ANNE RICKETTS IS HONORED AT PARTY

Anne Ricketts was honored at a surprise party Saturday in honor of her birthday. The party was held out of doors in the grove at the Veterans Hospital. Approximately 22 persons were present including the Grey Ladies and the Press Gang.

A wedding of much interest here was solemnized at the First Presbyterian Church in Eugene, April 12, at two o'clock in the afternoon, when Miss Diane Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted E. Reed of 530 Overlook, Roseburg, became the bride of William Charles Gibbons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gibbons of Eugene.

Preceding the ceremony, the organist played "I Love You Truly," and "Because." White Easter lilies and ferns formed the church decorations.

The bride wore a gown of white starched chiffon with lace inserts set in sequins. She wore a white lace Juliet cap and carried an old-fashioned nosegay. Miss Mary Campbell of Salem was maid of honor and wore a gown of yellow lace with a matching yellow lace Juliet cap. She also carried an old-fashioned nosegay.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, John R. Reed, Eugene, a cousin of the bride, was best man and Wally Reed, brother of the bride, Roseburg was the usher.

Following the wedding a reception was given by the bride's parents at the Eugene Hotel for twenty-four guests. The white linen-covered table was centered with a spring bouquet and white tapers.

The bride's mother wore a deep pink suit with navy accessories and a corsage of white orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue suit with navy and white accessories and a purple orchid corsage.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. L. H. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Vandeneinde of Salem, grandparents of the bride.

Following a honeymoon to Oregon and California coast points, Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons are now at home to their friends at 1320 Oak Street, Eugene. For traveling, the bride chose a plum colored spring suit with a navy straw hat and navy accessories.

Both the bride and bridegroom are students at University of Oregon.

OPERETTA SUCCESSFUL EVENT PRESENTED BY THE DILLARD SCHOOL

"The Mikado," a Japanese comic opera in two acts, by Gilbert and Sullivan, was presented by the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades of the Dillard School, under the direction of Mrs. Irene McLaughlin, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Principal Harry Krug, who acted as business manager for the production, gave credit for the success of the performance to the untiring efforts of the teachers, parents, and the rehearsals of the many pupils participating. Mrs. Margaret McCord, pianist, practiced with the group every day during the preparation period. Krug stated the group took six weeks for script-learning while many other older groups of children have taken up to eight weeks in their preparation. The costumes were beautifully made under the general direction of Mrs. Virginia Cutting and Mrs. Margaret Kinmel. Mrs. Clarence Brittain was given credit for the elaborate costumes of the "three little maids" and two for the leading lady "Yum Yum." Mrs. Merle Doering and Harold Brown directed the making of all the stage properties and scenery. Gordon Givan served as electrician. Jones and Langsev were in charge of publicity.

Those taking part were Wendell Wagler, Donald Gray, Lyle Hathaway, Kenneth Mahoney, George Brody, Wednesday night; Derrill Hill, Thursday night; Kenneth Roper, Kenneth Mahoney, Anne Ferguson, Wednesday night; Sharon Andrus, Thursday; Marilyn Haumeser, Helen McGuire, with understudies, Donna Shigley, Wanda Stacy and Rose A. Pierson; Hester Eason, understudy Shirley Shepherd; Donald Duquette. The mixed chorus included over 100 voices in all.
