

HE WENT THAT WAY—Newsmap shows route taken by Republic F-84G Thunderjet fighter-bomber on its epochal 4000-mile flight from Elgin Field, Fla., to Santa Barbara, Calif., and back. The plane was refueled in flight on both legs of the trip several hundred miles from Santa Barbara by a Boeing KC-97 tanker plane.

Murder Charge Hits Boy In Slaying Of Girl

EUGENE (AP) — A Lane County grand jury Wednesday indicted Elmer Harlan Belcher, 15, on a first degree murder charge in the shooting last Friday of Mary Ellen Campbell, 18, near Cottage Grove. Young Belcher, a farm neighbor, admitted earlier that he had shot the girl, a deaf mute, to halt "taunts directed at him about her pregnancy," District Attorney C. E. Luckey said.

The boy's father, Harlan Belcher, found the girl's body early Saturday, a bouquet of flowers clutched in her hand.

The Belcher boy was to be arraigned Wednesday afternoon.

Recent observations of over 2,000 leghorns at Cornell University show that deaths from tumors and leukosis were twice as great in the poorly fleshed birds as in the well-fleshed birds.

HERO'S REWARD—Debbie Rector, 9, plants a kiss on the cheek of her cousin, Cub Scout Billy Steber, 10, for saving her life. Debbie, who cannot swim, fell from a raft into a 12-foot pool of water in Nashville, Tenn. Billy heard her scream and jumped into the pool and pulled her to safety the way he had been taught at the YMCA pool. Billy's only comment was, "I want you to learn to swim, Debbie." (AP Wirephoto)

A LAST GOODBYE—Kay Brandt, 3 1/2, sobs farewell to her dog Chris, a vagabond canine of shepherd variety who was adopted by the Brandt family of Topeka, Kas., after the flood last July. The Brandts are moving to Texas and had to find a new owner for their flood-refugee dog. The Brandt family received more than 150 requests to adopt Chris after picture appeared in a local paper. The pooch now has new owners, Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson who operate a farm at Lecompton, Kas. (AP Wirephoto)

Weyerhaeusers, Pine Union OK New Contract

PORTLAND (AP) — The Weyerhaeuser Timber Company in its Southern Oregon Pine operations and CIO Woodworkers have agreed on a new wage contract, a union official reported.

A. F. Hartung, International Woodworkers of America President, said late Tuesday the contract provides for a 7 1/2-cent hourly wage increase, three additional paid holidays — making a total of six — and a 2-cent hourly night differential increase.

The wage boost will increase about 800 workers' base pay to $1.75 an hour, he said.
