

Sutherland

By MRS. BRITTAIN SLACK

The Rev. and Mrs. Richard Graef of Klamath Falls, formerly pastor of Sutherland St. John's Lutheran church, were in town last Wednesday, visiting with various members of the church.

Mrs. Jack Culver Sr., who has been visiting in Washington and Portland, with relatives for a week returned to Sutherland last week.

Mrs. Frank McCord and Mrs. Douglas Secord went to Corvallis last Wednesday to attend the Henry J. Helser Queen house and banquet. On their return Thursday they stopped in Eugene to do some shopping.

Mrs. Louise Austin has resigned as a Sutherland school teacher, and Mrs. Lee Sharmen was elected to take her place.

Mrs. Jessie Rockhold resigned her teaching position on account of illness, and Mrs. Ila McEvers has been elected to fill the vacancy.

Harold Austin, principal of the Sutherland Grade School, attended

NEED SOME HELP? — Rita Martin, 3 1/2, gets ready to help Brian Booth, right, put finishing touches on the Queen's stand in preparation for the Senior High School May Fete, while Eddy Williams hauls a two-by-four into place. Both boys are working on the stand under supervision of Bill Sullivan. Fete was held at 8 p. m. Wednesday at the high school gym, under sponsorship of the physical education department. the elementary principals meeting at Reedsport Saturday. He was elected president for the ensuing year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Culver Jr. attended the State Telegraphic shoot at Portland, Sunday.

BOB WEAVER and his band will supply the music for the pre-princess ball scheduled for Friday night, May 16 at the Roseburg Armory. Bob Weavers band is noted for its Dixieland style along with sweet, danceable music. The pre-princess ball is being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce in order to let the public get a first look at the 20 contestants entered in the race for queen of the coming Centennial. Pictured in the band are: Don Frear, trombone, Tom Havens, trumpet; Bruce Gilley, tenor sax; Bob Weaver, trumpet; Jenny Amarde, piano; and Mel Moen, drums.

GETS COMBAT BADGE

Pfc. Donald G. Lander, route 2, Roseburg, has been awarded the combat infantryman badge, the symbol of the front-line fighting man. He trained in Japan for 10 months before being sent to Korea Feb. 10.

Lander is a member of Company F, 223rd Infantry regiment, in the 40th division.

Myrtle Creek Student Wins Speech Contest

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, Forest Grove — Pat McGuire, Myrtle Creek, emerged the winner of the annual Hare-Hale oratorical contest held Sunday on the campus.

Miss McGuire received $50 for her winning speech, while Georgia Burkett, Beaverton, won $25 for second place and Don Robinson, Paradise, Cal., copped $15 for third place honors. The prizes for the annual contest are sponsored by two Pacific graduates of 1903, William Hale, Hillsboro lawyer, and William Hare, retired dean of the Southern California law school.
