

COUNCIL OF CHURCH WOMEN — Dr. Morris Roach, standing, led the panel discussion of "Spiritual Security for Today's Families" at the annual May Fellowship Breakfast held at St. George's Episcopal Church Friday, sponsored by the Roseburg Council of Church Women. Other speakers

Nearly 200 persons, representing seven Roseburg churches, met for the annual May Fellowship Breakfast sponsored by the Roseburg Council of Church Women last Friday at St. George's Episcopal Parish Hall.

Following the breakfast six speakers joined in a panel discussion of the theme "Spiritual Security for Today's Families." Dr. Morris Roach, Presbyterian minister, served as moderator. Other speakers were Robert Davis, district attorney; Mrs. Claude Baker, social worker; Merlin Donaldson, YMCA; Dick Nickens, representing young people; and Mrs. Ralph Arnsmeier, a mother.

Mrs. Jessie Crenshaw sang "I Love A Little Cottage" by O'Hara, and the Rev. Alfred Tyson gave the invocation and pronounced the benediction. Mrs. N. D. Johnson, president of the Council of Church Women, gave a word of welcome and made the introductions.

Churches represented at the function were: First Christian, Faith Lutheran, First Baptist, Methodist, North Roseburg United Evangelical Brethren, Presbyterian, and St. George's Episcopal Church.

CAMAS VALLEY H. E. CLUB TO PRESENT PLAY

The Camas Valley Home Economics Club will take their play "The Old Maid's Convention" to the Winston Community Hall, Saturday, May 10, according to director Mrs. Charles Crouch. This will be the third performance of the play.

from left to right seated at the table are: Robert Davis, district attorney; Mrs. Claude Baker, social worker; Merlin Donaldson, YMCA; Dick Nickens, representing young people; and Mrs. Ralph Arnsmeier, a mother, extreme right.

MISS LAVERNE LINDLEY HONORED AT SHOWER

A bridal shower honoring Miss Laverne Lindley who is to become the bride of David Weaver, June 8, was given at the reception room of the Nazarene Church parsonage Tuesday, April 29, at 7:30 p.m. About 45 guests were present. Large pictures of the couple were placed over the mantle of the fireplace. The gifts were placed in a parasol filled with confetti so that each gift opened created a shower of confetti. Mrs. Lewis Suiter and Mrs. Roy Cox were in charge of the decorations. Flowers used were tulips, lilacs and snowballs. Refreshments of cupcakes made in the form Mayflower baskets were served. Mrs. June Suiter was co-hostess. Mrs. Marjorie Marsh gave a reading. Out of town guests included Mrs. Delta Vunk of Albany and Mrs. Pat Wood of Albany.

LOCAL NEWS

Builds Scale House — Robert Seitz, 14-year-old grandson of A. J. Tuck of Roseburg, who is a sophomore in high school in Westport, Conn., had his picture in the Westport-Herald, April 10, showing his model scale house of a Cape Cod residence. A full page of pictures appeared in that issue showing the model scale homes of the boys in the sophomore class. Robert, also known as a fine trumpet soloist, recently participated in the Father Club Ted Mack Talent Show.

BENSON PTA HOLDS LAST MEETING OF THE YEAR

The Benson PTA held the final meeting of the year Monday, May 5, in the Benson gym with Rosemary Oliver, president, conducting.

Mrs. Ruth Lindell announced that again this year there would be a pre-school clinic to be held at the Riverside School August 22. Benson first-graders will be examined between 8 and 10 a.m.

Miss Elmer Sherk announced that again this year there would be a pre-school clinic to be held at the Riverside School August 22. Benson first-graders will be examined between 8 and 10 a.m.

Mrs. Edith Benson and Mrs. Juanita Overton gave reports on the PTA convention held in Pendleton in April.

It was voted to purchase a horizontal gym bar for the gymnasium. It will be in use the beginning of the next school year.

Mrs. Rosemary Oliver presented all retiring officers and committee chairmen with a gift.

Installation of new officers was held with Mrs. Mary Wells, past president, installing officer. New officers are: president, Mrs. Edith Benson; vice-president, Mrs. Juanita Overton; secretary, Mrs. Jerry Bennett; treasurer, Mrs. Harriet Robertson; historian, Mrs. W. W. Stewart. They were all presented with a corsage.

Mrs. Rosemary Oliver, retiring president, and Mrs. Dorothy Dent, retiring secretary, were presented with corsages and Mrs. Oliver received a past president's pin. Mrs. Katherine Lockwood won the room count, making her majority winner for the year.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Marian Yount in the lunch room following the meeting.

TERRY OSTERHOUT IS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Alta Osterhout entertained at a birthday party at her spacious home on East Central Avenue last Saturday, honoring her daughter, Terry, on her 9th birthday.

Terry received many lovely gifts and after opening them, games were played with Dolores Petty and Jackie Brunton, winning the prizes. Mrs. Osterhout also took moving pictures of the group at play on the lawn.

A lace covered table was centered with a beautiful decorated birthday cake and favors of candy and balloons were arranged at each setting. The cake was cut and served with ice cream to Jackie Brunton, Judy Hutchins, Mary Pat and Ann Thatcher, Lorraine Elliott, Janet Hutchins, Dolores Petty, Gale Petherick, Rachel Kaker, Nancy Moore, Karen Karcher and Linda Buck.

Adults present were: Mrs. Ruby Holloway, Mrs. Ted Buck, Mrs. Durwood Elliott and the hostess, Mrs. Osterhout.

MISS PEGGY CONAGHAN IS HONORED AT PARTY

Mrs. Charles Schwartz entertained at a party at her home on East Side Terrace honoring Miss Peggy Conagahn of Sydney, Australia, who is a house guest of Mrs. Lyle Smith, Wednesday at a one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon.

Covers were placed for: Miss Peggy Conagahn, guest of honor; Mrs. Beverly Baird, Mrs. Letha Barnes, Mrs. C. A. Petherick, Mrs. Fred Waugh, Mrs. Virginia Wood, Mrs. Fayette Thompson, Mrs. Earl Thatcher, Mrs. Claude Keener, Mrs. O. L. Torrey, Mrs. Lyle Smith and the hostess, Mrs. Schwartz.

Contract bridge and canasta were in play during the afternoon with Mrs. Petherick winning high score for bridge. Mrs. Baird, high for canasta and Miss Conagahn was presented with the guest prize.

The next regular meeting will be held in two weeks, the place to be announced later.

DILLARD GLEE CLUB AND MOTHER SINGERS HONOR NATIONAL MUSIC WEEK

Commemorating National Music Week, the Girls' Glee Club from the Dillard School and the Dillard PTA Mother Singers presented the following program Monday, May 5, at 1:30 over radio station KRRR. Mrs. Margaret McCord was accompanist for the Girls' Chorus and Mrs. Helen Buell was accompanist for the PTA Mother Singers. Both groups are under the direction of Mrs. Irene McLaughlin, music instructor of the school.

The Girls' Glee club (5, 6, 7 and 8th grades), 68 in number, began by singing their theme song, "Holy, Holy, Holy." This was followed by:

"Jesus, Word of God Incarnate," "Gretchen in Off's Slumber Song," "Shepherd Boy," and "Shortnin' Bread." For their final number the girls offered the trio of the Three Little Maids from the Mikado by Gilbert and Sullivan. Marilyn Haumeser, Sharon Andrus and Helen McGuire, with the chorus sang. Next was a soprano solo sung by a 12-year old girl from the seventh grade, Ann Ferguson, who sang, "The Moon and I," from the Mikado. The Girls' Sextet consisting of Sharon Andrus, Ann Ferguson, Helen McGuire, Marilyn Haumeser, Verna Streight and Hester Eason sang "The Tumble Down Shack in Athlone" and "The Syncopated Clock."

The PTA Mother Singers which was organized this year, were making their first radio appearance. They offered "Through the Years," "Summertime," and "Waiting For You."

For their final number the Mother Singers sang a Southern Folk song, "Charlottown," arranged by Charles F. Bryan.

FASHION SHOW — Pictured above is one of the models, Mrs. Mickey Bourassa, at the Penny Supper and Fashion Show, sponsored by the Style Shop, and presented by the Olalla-Tenmile Extension Unit Friday evening, April 25 at the Tenmile Community Building.

The Penny Supper and Fashion Show (sponsored by the Style Shop) presented by the Olalla-Tenmile Extension unit Friday evening April 25 at the Tenmile Community Building was a very successful event. Pupils of the Tenmile School also presented a very entertaining program.

Mrs. Hazel Ison, unit chairman, and Mrs. Maureen Muetzel, finance chairman, were in charge of the event, assisted by members of the unit.

Mrs. Ella Gray of the Style Shop acted as commentator of the Fashion Show and introduced her models. The models, all members of the unit, were: the Mesdames Mabelle Welch, Kathleen Sypher, Pauline Gore, Ruth Laurance, Elaine Roberts, Mickey Bourassa, Julia Breitenbacher and Minnie Lockwood. The ladies each modeled four complete changes of clothing.

he unit, were: the Mesdames Mabelle Welch, Kathleen Sypher, Pauline Gore, Ruth Laurance, Elaine Roberts, Mickey Bourassa, Julia Breitenbacher and Minnie Lockwood. The ladies each modeled four complete changes of clothing. Numbers of the school program were: first grade, Flag Salute and Flag Song; second grade, America the Beautiful (song) and a dance; third grade, bouncing balls and Oregon State song; fourth grade, square dance; fifth grade, Mr. Owl's Warning (play); sixth and seventh grades, piano solo by Ellis Vance and Peggy O'Neil, "When You Were a Tulip" and "Hey, Good Looking" (songs); eighth grade, "Shrimp Boats Are Coming" (song) and "Easter Parade" (piano solo) by Carole Dowdy. The proceeds are to be used for a 4-H scholarship, a donation to the cancer fund and general expenses of the Extension Unit.

★ DAIRY QUEEN ★ ★ DAIRY QUEEN ★ ★ DAIRY QUEEN ★ ★ DAIRY QUEEN ★

FREE! FREE! FREE! FREE!

KIDS, YOU'VE HAD YOUR DAY, NOW IT'S

MOTHER'S DAY at Myrtle Creek Roseburg Sutherlin

DAIRY QUEEN STORES

In Appreciation of Your Wonderful Patronage

GET YOUR FREE

SUNDAE

ALL DAY
SUNDAY from 11 A.M. 'til
12 Midnite

KIDS, BRING YOUR MOM!

LET US TREAT HER ON HER DAY!

DAIRY QUEEN STORES

ROSEBURG ★ SUTHERLIN

★ MYRTLE CREEK

JACK A. HOLDER, Owner