Luverne's Dress Shop Still Leads Bowlers

Luverne's Dress Shop and Roy O. Young Insurance continued just a game apart in first and second place on the Womens League bowling ladder Tuesday.

Both teams lost two of their three games to opponents. Van Dine Meat moved to within two games of the lead by stopping Roy O. Youngs, and Rosebud Cafe rolled the high series of the night, a 2,230, to dump Luverne's. Rosebud also had the high game of 796.

Individually, Flo Ann McDonald had the top 188 game and Anita Baughman scored the high 509 series for Roy O. Young.

Racing Association Slates Meeting Tonight

Whether Roseburg's racing association joins the Modified Racing Association on Oregon will be determined tonight at the United Engine shop by a vote of association members.

President LeRoy Palmer called the meeting for 8 to acquaint members with information received by Hal Reed at a Modified Racing Association meeting in Portland last Tuesday. This report will undoubtedly determine the vote which will be cast for membership.

Equally as important, the members will hear a progress report on the track which is expected to be constructed in the near future. Emphasizing these two significant subjects to be discussed, Palmer urged a bulky turnout of both members and other persons interested.

Two Women Advance Into Golf Championship

Mrs. Roy Sheppard and Mrs. Ralston Brydges advanced into the Bridges tournament at the Roseburg Country Club Tuesday.

Mrs. Sheppard defeated Rosemary Leckie and Mrs. Brydges won over Mrs. Ray Sims. The losers were dropped to the first flight. Remaining matches in the first round must be completed Thursday and Friday in the 11-woman field.

Mrs. Sheppard also won the Class A competition in the days play over 18 holes. In putting competition, she used 30 putts. In the same division, Mrs. Roger Gee was closest to the pin on No. 3.

In Class B, Mrs. Don Smith won the putts play. She used 35 putts. Mrs. Ray Sims was closest to the pin on No. 3. In the nine-hole Class Competition, Mrs. George Luoma used 19 putts.
