Homemakers' Festival To Hear O.S.C. President

Dr. A. L. Strand, president of Oregon State College, will be the guest speaker at the annual Homemakers' Festival to be held Friday, May 9, at the First Methodist Church in Roseburg, announced Betty J. Paterson, county extension agent, home economics.

Dr. Strand will speak on "Home life in the Philippines." He spent several months in the Philippines while on a special agricultural commission for President Truman and during that time he learned much about the Filipinos, their customs, their way of life and their activities. Dr. Strand took many colored slides which he will show during his talk.

The women of the home extension units in Douglas County will model the dresses they made in their Better Dress Workshops during the past month. Their dresses are made of rayon, linen and silk materials and are dressy-type afternoon dresses.

Miss Paterson conducted project leader training workshops during the month of March. The trained leaders then returned to their own communities and conducted workshops for their neighbors and unit members. They were taught the newest and simplest methods of making dresses with emphasis on the professional appearance of the garments. Next year the women will learn to sew on woolen fabrics. About 150 women participated in the Better Dress Workshops.

Miss Murie Seales, clothing specialist, Oregon State College, will represent the college.

Special musical selections from the operetta, "The Mikado," will be performed by the children from the Dillard School. There will also be group singing and many other special activities.

The Homemakers' Festival is open to the public and everyone is invited to attend. There is no charge for admission. The registration commences at 10:00 a.m., standard time.

Each home extension unit is in charge of an exhibit or an activity for the festival. The work shown is that done during the year by the unit members. Exhibits will be on display during the lunch hour. Luncheon will be served by the women of the Methodist Church with Mrs. R. L. Whipple as chairman.
