MAISIE is in hot water again tonight at 7:00. Her latest job, driving a car to Las Vegas, sounded like a good deal until the police picked her up and informed her that the automobile was stolen. There are plenty of fireworks when the blond from Brooklyn starts to read off everyone involved in putting her on the spot.

SEN. HENRY CABOT LODGE JR. (R), of Mass., head of the "I Like Ike" campaign designed to obtain the Republican Presidential nomination for General Dwight D. Eisenhower, is to be the guest for tonight's "Reporters Roundup" program. Sen. Lodge was the first to reveal that the general would run for President if he received a "clear-cut call to political duty."

TONIGHT, 10:15 - 10:45 "Pre-Princess Ball" broadcast direct from the Armory, with Bob McCarl emceeing. 10:45, the first election returns. Esther Gilliland, recent arrival in Roseburg from Denver, is reported by the Roseburg Realty Company to be negotiating for a lease on 13 units of Pine Court Apartments owned by Mrs. Helen Rapp Leffler and daughter, Sandra.

Mrs. Gilliland recently completed purchase of 21 units of the apartment, originally constructed with federal funds during wartime housing emergency. Mrs. Gilliland, according to the realty company, hopes to arrange terms of lease and take over management of the entire property.

Coastal Fishing Soon To Improve

Fishing is fair but improving in Southern Oregon coastal lakes and streams, according to the Oregon State Game Commission's weekend report.

On Co-op Board — Miss Zona Wilshire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilshire of Roseburg, was recently elected to the Oregon State College Co-op board of directors on the campus at Corvallis. Miss Wilshire, a sophomore majoring in secretarial science, was also elected recently as treasurer of Delta Delta Delta Sorority for the coming year.

Attended State Meeting — Mrs. Frank V. Johnson, Mrs. Genevieve Simmons and Mrs. William F. Amiot have returned to their Roseburg homes after attending the state-wide Tuberculosis and Health Association meeting, held in Portland this week. The women represented Douglas County and presented a comedy skit incorporating the recent chest x-ray survey that took place in Roseburg and vicinity. They also attended while there.

Trout fishing is improving in the main tributaries of the Rogue River, but is still poor in the main channel. Fishing with worms or black gnat flies are reportedly producing the best results.

Salmon angling is described as "fair but improving" from Galice to Savage Rapids.

In the middle Umpqua River area a few limit catches are being taken, but they are few. Success is only fair. Water conditions in the Umpqua and its tributaries are not favorable, but are improving. Bait has proven the most effective lure.

Salmon angling is only fair. It is best at Winchester and Cleveland Rapids. Muddy water from recent snow and rain runoffs are hampering fishing.
