. The early hour is planned in order that those interested may attend the Matt Cvetec lecture at Senior High School the same evening.

Good Friday services are announced for 8 p.m. Friday, when the choir will present the cantata "Messe Solennelle" (Saint Cecilia Mass) by Charles Gounod. Easter Sunday morning two identical services are scheduled for 8:30 and 11 a.m. Regular Sunday School will be at 9:45.

Probation Follows Penitentiary Sentence

Carl Dee Rucker, 34, 1808 Ellen Ave., was given probation on a three-year penitentiary sentence imposed Tuesday after he pleaded guilty to contributing to the delinquency of a 13-year-old girl. Also arraigned in Circuit Court Tuesday, Robert C. Wendt, 29, Eureka, Calif., pleaded guilty to larceny by bailee, involving the transporting of a trailer out of the county without consent of the owner. Judge Carl E. Wimberly postponed sentence.

Wendt waived preliminary hearing Tuesday in district court on a second charge placed against him — drawing a bank check without funds.

BPWC TO SPONSOR BENEFIT CARD PARTY MONDAY EVENING

One of the most interesting affairs of the coming week will be the Business and Professional Club's benefit card party Monday evening, April 14, at 8 o'clock at the Episcopal Parish Hall.

Preceding the card party, Miss Carol Lane, travel tipster, will give a talk on "Travel." Miss Lane has written two booklets, "Travel a la Car," which brushes lightly over the subject of vacation goals and bears down on techniques designed to make travel easier and more enjoyable. It includes down-to-earth tips on budgeting, packing, caring for the car, preparing to leave home, finding accommodations and reading road maps. The second booklet is "Touring Can Be Child's Play" and contains a multitude of hints on how to travel with children.

One of the most popular of her printed efforts is her recent checklist of 43 items every woman needs on a week-end trip. The pamphlet also contains a step-by-step picture story showing how these essentials can be packed wrinkle-free into a 21-inch week-end suitcase. All three can be obtained by writing Miss Lane at the Shell Oil Company, 100 Bush Street, San Francisco, 8, Calif.

Contract bridge, pinocle and canasta will be in play and prizes will be awarded winners. Refreshments will be served. Reservations for the party may be made by calling Miss V. Vivian Logsdon at 3-4337 or Mrs. Priscilla Clarenbach at 3-7034. Both men and women are invited to enjoy the party.
