CALAPOOIA CLUB PLANS SMORGASBORD

Beautiful bouquets of tulips and lilies were used about the room with a centerpiece of camellias flanked by pink candles, decorated the table when the Calapoopia Club met Wednesday for an all day meeting at the Calapoopia Clubhouse. A potluck dinner was served at 12:30 by the hostesses committee, Mrs. Ella Henry, Mrs. Alice Manning and Mrs. Doris Bacon, to twenty five members and guests.

Mrs. Zelma Gorrell, who celebrated her eightieth birthday Wednesday, was presented with a pretty decorated birthday cake, baked by her granddaughter, Mrs. Kenneth Manning, which was cut and served at the dinner. A pretty potted plant was presented to Mrs. Gorrell from the club. She was honored with a card shower, receiving 33 cards.

The kitchen cupboards have been painted.

At the business meeting, conducted by the president, Mrs. Hope Palmer, plans were discussed for a smorgasbord dinner, to be given jointly with the Farm Bureau, and Mrs. Ann Mumby was appointed as chairman.

A meeting was held Tuesday by the committee and the date of the dinner was set for Saturday, May 3, at the Clubhouse. Dinner will be served beginning at 6 p.m. and until everything is sold. The public is invited and funds obtained will be used to install water in the clubhouse.

The afternoon was spent in quilting.

Those present to enjoy the dinner and meeting were: Hope Palmer, Doris Bacon, and Judy; Elsie Montett and children; Grace Crouch, and children; Zelma Gorrell, Alice Manning, Madge Miller, Bertha Carlyle, Nora Stephens, Dee Stephens, and children; Hazel Haines, Frankie Moore, Ann Mumby, Emily Richardson, Ann Karen, Lucille Starr, Verna Wilson, Vera Bacon, Jessie Davis, Maude Cole, Jean Knapple and children.

Winston

By Mrs. GEORGE BACHER

Commercial gardeners in this vicinity are predicting a "bumper crop year." Favorable weather conditions permitted early spring tilling and large scale planting is underway this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank True and daughter, Suzanne, and the latter's friend, Ellen Swalling, were at Tenmile lake over the weekend. Taking advantage of the summer-like weather, a near-record crowd was at the lake boating and fishing, they said.

Mrs. Cecil Callahan of Winston and Mrs. Henry Trobaugh shopped in Eugene Tuesday.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bacher Tuesday were the former's cousin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Bacher, of Portland. The Portland visitors were enroute home following a visit with Henry Bacher who is confined to a hospital in Grants Pass.
