Townsend - Williams Wedding Event May 1

Miss Rena Eloise Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Williams of Riddle, became the bride of James Henry Townsend, Airman First Class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Townsend of Riddle Thursday, May 1, in the chapel of the Congregational church in Eugene. The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wesley Nicholson at one thirty o'clock in the afternoon.

The chapel and altar were decorated with pink snapdragons, white iris, and flanking candelabra holding white candles. Incidental organ music preceded the bride's entrance, with the wedding march from Lohengrin.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an ankle-length gown of white nylon lace and shoulder length veil held in place by a cap of orange blossoms. She carried white tulips.

Miss Joan Williams, sister of the bride, bridesmaid, wore a mauve shantung dress and carried pink and white carnations. Jack Carter of Riddle, now attending the Southern Oregon School of Education, was best man. Usher was Don Harwood of Eugene.

The bride's mother wore an orchid sheer crepe with black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a brown silk crepe with brown accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents held a reception at 1030 Perry Street, Eugene. The three-tiered wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Charles Hunsotter, sister of the bridegroom, after the bride and bridegroom had cut the first slice. The coffee was poured and served by Miss Celeste Baker and Miss Barbara Batton of Eugene.

For traveling the bride wore a suit in small brown and white check with brown and white accessories. The couple left immediately for Rantoul, Ill., where the bridegroom reports for duty at the end of his leave. He has recently returned from duty in Germany and England with the U. S. Air Force.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Riddle High School. Following graduation the bridegroom entered military service while the bride has been employed in Eugene as a telephone supervisor. The Williams family has lived in Riddle for the past five years and the Townsend family came here from California over eight years ago.

Guests attending the wedding from Riddle include Mrs. Darrell Carter, Miss Darrellene Carter, Ralph Carter and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Mutchie.

RYLAND BROZIO IS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Brozio entertained at a dinner Sunday April 27 in honor of their son Ryland's 15th birthday anniversary.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Scallon and children Sherry, Mark and Phillip Jr. of Umpqua; Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Henry and son Scott, of Umpqua; Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Christie, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hill of Garden Valley and Maria and Connie Brozio.

The evening was spent in visiting and playing cards.

MABEL STARK, above, who is recognized as the world's most famous woman-trainer of tigers, was a visitor at the Cliff Thornton Shady Oak Motor Court over Sunday and while in Roseburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bellows. Accompanied by her husband, E. B. Trees, and their six tigers, they were enroute home to Thousand Oaks, Calif., following the last three weeks in Tacoma, Portland and Yakima, where Miss Stark participated in the Shriner's Circus.

Miss Stark was seen in her tiger act in Roseburg a number of years ago, when she was with the Al G. Barnes Circus. She has been a friend of the Roy Bellows family for many years.

She has traveled all over the world presenting her tiger act. Three years ago, she suffered a badly mangled hand when she was attacked by one of the tigers. More than 100 stitches were taken in the wound.

Miss Stark only recently returned from a year in South America. She plans to leave in a few weeks for Japan to appear with Ferdinand, and the first of July, will go to Australia and New Zealand for a year under contract with the Worth Circus.
