

Saar Kindergarten Presents Program

One of the sweetest programs of the season was the kindergarten recital given Thursday, April 10 at the home of Mrs. Bernard Saar. Parents and friends of the youngsters attended.

The program was comprised of nursery rhyme and children's stories enacted in poem and song. The first feature was a poem and song by the group. This was followed by a play "The Three Bears." Goldilocks was played by Randi Todd; Mama Bear, Linda Byrd; Papa Bear, Rusty Kaine and Baby Bear by Jerry Smith.

The third feature was a poem concerning two elephants and the singing of two songs. The boys followed this with an elephant dance. "Billy Goats Gruff" was enacted with Butch Givens as Troll; Terry Byrd as the first goat; Larry Schultz, second goat and third goat, Gary Wilson. The three and four year-olds sang a giraffe song. "Black Sambo" was also enacted with Sambo played by Terry Bailey, Tigers, Douglas Du Fresno, Rennie Winston, David Daniels and Jimmy Harris; tree, Diane Yates. The girls did a folk dance entitled "The Shoemaker Dance." The group sang "The Kangaroo."

The Three Little Pigs included in its cast Glenda Beach as Mama; first pig; Cheryl Van Dyke, second; Muriel Reese and third Leslie Tuck. The Wolf was played by Dick Carbon. The closing song was "Bunny, Fluffy Bunny." Announcers for the group included Marilyn Fisher, Barbara Saar, Martha Hetrick and Leslie Tuck. The property man on the plays was Hermie Hobl.

It was announced that there will be a summer play school conducted during the hours of 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. for youngsters between three and six years old.

Children participating were Terry Bailey, Glenda Beach, Linda Byrd, Charles Colbrunn, Dick Carbon, David Daniels, Douglas Du Fresno, Marilyn Fisher, Jeffery Davee, Tony Follett, Hermie Hobl, Jimmy Harris, Martha Hetrick, Rusty Kaine, Robin Kidder, Butch Givens, Rexi Nicholson, Robin Nicholson, Muriel Reese, Stanley Straube, Randi Todd, Leslie Tuck, Cheryl Van Dyke, Gary Wilson, Rennie Winston, Diane Yates, Terry Byrd, Jerry Smith, Hal Lucas, Cathy Naas, Larry Schultz, Bill Inman, Barbara Saar, and Katie Saar. (Picture by Paul Jenkins)

PAST MATRONS CLUB MEETS AT NEWLAND HOME MONDAY NIGHT

The Past Matrons Club of Roseburg Chapter No. 8, O.E.S., met at the home of Mrs. M. J. Newland on Monday evening for a 7:30 o'clock dinner-supper followed by the monthly business meeting.

Hostesses were Mrs. Newland, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. Elizabeth Herline and Mrs. R. D. Williams. The Easter motif was carried out in the refreshments and on the serving table. Lovely spring blooms were used about the rooms.

Following the business meeting, conducted by the President, Mrs. Hulda Howe, records were played of "The Easter Story" arranged by Fred Waring. Those in attendance were: Mrs. George Churchill, Worthy Matron of Roseburg Chapter No. 8, a guest, and the following members: Mrs. P. T. Bubar, Mrs. Eva Mae Ferrier, Mrs. G. C. Finlay, Mrs. Florence Hercher, Mrs. Hulda Howe, Mrs. Mabel Lange, Mrs. Frances Lincolt, Mrs. George Marshall, Mrs. Earl Plummer, Mrs. John Runyan, Mrs. H. H. Turner, Mrs. Sturill Walker, Mrs. Bertha Wilson, Mrs. Carl Wimberly, Mrs. Earl Wiley and the hostesses.

MISS WILMA MELTON HOSTESS FOR ALPHA CHI CHAPTER THURSDAY

Miss Wilma Melton was hostess at her home Thursday evening, April 3, for the meeting of Alpha Chi Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha. She was assisted by Miss Eudora Westlund and Mrs. Nancy Colvin. Plans were completed for a pot-luck dinner for members and invited guests to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Smith, Saturday evening, April 5, and the state convention was discussed. The next meeting will be a jewel pin ceremony for the pledges. The date and meeting place will be announced later.

Lovely refreshments were served by the hostesses to the following members: Mrs. Lloyd Gallop, Mrs. Don Caskey, Mrs. Bill Turner, Miss Gloria Gaston, Mrs. Marion Henderson, Mrs. Jim Smith, Mrs. Nancy Colvin, Mrs. Jack Denton, Mrs. Gary Piper, Mrs. Bob Elliott, Mrs. Ronald Ollar, Mrs. Clarence Schreiner, Mrs. Dick Gadoway, Mrs. Don Starmer, Mrs. Ernie Black, Mrs. Kelsey Hobday, Miss Eudora Westlund, Mrs. Lyle Quist, Miss Wilma Melton and Mrs. Tyler Evans.

BIRTHDAY PARTY GIVEN IN HONOR OF SMITH WARD

Mrs. Perry Smith and Mrs. LeRoy Hanson were hostesses to a birthday party, given at the Smith home in Yoncalla Saturday afternoon, honoring the little ward of Mrs. Lula Henniman. Patty, on her fifth birthday, had many beautiful gifts presented her, after which a large beautifully decorated birthday cake and ice cream were enjoyed.

Those present included, Patty, Nadine Grass, Larry, Mary and Linda Russell; Sharon Gordon, Zola Thompson, Tommy Ellis, Norman Hanson, Loyal Hanson, Mrs. Dan Russell, Mrs. Henniman and the hostesses, Barbara Sturill and Mrs. Nancy Colvin. Balloons were given to the youngsters.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY — Pictured above is Mrs. Richard Hall, smiling happily on the occasion of her birthday party held at the home of Mrs. Zesta Hamilton in Portland recently. The Hamiltons are well known in Roseburg and Dillard, being life-long friends of the William Heinbachs of Dillard. (Picture by Rosa Heinbach)

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. Wyce Surgeon have announced the engagement of their daughter, Alna, to Marine Pfc Howard I. Hatcher of Oceanside, Calif. The bride-elect lives at Kellogg and is now attending Elkton High School. Mr. Hatcher is a graduate of the class of '48 at Elkton High School. He is now stationed at Camp Pendleton in Southern California. No date for the wedding has been set.

MRS. FLOYD POWELL ELECTED PRESIDENT OF WSCS THURSDAY

Mrs. Floyd Powell was elected president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church at a one o'clock dinner-luncheon meeting in the social hall Thursday with members of Circle No. 4 acting as hostesses and Mrs. W. G. Shugart, circle leader as general chairman. Tulips and daffodils formed the large bouquets, which were interspersed with low arrangements of carnations circled with small wild flowers.

Other new officers elected included: Mrs. Leo Gillett, vice president; Mrs. Edna E. Gibbons, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Dorsey, promotional secretary; Miss Jennie E. Jorey, treasurer; Mrs. Earl Bliele, secretary of Christian Social Relations; Mrs. R. L. Whipple, secretary of local church activities; Mrs. J. M. Boyles, secretary of Missionary Education and Service; Mrs. B. C. Mellis, secretary of student work; Mrs. Leon Mulkey, secretary of youth work; Mrs. Eugene McElroy, secretary of childrens work; Mrs. Ned Dixon, secretary of spiritual life; Mrs. Paul Abel, secretary of status of women; Mrs. W. A. MacArthur, secretary of supply work; and Mrs. W. C. Chase, secretary of literature and publications.

union, and the president of the central labor Council, who spoke and then answered questions.

Mrs. Powell, president, conducted the business session. Mrs. C. K. Rand announced the Keystone Evening Circle will sponsor a rummage sale April 25.

April 30th an executive committee meeting will be held at 10 a.m. in the social hall. The new officers were announced by Mrs. A. J. Geddes, chairman of the nominating committee. Circle meetings announced for April 24 include: No. 1 at home of Mrs. B. C. Mellis, 1:30 p.m. dinner-luncheon; No. 2, Mrs. Ned Dixon; No. 3, Mrs. William C. Woods, 12 o'clock covered dish luncheon on the 23rd; No. 4, April 24, Mrs. P. T. Bubar with Mrs. Paul Abel and Mrs. A. J. Geddes, co-hostesses; No. 5, Mrs. V. T. Jackson. Keystone Evening Circle information may be had by dialing 9-4127, Mrs. C. K. Rand.

JACK WILLIAMS IS HONORED AT PARTY

A turkey dinner honoring Jack Williams on his birthday was held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Flossie Van Blaricom.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Cairns and son, Frankie; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mehrtorf and daughter, Patsy; Mrs. Mabel Davenport; Mrs. Trissie Hornum; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams and two sons, Allan and Roger and the hostess, Flossie Van Blaricom.

Flower Show Is Large And Successful Event

When the door to the Roseburg Woman's Club was opened to the public for the Spring Flower Show April 4 and 5, the world was transformed to a thing of beauty. Camellias centered the room in all their full blown glory, and the colors defied description. This, indeed was a "Century of Flowers." The stage appeared as a page in history with arrangements and shadow boxes that would have been prevalent 100 years ago. The Junior Women's Club had an old fashioned table set at the foot of the stage, and that coupled with the fact that the hostesses were dressed in centennial attire only lent the aura of 1952 more pungently.

Officials on the board included chairman, Mrs. Hershel Scott; co-chairman, Mrs. R. L. Whipple; staging, Mrs. H. F. Beauchamp; schedule, Mrs. T. L. Goodwin; classification, Mrs. J. M. Boyles; publicity, Mrs. Frank Ashley; hospitality, Mrs. Bruce Elliott; plant sale, Mrs. Otis Gosnell; special exhibit, Mrs. Earl Bliele; registration, Mrs. Mabel Wilson, awards, Mrs. Albert Kronke, judge's hospitality, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly and educational exhibit, Mrs. Leland Van Allen.

Courtesy exhibits were supplied by Moore's Nursery, Mrs. Foster Butner, Umpqua Florists, Moyer's Nursery, Mrs. P. E. Beaver, Fern Florists, Garden Valley Nursery and Landscaping and Lillie's Flower shop. The educational exhibits were supplied by the Douglas County Extension Office. Prizes were donated by the Douglas County Farm Bureau and Oerding's Feed Store.

The winners of ribbons at the show were as follows: Class I, camellias, second place, Mrs. Halie Ford, third, Mrs. B. R. Shoemaker; semi double, first, Helen Wimberly, Mrs. Bruce Elliott, second and Mrs. Walter Edmonds, third; class c, anemone, first prize went to Ray Doerner, second, Mrs. Ray Doerner and third, Halie Ford; class d, penform, first, Halie Ford, second Ray Doerner and third, T. J. Beauchamp; class e, incomplete double, first, Halie Ford, second Ray Doerner, and third Halie Ford; class f, complete double, first, Ray Doerner; second Halie Ford and third, Halie Ford; class g, collection, Mrs. Halie Ford won first prize.

The sweepstake winner was Helen Wimberly with her arrangement of grandiflora roses.

Class II, Primroses, class A, polyanthus, first prize went to Mrs. Halie Ford, second, G. Pfeiffer and third to Mrs. Ford; class B, acaulis, first, Mrs. Bruce Elliott, second, Mrs. Bruce Elliott and third, Mrs. Archie Ferguson; class C, Julia, first, Anna Link, second Mrs. Ford.

Class III, Tulips, class A, species first, Evelyn McLaughlin, second, O. F. Richman, third, Mrs. Kenneth Ford; class C, Parrot first, Mrs. O. F. Richman.

Class IV, Narcissus, A, Trumpet, one, best all white first, Walter Edmonds, second, Mrs. Kenneth Ford and third Mrs. Evelyn McLaughlin; two, best bi-color, first, Mrs. Albert Micelli, second, Mrs. Youngner and third, Mrs. H. F. Beauchamp; three, best gold, first, Mrs. O. F. Richman, second Mrs. H. F. Beauchamp, third, Miss Gardner; A, Double, first, Mrs. W. E. Buell, second, Mrs. J. J. Kester; C, Jonquil, first, Mrs. Glenn Dodge, second, Mrs. Evelyn McLaughlin, and third, Mrs. Evelyn McLaughlin; D, Peticus, first, Mrs. M. C. Fields, second, Mrs. Kenneth Ford and third, Mrs. R. G. Whipple.

Class A, Hyacinth, Dutch, first, O. F. Richman, Mrs. Assnell, second and Mrs. Kenneth Ford, third; B, grape muscari, first Evelyn McLaughlin, second, Mrs. M. C. Field and third, Mrs. J. B. Kiddle; C, Roman, third, Mrs. Kenneth Ford.

Class VII, flowering tree, first, Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp, second, Mrs. McLaughlin, second and Mrs. J. M. Boyles, third.

Class VI, flowering shrub, first, Mrs. Clyde Carstens, second, Mrs. Kenneth Ford.

Class VIII, A, pansies, one color, first, Mrs. Archie Ferguson, second Mrs. Archie Ferguson and third, Mrs. W. E. Buell; B, violas, one color, first, Mrs. Kenneth Ford, second Mrs. W. E. Buell; C, violets, one color, first, Helen Wagoner, Minnie Easton, second and Mrs. W. E. Buell, third.

Section B, Arrangements, Class I, "Spring Fantasy" featuring camellias, first prize, Mrs. J. M. Boyles, second, Lucy Todd and third, Mrs. L. Van Allen; Class II, "Old Fashioned Garden," spring flowers, first, Mrs. Joe Toman, second, Mrs. J. M. Boyles, and third, Minnie Easton; Class III, "When You Were A Tulip," featuring tulips, first prize went to Mrs. L. Van Allen; Class IV "School Days," small calico background, first, Mrs. Leland Van Allen, second, Mrs. Jack West, third, Mrs. G. L. Sinclair, and honorable mention went to Mrs. I. W. McAlvin and Mrs. L. F. Nielsen; Class V, "In Shade of Apple Tree," flowering branches, first, Mrs. Al Kent, second, Mrs. Mary Block and third, Mrs. Leland Van Allen; Class IX, A, Bulbous, first prize, Mrs. J. M. Boyles, second, first, Mrs. J. J. Kester, second, Mrs. J. M. Boyles and third, Mrs. Bruce Elliott.

Class VI, "The Wearing of the Green," all green, first prize, Mrs. George Hunter, second Mrs. Leland Van Allen and third, Mrs. T. L. Goodwin; Class VII, "Sweet and Low," miniature, first, Mrs. Leland Van Allen, second, Mrs. Jack West, and third, Mrs. G. L. Sinclair; Class VIII, "When You and I were Young Maggie," corsage, A, old fashioned nosegay, first, Mrs. Helen Crankshaw, second, Mrs. Leland Van Allen and third, Mrs. J. M. Boyles; B, modern corsage, first, Mrs. Leland Van Allen and second, Helen Crankshaw; Class IX, "Old Oaken Bucket," home on the range, A, class for men, clubs, Rotary Club won first prize; B, open class, first Bruce Elliott, second, Dr. T. J. Wagoner and third, John W. Robertson.

Section C, sororities, I, "Along the Applegate Trail," first, Beta Sigma Phi, second, Epsilon Sigma Alpha and third, Tau Eta Eta; Section D, Garden Club, I, A Century of Flowers, first, Garden Valley Garden Club, second Days Creek and third, Camas Valley Garden Club. Honorable mention was made to the Town and Country Women's Club Garden Department.

Section E, Junior Division, I, "Flowers That Bloom in the Spring," small arrangements, first, Sonya Van Allen, second Donna Metzger, third, Charlene West; B, dish gardens, first, Kathy Oakley, second, Sonya Van Allen. Honorable mention was given to Johnny Hebard; II, Red, Red Robin, A, Bird Houses, first, Teresa Russell, second, Beverly Wandling and third, Marilyn Todd.

The accredited judges included Mrs. C. F. Gregg, Mrs. Victor Morgan and camellia specialist, Mrs. Don Davis.

Of special interest is the fact that there were 150 entries from the children's group. Del McKay recorded the procedure of the exhibition.

Door prizes were awarded to Theodore Henderson, 215 No. Main and Mrs. Brown, 108 Parrott Street. Gifts consisted of bulbs, seeds and garden supplies donated through the courtesy of Oerding's Feed Store and the Douglas County Extension office.

RUTH FREDRICKSON AND BILL PEMBERTON MARRY

Miss Ruth (Dolly) Fredrickson, daughter of C. E. Fredrickson of Roseburg, and Bill Pemberton of Coos Bay, formerly of Roseburg, were married Feb. 28 and are making their home at the coast. Both the bride and bridegroom have many friends in Roseburg, having resided here a number of years ago.

THREE GENERATIONS — Pictured above are three generations. From left to right are Baby Susan Hall, Mrs. Lynn Hall and Mrs. Zesta Hamilton, residents of Portland. (Picture by Rosa Heinbach)

Honored At Shower Party

Mrs. Gordon "Lindy" Moore of Upper Willis Creek, Dillard, was the inspiration of a charming pink and blue shower party given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cham Petty in Dillard. The hostess was assisted by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bert Smith, of Rice Creek. For entertainment games were in play during the pleasant afternoon with the prizes awarded to Mrs. Dale Wilson, Mrs. William West and Mrs. George Wood. The door prize was won by Mrs. Ira White.

The living room was beautiful with bouquets of spring daffodils. The honored guest, Mrs. Moore, was seated at the gift table decorated in a pink and blue motif with two stork's standing guard over the treasures. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Petty and Mrs. Smith, assisted by Mrs. Howard Johnson, mother of the honored guest.

The large sheet cake was decorated in a shower of pastel roses and green leaves centered with a large blue bootie. Mrs. Smith presided at the punch bowl, serving the following: Mrs. Moore, Mrs.

Dale W. Moore, Derry and Donna Mae; Mrs. Harry Davis, Mrs. Effie West, Mrs. James A. Wilson, Mrs. Loyd Ferguson, Mrs. Don Hubbard and son; Mrs. William E. West, Mrs. Dale Wilson, Mrs. Pauline Withers and son, Danny; Mrs. Georgia Colvin, Mrs. Bill Cooper, Mrs. Merritt Burt and son, Derek; Mrs. George T. Wood and Arlene; Mrs. F. A. Smith, Mrs. Bert Smith, Mrs. Howard Johnson, Mrs. J. L. Hane and children; Mrs. Ira White and Mrs. Rosa Heinbach. Gifts were received from those unable to attend, Mrs. Mary Kay Harrington, Mrs. Della Phipps, Miss Helen Phipps, Mrs. Vera Rice, Mrs. Doris Robertson, Mrs. Laurence West and Wilma, Janie and Betty Petty.

SUTHERLIN H. E. CLUB TO MEET MONDAY

The potluck dinner and business meeting of the Sutherlin Home Economics Club was postponed Monday because of the death of Mrs. Meda Schrack. The postponed meeting will be held Monday, April 14, at the home of Mrs. Stella French.

BABES OF THE GAY NINETIES — A potluck dinner was held at the Robert Findlay home Friday evening to celebrate the anniversary of the "Babes of the Gay Nineties." This group of ladies with their families, have been celebrating their birthday anniversaries together for the past twenty years. They were all born in the 1890's, and their birthdays are in the same month. They appear in the picture from left to right (standing) Mrs. S. W. Van Voort and Mrs. Harry Collison. (Seated) Mrs. Clarence Branton, Mrs. Carl Gilbreath, Mrs. Joe Brumbach, Mrs. Ross Lovelace and Mrs. Robert Findlay. (Picture by Harry Collison Jr.)