Flood Relief Money May Be Donated Now

No flood relief special fund raising drive will be conducted in Douglas County. But persons having contributions they wish to earmark for this purpose are welcome to send the money to the local chapter office of the American Red Cross at the Armory.

This was the decision of the executive committee of the Red Cross chapter at a meeting Friday. This action was taken, because the local drive is as yet unsuccessfully completed. While the solicitation has ended, the goal is not yet reached, it was announced. The board decided it could not go to the people again and ask for money at this time.

The need for funds to aid flood stricken areas of the Mississippi valley and its tributaries, however, was stressed as highly urgent.
