Stanky's Entry In Lineup Bolsters Cardinals' Spirits

By The Associated Press
Casey Eddie Stanky picked the right spot to throw his "intangibles" into his St. Louis Cardinal starting lineup.
Beaten Tuesday night by Brooklyn's Preacher Roe for the eighth straight time and wandering two games under .500, Manager Stanky finally pulled the sheets off second baseman Stanky.
The impact of Stanky's presence in the lineup against Brooklyn could be seen in the very first inning. "Stanky walked," the play-by-play read. Before the first inning was over it also read "Stanky doubled down the left field line. Westlake and Bilko scoring." The Cards scored six runs in that first inning, knocking out Chris Van Cuyk.

Philadelphia A's out of a seven-game losing streak with a three-run homer that beat Cleveland's Early Wynn, 3-1.
The Chicago White Sox swept a two-night doubleheader from Washington, 7-3 and 4-3 winning the second on Eddie Robinson's 11th inning homer off Bobo Newsum.
The most impressive daytime performance in the National was Larry Jansen's three-hitter against Cincinnati for the New York Giants' 4-1 victory.
Bob Addis' double in the 12th was the final blow of the Chicago Cubs' 20-hit blasting of seven Philadelphia pitchers for a 9-8 edge.
Pittsburgh broke its 10-game losing streak with an 11-5 decision over Boston despite home runs by Ed Matthews, Ebba St. Claire and Earl Torgeson.

Millionaire Sailor With Peeve Told To 'Get Out' When He Visits Admiral To Discuss Grievances 'Informally'

By ROY ESSOYAN
HONOLULU (AP)—The millionaire sailor and the admiral in his pajamas had a five-minute chat. Now the sailor is working for the admiral.
Seaman 2C Bruce S. Hopping and Rear Adm. Francis C. Denebrink agreed their 7 a.m. chat Saturday wasn't exactly cordial.

Hopping is a naval reservist with a three million dollar lumber business in New Jersey. He told a reporter "The admiral wasn't a gentleman...he was uncordial...he told me to get out."
Denebrink told a reporter he waved Hopping to a seat and Hopping said "I thought I should come by and let you see what kind of a man I am."
Denebrink said he then told Hopping the procedure was most unusual and that Hopping apologized and left.
The navy said Hopping had been transferred from the salvage ship Reclaimer to administrative duties on Denebrink's staff. The admiral is commander, service forces, Pacific.
The skipper and executive officer of the Reclaimer were cleared recently of crew complaints of "petty tyranny."
Vicious Rumors Blamed
Denebrink has said the two Reclaimer officers were "unjustly maligned by someone who distributed vicious and distorted rumors about them." He added that the case would not be closed until final action is taken — presumably against an alleged rumor monger. He didn't even hint who that might be.
Hopping freely said he played a leading role among the complaining crewmen. He retained a civilian attorney to represent them.
The sailor caused a minor furore at the Bainbridge, Md., naval training center last September. He issued a public statement that navy food "wasn't fit to eat."
Explaining his pre-breakfast call on the admiral, Hopping said he thought it might help "if we could talk together informally."

But," he added, "when I told him why I was there he got huffy. He told me to get out."
Jim Hirsch, 19-year-old second baseman for the University of Florida baseball team, is the only freshman in the starting lineup. The first foals of the world champion 2-year old pacer, Knight Dream, will appear on the harness racing turf this year.

Players Say Farewell

While the debut of Stanky and the Brooks' crushing 14-2 defeat stole the play in the National League, the American was saying its farewells to two fine ball players — Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox and Gerry Coleman of the New York Yankees.
Ted entrenched the Rookie-laden Red Sox in first place with a two-run homer, his first of the year, to beat Detroit, 5-3. It was the 324th of his brilliant 10-year big league career.
Williams reports for flying duty as a Marine Corps captain at Willow Grove, Pa. Friday.
Coleman, also a Marine Corps captain who reports Friday at Los Alamitos, Calif. Air Base, starred as the Yanks split a double header with the St. Louis Browns.

Browns Beat Yanks
The Yanks lost the opener to the Browns, 9-4.
Allie Reynolds earned the Yanks a split with a four-hitter in the second game, 4-1.
Elmer Valo, the league's leading hitter at .410, snapped the Phila-

Recent Rainfall Helps Berries And Pastures

PORTLAND (AP)—Recent rainfall will benefit Oregon crops, particularly strawberries, the Oregon co-operative crop and weather summary reported Wednesday.
Pastures and early crops have been retarded by a dry spell, interrupted only by light showers, the report said. Some Western Oregon pastures were irrigated with sprinklers for the week ending last Friday.
Fall seeded wheat continues to look good with a full crop expected if there is adequate rainfall.
Spring farm work is a week to 10 days behind schedule in Eastern Oregon but somewhat ahead of schedule in Western Oregon as a result of dry weather.
Freezing weather caused some damage in Western Oregon and to fruit crops in scattered areas.
