

EASTMAN-KIRKENDALL WEDDING PARTY — Pictured above are the members of the Eastman-Kirkendall wedding party. The wedding was event of April 24, at the Camas Valley Church. From left to right are: Mrs. Bess Joyce, accompanist; Judy Counts, receptionist; Beverly Harmsen, maid of honor; Archie Gano, best man; the new Mrs. John Eastman; John Eastman; Shirley Harmsen and Janet McClellan, candlelighters, and Darlene Heilman, soloist. Below are Mr. and Mrs. Eastman cutting the traditional first piece of wedding cake.

Ellen Jo Kirkendall Bride Of John Eastman

A simple and beautiful candle-light service united Miss Ellen Jo Kirkendall and John Eastman in marriage April 24, at the Camas Valley Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kirkendall of Camas Valley, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Eastman, of Eugene.

The bride and groom, with their attendants, stood before an altar formed in an arch of flowers and flanked by two candleabra. Rev. L. G. Weaver, Camas Valley pastor, gave the wedding vows to the couple. The song, "I Love You Truly" was sung by Mrs. Ted Heilman, accompanied by Mrs. Ed Joyce at the piano. Mrs. Joyce also played the traditional wedding march.

Attending Miss Kirkendall was her maid of honor, Miss Beverly Harmsen. Milo Claughton, uncle of the bride, performed the duties of the best man. The bride, dressed in a lovely white gown of net over tulle, was given in marriage by her father.

The candles, which were placed in the windows of the church and at the altar, were lighted by Misses Shirley Harmsen and Janet McClellan. Miss Judy Counts was in charge of the guest book. Ushers were Calvin Roberts and Mr. Erwin Smith.

A reception followed the wedding and was held in the social room of the church. The wedding cake was traditionally cut by the bride and groom and guests were served cake and punch by Mrs. Guy Moore, Mrs. Tom Counts and daughter, Judy; Mrs. Ted Heilman, Mrs. Ed Joyce, Mrs. Marlen Yoder, Mrs. Ethel Brown and granddaughter, Rozelle; Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Roberts and two children; Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Kirkendall and two sons; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Taunt, Mr. and Mrs. Claughton and son, Ronnie; Mrs. Ernest Wheeler; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schmitt and two children; Mrs. E. H. Thrush, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Eastman, Misses Janet McClellan, Shirley and Beverly Harmsen; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cunningham, Mrs. Charles Crouch and daughter, Phyllis; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Shamehorn, Mr. and Mrs. Gano and son Archie, of Winston; and Rev. and Mrs. L. G. Weaver.

DEBRA JEAN SMITH IS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

A party was given Debra Jean Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben W. Smith of Roseburg, honoring her on her first birthday, at the home of her parents Sunday afternoon, April 20.

The party was held outdoors, and the decorations included balloons, paper hats, birthday motif table cloth, plates, napkins and cups. Games were played with Allison Pfaff and David Knutson winning prizes.

Refreshments of birthday cake, ice cream sundaes, punch and mints were served to Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Grove of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith, Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. Junior Wagner of Klamath Falls. Present from Roseburg were Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Watkins, Tarie Edie, Allison and Neva Pfaff, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Knutson and children, Christy, Jimmy and Davis; and Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Paulson and children, Nels and Marie.

Marry On April 20th

A very pretty home wedding took place, Sunday, April 20, when Miss Linda McCulloch, became the bride of William Thorp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thorp, all of Yoncalla. The ceremony took place in front of the fireplace which was banked with large bouquets of dogwood, and spring blossoms. Rev. R. W. Knight, pastor of the Yoncalla Methodist Church, officiated in the presence of the immediate families of both bride and bridegroom.

The ceremony took place at 9 a.m. The bride was beautiful in a brown and gold suit, with gold accessories, and wore a corsage of lavender carnations. For something old, she wore an old necklace, given her by a cousin, a new rhinestone pin, was something new, and something borrowed was rhinestone earrings belonging to her mother. A blue handkerchief was concealed in her suit.

Miss Janice Applegate was bridesmaid and wore a pink suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Eddie Thorp, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The bride's mother wore a navy blue crepe dress and a corsage of pink daisies. The bridegroom's mother wore a black crepe dress and a corsage of pink carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Thorp left immediately after the ceremony for a short honeymoon to the coast. They are now at home in Yoncalla. The bridegroom is employed with his father working in the woods.

MRS. MARSHALL E. CORNETT COMPLIMENTED AT HOTEL LUNCHEON

To compliment Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett, national committee woman, Mrs. Roy O. Young entertained at a one o'clock luncheon Wednesday at the Hotel Umpqua.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Cornett, guest of honor, Bereth P. Hopkins, chairman of the Jackson County Executive Committee; Mrs. F. L. Thompson and Fay Osterhout, both of Sutherlin; Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, Mrs. Eugene A. Springer, Mrs. John B. Preston, Mrs. Henry N. Jacobson, Mrs. Horace C. Berg, Mrs. J. C. Hume, Mrs. E. S. Booth, Mrs. Fred Hamill, Mrs. R. R. Clarke, Mrs. Arthur Marsh, Mrs. Harry W. Norton, Mrs. T. B. Viden and the hostess, Mrs. Roy O. Young.

Murphy-Miller Wedding Is Event Of April 16

One hundred guests witnessed the impressive and beautiful wedding of Carrie F. Miller, daughter of Mrs. Lucy Miller of Roseburg, to Richard D. Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Murphy, Roseburg, April 16, at 2 p.m. at St. Joseph's Catholic Church. Father Edmund Hyland officiated.

The church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies and white spirea. The church organist played softly throughout the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by Arthur E. Mills, a friend of the family, was lovely in a traditional heavy white slipper satin wedding gown with a full train. The scalloped neckline was trimmed with seed pearls to match the Chantilly lace trimmed crown in place. Her veil was of fingertip illusion. She carried a double heart shaped fan of net and satin trimmed with traditional orange blossoms and centered with a large all white orchid.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Les Winders, sister of the bride, wore a gold satin formal gown with a matching capelet and gloves. She carried a bouquet cascade of lavender carnations. The other two bridesmaids, Miss Theresa Murphy, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Pat Sullivan, friend of the bride, were dressed in satin gowns, identical to the design of the matron of honor's with the exception of the color. One was pink and one was blue. They carried cascade bouquets of pink carnations.

Phillip J. Murphy, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man, and Frank O. Murphy, brother of the bridegroom, and Les Winders, brother-in-law of the bride, were ushers.

The reception was held in the Civic Room of the Umpqua Hotel. The beautifully decorated table was centered with an arrangement of pink snapdragons, flanked by tall pink tapers. The square wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Arthur E. Mills. Miss Irene Trapalis served the punch and Mrs. Gary Piper was in charge of the guest book.

For traveling, the bride wore a gray suit with pink and white accessories.

Mr. Murphy is employed as an automobile salesman with the Hansen Motor Company. Mrs. Murphy, a graduate of Roseburg High School, class of '48, is employed as a clerk for the California Oregon Power Company.

Following a honeymoon to San Francisco, Calif., Reno, Nev., and points south, the couple are now at home to their friends at 539 Hamilton Street.

CHARLES WESCOTT IS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Weston Scott entertained at a birthday party in honor of her son, Charles, eleventh birthday Thursday after school in Wilbur. Thirty children gathered at the Scott home to play games, after which ice cream and cake were served on their spacious lawn.

MEMBERS OF THE MURPHY-MILLER WEDDING PARTY, above, pose for Jay Golden of Fredrickson's Photo Lab, following the ceremony April 16 uniting Miss Carrie Miller and Richard D. Murphy in marriage. Below, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy cut the first piece of their wedding cake.

Order Of Amaranth Officers Installed

Douglas Court No. 18, Order of the Amaranth, held installation of new officers April 25 at the Masonic temple.

Miss Pat Greer and Miss Joyce Knudson acted as candlelighters. The Court was opened by the 1951 officers and introduction of distinguished guests followed.

Uncrowning ceremonies were conducted by Frances Ostrom, Cannon Beach; Joy Augustus; Genevieve Philippi, Marjorie Miles and Gladys Cook. Presentation of jewels was by T. W. Bernard. The Bible ceremony was in charge of Laurette Norton, Royal Matron of Willamette Court, Eugene.

Harold R. Reynolds was master of ceremonies for the retirement of the 1951 officers ceremony. Miss Carla Taylor was soloist and Mrs. Bernard Saar was accompanist.

Installing officers were Jack Schultze, Klamath Falls; Flo Ann McDonald, David L. Taylor, Winnifred Dyer, Frances E. Ostrom and Hazel Kingsley.

New officers installed included: Jewell Long, royal matron; Thomas Scott, royal patron; Thelma Greer, associate matron; Robert Caley, associate patron; Johnnie Scott, secretary; Jewel Anderson, treasurer; Genevieve Philippi, conductress; Madeline Anlauf, associate conductress; Bill Miles, trustee three years; Harold Augustus, trustee two years; Clinton Hawk, trustee one year; Marjorie Miles, marshal in the east; Iola Raines, marshal in the west; Ivena Halvorsen, prelate; Maxine Sevall, standard bearer; Opal Ireland, truth; Mildred Dage, faith; Isabel Caley, wisdom; Mamie O'Neal, charity; Flossie Virden, historian; Betty Svarverud, musician; Harry Young, warden, and Wayne Ireland, sentinel.

Coronation ceremonies were in charge of Leah Bernard, coronation matron; Madeline Anlauf, honored marshal; Lola Stanley, standard bearer; Sally Hughes, crown bearer; T. W. Bernard, sword bearer; Verna Taylor, marshal in the east; Joy Augustus, marshal in the west; Hazel Kingsley, musician; Carla Taylor, soloist, and Mrs. Bernard Saar, accompanist.

Clinton Hawk and Harold Augustus were ushers and Marcia Bernard and Cynthia Sevall presented the program. Viola Blessing acted as chairman of the reception.

The tables were decorated with tiny crowns centered with small nosegays of spring flowers. The centerpiece on the serving table was a miniature horse and carriage filled with flowers. Pouring were Mrs. Hugh MacDonald, Yoncalla, and Mrs. Jack Schultze, Klamath Falls.

WELSHES HONORED WITH SURPRISE PARTY SATURDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Welsh were pleasantly surprised Saturday evening at their home east of Sutherlin, when friends arrived to honor them on their wedding anniversary.

The evening was spent in visiting and the playing of games, after which cake, sandwiches and coffee were served.

Those enjoying the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Welsh, were Mr. and Mrs. John Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Haines.

for over 24 years. Other out of town guests present were Mrs. Avis Warren, Mrs. Bessie Langston, Mrs. Edna John, musician from Grove 43; Mrs. Florence Small, first vice - president of Grove 43; and Mrs. Anna Jeppson, president of Grove 43; Mrs. Helen Parks, Mrs. Bea Beaty and daughter, Jackie; Mrs. Rose McCarty, Mrs. Haysel Garner, Mrs. Elvie Ward, Mrs. Betty Noice, Veneta Grove 50, participating in the drill team for the institution ceremonies of Grove 51.

The Community Hall was attractively decorated in colors of the society, green and lavender; vases and urns filled with tulips and spring blossoms were placed throughout the hall. A social time followed with refreshments.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS — Charter Members of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, Umpqua Grove, were installed at the Community Hall in Winston, Sunday, April 20. Pictured above in the front row, from left to right: Susanne Spearman, Denna Remington, Rosa Heinbach, Jo Jioras and Pearl Tealer; second row, Mrs. Zella K. Puckett, state manager; Wilma Hartv, Goldie Willis, Vivian Borgaes, Zella Jorgenson and Helen Finley; third row, LeNole Brown,

The institution of Umpqua Grove 51, Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, of Winston-Dillard area was held Sunday, April 21 in the Community Hall, Winston.

The institution meeting was called to order by Mrs. Zella K. Puckett, national committee woman and state manager. Assisting in the ritualistic work were the following: Mrs. Frances Collins, financial secretary of Grove 51, and attendant of district 3; Miss Dorothy Butler, treasurer of district 3; Mrs. Phebe M. McGuire, district manager and captain of the district 3 drill team.

Thirty charter members were initiated and open installation of officers followed with Mrs. Zella K. Puckett installing officer; assisted by Mrs. Phebe M. McGuire as installing attendant, and Mrs. Grace Hedge, district manager and national representative of Portland, as chaplain.

The following officers of Umpqua Grove 51 were installed: president, Mrs. Vivian Borgaes; past president, Mrs. Pearl Tealer; first vice-president, Mrs. Velma Albertis; second vice-president, Mrs. Lucy Benson; corresponding and recording secretary, Mrs. Jo Lesh; chaplain, Mrs. Lulu Post; attendant, Mrs. Isabel Hathaway; assistant attendant, Mrs. Willa Harty; treasurer, Mrs. E. D. the Manley; captain of the drill team, Mrs. Reba Butler; musician, Miss June Dale McGuire; and financial secretary, Mrs. Frances Collins.

Arthur W. McGuire, district manager for Omaha Woodmen Life Insurance Society assisted by members of local camps and Lu Ta Camp Fire Girls acting as color guard, presented the grove with an American flag. Ralph Russell, financial secretary of Camp 33, Roseburg, spoke on the history of the society and various activities in which the organization participate. The Woodmen members taking part in the presentation of the flag were Owen Puckett, Portland; Fred Hedge, Portland; Rev. Frank B. Drew, Dillard, Carl Borgaes, Clifford Spearman, Gene R. Lesh, Ralph Russell, Roseburg, Louise Solchenberg of Veneta.

(Picture by Photo Lab)