3 Top Pitchers On Hill Tonight

By The Associated Press
Three pitchers who've already posted five victories in this yet-young Pacific Coast League season go to the Hill Friday night with two of them meeting head-on.

San Diego manager Lefty O'Doul named his sparking portside Willie Luna, 21-year-old rookie, to try and even the league leaders' series with Los Angeles.

The Angels lead in games 2-1, having won Thursday night 5-4 as close games featured the play. In the others, Sacramento dropped second place Oakland 3-2, San Francisco edged Seattle 5-4 and Hollywood beat Portland 6-4.

At San Francisco, the Seattle Rainiers send Steve Nagy, a 21-year-old left hander, against the Seals as last year's champions try to improve their sagging seventh place position.

Hollywood jumped into a three-run lead in the first inning against Portland Thursday and was never topped. Newcomer Ted Oeard, recently of Pittsburgh socked a homer in the initial frame with two mates on base. Chuck Stevens poked another Hollywood homer in the third. Portland tallied in the eighth as Aaron Robinson singled in two runs. Mel Queen, another acquisition from Pittsburgh's Pirates, was the winning hurler.
