

SUNSET GARDEN CLUB HAS RECENT OUTING

The Sunset Garden Club of Winston-Dillard enjoyed a field day Tuesday, April 22, when the group congregated and motored to Camas Valley to hike among the wild flowers. A picnic lunch was enjoyed at noon after which the club gathered species of wild flower plants for transplanting in their home gardens. They agreed that each member whose shrubs do not live and grow was obligated to treat the members all to cake and coffee.

The members present were Mrs. Art Johnson, Mrs. Mayne Manske, Mrs. Debra Taylor, Mrs. Evelyn Shrum, Mrs. Florence Allendar, Mrs. Eleanor Shigley, Mrs. Vivian Borgaas, Mrs. Frances Collins and a guest Inez Ward. Transportation was furnished by Mr. Taylor and Mrs. Johnson.

The next meeting of the Sunset Garden Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Dean Collins Tuesday, May 6th.

MRS. RAY GOLGERT IS HOSTESS AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Ray Golgert was a charming hostess Wednesday when she entertained a group of friends with a dessert-luncheon at her lovely home on Dyke River Road in Dillard.

The table was beautifully appointed with a gray linen cloth centered with a low bowl of floating Chandeliera Elegans, camellias and matching pink nut cup favors. Covers were placed at the one o'clock luncheon for Mrs. Belle Clark, Mrs. Mary Stoner, Mrs. Bobby Baldwin, Mrs. Othel Barnes, Mrs. Grace Barnes, Mrs. Helen Buell, Mrs. Rosa Heinbach and the hostess, Mrs. Golgert.

CAMAS VALLEY SCHOOL TO PRESENT PLAY

"For the Love of Mike," a modern one act comedy, will be presented by the Camas Valley School Thursday, May 1, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. A variety program of dance and musical numbers will also be given.

The comedy situation of "For the Love of Mike" concerns a millionaire who buys a newspaper to locate a girl he has fallen in love with, but whose name he doesn't know. Variety numbers will be given by Lyn and Tommy Standley, Betty Spencer, Steve Moody, Woody Grant, and many others.

This is the second evening of entertainment to be provided by the school under the direction of Mrs. Everett Moody, high school teacher and librarian. Last Friday, two one act plays were shown, "Tobacco Road" and "Rich Man, Poor Man."

"Tobacco Road," a hillbilly burlesque, kept the audience laughing over its exaggerated situations and ingenious stage props, as well as excellent characterizations, from the two daughters, played by L. Wanda Duncan and Dolores Parret, and the dormant Pa, played by Wilson Roberts. Wilma Thrush as Ma, Bill Dunham as Sonny Boy, and Al Young as the sweetheart from "other side of the mountain" were also good in their parts.

"Rich Man, Poor Man," a modern farce, was well acted by Judy Counts as the leading lady, and Paul Maisenbach as her helpful young suitor, who disrobes behind a sheltering screen to satisfy the needs of the poor patrons of the Thrift shop. Characters included Mary Lou Matthews, Kitty Janet McMaisters, Yetta Goldenstein; Janet McClellan, Mrs. Bonelli; Beverly Harmsen, Mrs. Ole Olson; Jean Siley, Mrs. Patrick Haggerty; Margaret Barth, Mrs. Tammas macPhairson; Warren Nicholson, Tommy Bowning; Shirley Harmsen, visiting nurse; Tommy Fisher, Largo Johnson, and Margy Nichols, Mrs. X. Y. Smythe.

CHOKED with GAS?

THANK HEAVENS! Most attacks are just acid indigestion. When it strikes, take Bell-and tablets. They contain the fastest-acting medicines known to doctors for the relief of heartburn, gas and similar distress. 25¢.

Sid Says:

Main theme of the meeting was quality not quantity. We do have a wonderful profession, being able to produce a likeness of your loved ones. I think it's the most precious gift that can be given. We are definitely in the gift business. Everyone's reaction to giving is to always give something of value, the best if possible. That's why we stress quality in portraits.

Don't forget, your local photographers can give you the most plus the best in portraits.

Watch for our "60 and over" ad currently running. So long, Sid
