

THE MORGAN-CALVIN WEDDING PARTY, above, poses for Jay Golden of Fredrickson's Photo Lab, following the wedding ceremony Sunday afternoon, April 6, at the First Presbyterian Church. In front is the candlelighter, Suzi Calvin, cousin of the bride; Julianne Dickson and Mrs. Thomas Calvin, bridesmaids; Miss Janice Mooers, maid of honor; the bride and bridegroom; Durward Boyles, best man; and Bill Van Horn and Don Parr, ushers. Below, the bride, who before her marriage was Miss Adele Calvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Calvin, of Glendale.

Morgan-Calvin Wedding Party Is Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Calvin entertained at a charming dinner party at Carl's Haven Saturday evening for the wedding party of their daughter, Adele, and John Morgan, who were married Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church.

A miniature bridal party and gardenias formed the attractive table decorations. Covers were placed for Adele and John and Miss Julianne Dickson of Cathlamet, Wash., Miss Janice Mooers of Skamawash, Wash., Miss Patricia Wong of Honolulu, Mr. and Mrs. Seward Calvin and daughter, Suzi, of Chehalis, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Calvin, bridesmaids, Miss Janice Mooers of Skamawash, Wash., were bridesmaids. Miss Dickson wore a floor-length gown of pink nylon embroidered in white. The bodice was fashioned with a stole-like deep collar of nylon fastened at each side of the neckline. The bridesmaids wore pink nylon net gowns fashioned to match the maid of honor's gown. The carried satin loops topped with a spray of carnations and satin ribbons. They wore single strands of pearls.

Durward Boyles, student at Southern Oregon School of Education, was best man and Don Parr, student at University of Oregon, and Bill Van Horn, student at Willamette University, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a grey

INTERESTING MEETING HELD BY ALPHA THETA CHAPTER AT KREWSONS

The Alpha Theta Chapter met at the home of Mrs. Gene Krewson March 25 with Mrs. Stuart Smith and Mrs. Jim Decker as assisting hostesses for their "Model meeting" of the spring rushing season. The Ways and Means chairman discussed the cake, cookie and candy sale and the social committee reported on the spring dance to be May 16 at the Country Club for all Beta Sigma Phi members and their guests. It was decided to carry out the "Buttons and Bows" theme.

The chapter presented plans for helping out needy families over the Easter weekend with food baskets.

Mrs. Byron Smith presented a very interesting talk on "The History and Meaning of Beta Sigma Phi" for the guests. Mrs. Meredith Wilson told of the social activities that were enjoyed throughout the year and Mrs. Art Ritchie described the Ways and Means projects and the purpose for which the money was raised. She told of the help given to the Children's Hospital in Eugene and how this year the Chapter donated to a home town child that is being sent there.

Mrs. Jack Finden and Mrs. Nat Butler presented a most interesting program on music and illustrated their talk with the playing of records.

Those present were: Miss Shirley Spencer, Mrs. Norman Saltee, Mrs. Archie White, Mrs. R. W. Cabell, Mrs. Donivan Wright, Mrs. Archie White, Mrs. Byron Smith, Mrs. Jack Cummings, Mrs. Bob Harris, Mrs. Marion Spring and Mrs. Meredith Wilson.

Morgan-Calvin Wedding Large Event Of Sunday

Largest wedding of the spring season was Sunday April 6 at the First Presbyterian Church when Miss Adele Ann Calvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Calvin of Glendale, became the bride of John Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Morgan of Roseburg. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the impressive double ring ceremony at three o'clock in the presence of 250 guests.

A pink and white setting was arranged for the wedding. Huge baskets of pink and white snapdragons decorated the altar. The candelabra held tall pink candles. A large floor candle centered the altar at the base of which were pink camellias. The pews were marked with bows of pink meline and satin ribbons.

Mrs. Homer W. Grow played the wedding music and accompanied Leroy Hiatt who sang "Through the Years" and "At Dawning."

Suzi Calvin, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seward Calvin of Chehalis, Wash., lighted the candles. She wore a floor-length gown of pink organza fashioned with a sash and large bow at the back. The yoke was outlined with pink and blue rosebuds. She wore a band of meline twined with pearls in her hair and carried a pink candle tied with a pink bow.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was very beautiful in a floor-length gown of white nylon net and lace. The wrist-length sleeves were of lace with tiny buttons to the elbow. A deep-pointed apron of lace decorated the front of the dress. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was held in place by a lace cap edged with meline ruching and pearls. She carried a round bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis backed by lace and tied with a shower of satin ribbons. She wore a three-strand pearl necklace which had belonged to her grandmother.

Miss Julianne Dickson of Cathlamet, Wash., was maid of honor and Mrs. Thomas Calvin, Glendale, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Janice Mooers of Skamawash, Wash., were bridesmaids. Miss Dickson wore a floor-length gown of pink nylon embroidered in white. The bodice was fashioned with a stole-like deep collar of nylon fastened at each side of the neckline. The bridesmaids wore pink nylon net gowns fashioned to match the maid of honor's gown. The carried satin loops topped with a spray of carnations and satin ribbons. They wore single strands of pearls.

Durward Boyles, student at Southern Oregon School of Education, was best man and Don Parr, student at University of Oregon, and Bill Van Horn, student at Willamette University, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a grey

Bridge Luncheon Given By Mrs. Harold Schmeer

Camellias and grape hyacinths in a flat arrangement graced the table, while bouquets of wild currant and lamb's tongues were used about the living room Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. Harold E. Schmeer entertained at a charming one o'clock luncheon at her attractive home in Laurelhurst.

Guests invited to enjoy the occasion with Mrs. Schmeer included: Mrs. P. T. Bubar, Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. Harry S. Black, Mrs. H. H. Stapleton, Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Mrs. Robert K. Kidder, Mrs. C. W. Wharton, Mrs. J. R. Wharton, Mrs. M. B. Green, Mrs. J. F. Sawyers, Miss Gertrude Rast, Mrs. J. A. Harding, Miss Rosa B. Parrott and Mrs. Velle Broadway.

Contract bridge was in play during the afternoon with Mrs. C. W. Wharton winning high score; Mrs. Sawyers, second high, and Mrs. Stapleton, third.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ritchie in Garden Valley April 4. The tables were beautifully decorated with spring flowers and dinner was enjoyed by the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Edmonds and son, Walter Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McKay and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ritchie.

ROSEBURG ZONTA CLUB MEETS AT TURN AROUND CLUB WEDNESDAY

The Roseburg Zonta Club held a Dinner Meeting at the Turn Around Inn Wednesday April 2 at 7:30 p.m. Virginia Ashcraft was in charge of decorations. The long table was decorated with spring flowers with a centerpiece of gold and wine carnations. Zonta colors are gold and wine. Clever Easter motif nut cups and place cards added to the beauty of the table.

Four members were formally initiated into Zonta International. They were: Marion Voeller, Georgia Roles, Joy Augustus and Laverne Von Schrititz. A new board of directors was elected.

A letter was read from Mrs. Brookings, thanking Zonta for the help they gave the Junior Women's Club in raising money to send a crippled boy from Douglas County to the Crippled Children's Hospital in Eugene.

Mildred Horn reported on the Inter-city meeting at Eugene. A discussion followed about Mr. Gows' attitude toward the American people and their way of life. Plans are being made for several of the members to attend the Spring Conference at Vancouver B. C. April 18, 19 and 20.

Janice Johnson is being sponsored by Zonta for the Douglas County Centennial Queen contest.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Martha Wishart April 16 at 8 p.m.

The following members attended: Marion Voeller, Laverne Von Schrititz, Joy Augustus, Georgia Roles, Rita Barcus, Emily Judd, Laura Iles, Lois Baker, Carmen Clark, Virginia Ashcraft, Edith Radabaugh, Paula Gorton, Gladys Foley, Edna Helgeson, Eleanor Carlson, Mildred Horn, Martha Wishart, Pricilla Clarenbach and Edith Landis.

CARL CONWAY HAS BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Carl Conway celebrated his birthday Monday evening, when a group of friends gathered at his home.

Games were played during the evening, after which a beautifully decorated birthday cake, ice cream and coffee were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Conway, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Curtis and two sons; Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Siano, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Means and son; Mrs. Dan Russell and son, Roger; Mr. and Mrs. John Lewey, Mrs. Russell Loyd and Mrs. and Mrs. Russell Wamsley.

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER
and NINA JOAN DAVIS

Sat., April 12, 1952—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

Louis Kohlhausen Sr. Celebrates Birthday

Louis Kohlhausen Sr. was honored on his eightieth birthday Saturday evening, when a group of neighbors and relatives honored him at his home on Military Street.

Coming to Roseburg to be with Mr. Kohlhausen were two of his daughters, Miss Bertha Kohlhausen, state home economics supervisor, Salem, and Mrs. Howard Zimmer, nee Elza Kohlhausen, and her husband and their son, George Frederick, of Portland.

Miss Kohlhausen and Mrs. Zimmer served birthday cake and ice cream. Calling to honor Mr. Kohlhausen were Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Schaeffer, Mrs. D. H. Lenox, Mrs. George Morin, Mrs. Hodges, Mrs. E. S. Hall and son, James, and Mr. and Mrs. Holm.

Mr. Kohlhausen, who has lived in his present home for the last 33 years, came to Oregon from California, N. Y., in 1893. He established his place of business in Roseburg Feb. 22, 1898. As a member of the Roseburg City Council, Mr. Kohlhausen served under eight mayors and was on the council when the first pavement in the city was put in. Mr. Kohlhausen has a host of friends in Douglas County, who wish him continued good health and years of enjoyment ahead.

Mrs. Sedell Entertains For Wisconsin Visitor

To compliment Mrs. Timothy Murphy of Janesville, Wis., who is in Roseburg visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Murphy, and family, a charming twelve-thirty o'clock bridge-luncheon was given Friday by Mrs. Roy W. Sedell at her lovely home on Wharton Avenue.

Artistically arranged bouquets of camellias and daffodils were used about the room, while the serving tables were covered with small bouquets of yellow daffodils and arabis.

Mrs. C. W. Callison and Mrs. Fred Stever assisted Mrs. Sedell in serving.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Timothy Murphy, guest of honor; Mrs. Edward Murphy, Mrs. C. W. Callison, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. Harold E. Schmeer, Mrs. Horace C. Berg, Mrs. Fred Stever, Mrs. Earl Neuru, Mrs. E. R. Harvey, Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. Maurice L. Hallmark and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

The guest prize was presented to the guest of honor. First prize for the afternoon's contract bridge play was won by Mrs. Porter with Mrs. Edward Murphy receiving the second prize and Mrs. Fisher, the traveling prize.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES BELLOWES, above, are photographed at their reception following their marriage Wednesday evening, April 2. The bride is the former Norma Jean Titus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Titus, of Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bellows of this city. (Picture by Bob Titus)

Miss Norma Titus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Titus of Roseburg, became the bride of James Bellows, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Bellows of this city, Wednesday evening, April 2, at the First Christian Church. Rev. Rea Kleinfeld performed the impressive single ring ceremony at nine o'clock in the evening in the presence of 75 relatives and friends.

Pink snapdragons formed the attractive decorations for the altar. Mrs. Clarence S. Trued played softly on the organ as the guests assembled and also played the traditional wedding march and recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a linen suit of eggshell with accessories of lavender with an orchid corsage.

Neoma Stewart of Roseburg was maid of honor and wore a light blue linen suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. David Heckerth, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue suit with white accessories.

The bridegroom's mother wore a gold-colored dress with black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white carnations.

A reception followed at the home of the bridegroom's parents at 846 Military Street, Roseburg. The three-tiered wedding cake decorated with pink bells, was served by Mrs. George Sewell. The bride's table was centered with a crystal bowl of pink Japanese quince and a large white orchid centerpiece flanked by crystal candleholders holding tall white tapers.

Mrs. Bob Titus served the punch and Mrs. George M. Brown poured the coffee. Neoma Stewart was in charge of the gifts. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Victor Bean and Mrs. David Heckerth, nee Bonnie Bellows, sister of the bridegroom.

For traveling, the bride wore her wedding suit. Following a honeymoon to Chehalis, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Bellows are now at home to their friends at 1322 Umpqua Avenue.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Roseburg High School. The bride came to Roseburg with her family in 1946.

The bridegroom has lived here all of his life. The bridegroom is employed by the News-Review.

RALPH PATTERSON TO PRESENT DANCE PUPILS IN RECITAL JUNE 5th

Elaborate plans are being made by Ralph Patterson for his annual recital of students of the Roseburg School of Dancing. The recital will be a large event of Thursday evening, June 5, at eight o'clock at the Junior High School auditorium.

Mr. Patterson's first recital in Roseburg was given last spring and proved to be one of the most outstandingly successful and beautiful events to ever be given here. The costumes were especially lovely and the dance numbers were presented in a most commendable manner.

This spring's recital promises to out-dazzle last year's event. There will be a large number of dance students participating in the recital this year and already costumes are being especially designed and made for the event.