TONIGHT IS THE NIGHT.

To hear Matt Cvetic speak, when he will be here in person, at the Junior High School, 8:00 p.m. You read his articles in the Saturday Evening Post, you have been hearing his story on KRNR each Wednesday at 8:00; now you can see him, and hear first-hand of his experiences when he posed for nine years as a Communist and furnished the F.B.I. with over 20,000 reports on Communist activities. Every American should hear Matt Cvetic! Following his address, he will answer questions from the audience. SEE YOU THERE? No admission charge.

AND TONIGHT, VIA THE AIR LINES, Glenn Leuning sings again, when he presents an all-religious program as his contribution to Easter Week. His guest this week is to be a local violinist. That's the GLENN LEUNING SHOW, tonight at 7:30.

FIREWORKS ARE SLATED again for the Reporters' Round-up program, tomorrow evening at 8:00. Newbold Morris, whose dismissal as Washington correspondent prompted President Truman to name a new Attorney General, is the victim. Mr. Morris made the deadline news during his "Reporters' Roundup" appearance on Feb. 29, when he revealed that he would circulate a financial questionnaire among all federal employees. This action subsequently led to his dismissal.

SPECIAL EASTER PROGRAMS SLATED. KRNR's program schedule lists a roster of top stars for its Easter Week broadcasts. Saturday night at 8:00, FAMILY THEATRE will again present Ethel and Lionel Barrymore in a narrative on "The Passion and Death of Our Lord." Easter Sunday finds Mutual-Don Lee's commentator Robert F. Hurlleigh narrating a special broadcast of the Mooseheart, Ill. This outstanding 150-voiced mixed choir is presented in cooperation with the Loyal Order of Moose. Program time is set for 5:30 to 6:00 p.m. Easter Sunday also marks the sixth annual presentation of "The Triumphant Hour," Family Theatre's Easter gift from 10:30 to 11:30 p.m. Twenty-two of the top names in the show business will be heard from Hollywood and New York.

NAM President Raps Steel Industry Seizure

NEW YORK (AP) — The president of the National Association of Manufacturers assailed Wednesday as "naked dictatorship" the government's seizure of the steel industry.

William J. Grede, in a statement issued through NAM offices here, said:

"If Congress and the courts permit this usurpation of executive authority to go unchallenged, no home, no business, none of our cherished freedoms are safe."
