AVOID BELT TROUBLE

Many belts are not only unserviceable — they're a downright menace to the garment with which they're worn.

Here's the story.

These belts shrink, deteriorate, lose shape, warp and buckle, and—worst of all—fade into the garment itself. A bad thing. Gives you a lot of trouble and frequently ruins the garment.

And here's the answer:

DEMAND THAT THE BELT CARRY THE LABEL: "CLEANABLE AND WASHABLE." ALL BELTS CARRYING THAT LABEL ARE SAFE. THEY WILL NOT BE HARMED BY ANY OF THE ORDINARY PROCEDURES USED IN CLEANING OR WASHING. WHETHER WE DO THE WORK FOR YOU OR YOU DO IT YOURSELF.

If the belt doesn't carry the "CLEANABLE AND WASHABLE" label, the best thing to do is not to buy it. It may look lovely and be very fascinating, but it will only give you trouble and you won't get very much wear out of it either.

Naturally, almost any garment can be paired with an almost endless variety of contrasting or matching belts, so the smart thing to do is buy a "CLEANABLE AND WASHABLE" belt in the first place. You'll look just as well, and the garment—and the belt, too—will both wear longer.
