Open House At Mercy Hospital Held Monday

Open house was held by Mercy Hospital Monday in observance of National Hospital Day. The occasion proved very successful and Sister Mary Natalie, sister superior, has expressed her appreciation to the public for its support and to the members of the Mercy Hospital Auxiliary for serving as hostesses.

Mrs. A. J. Murray was general chairman. Mrs. Paul Jenkins had charge of the decorations. Gorgeous arrangements of spring flowers decorated the halls, chapel and dining room. Numerous bouquets were sent to the hospital as gifts from friends. The serving table, covered by a lace cloth, was centered with a tiered arrangement of deep red peonies and flanked by sprays of pink weigela.

Mrs. S. V. Reilly was in charge of the food. Mrs. Robert Hatterscheid had charge of the tours and Mrs. J. A. Harding registered the guests. Mrs. Eldon McLaughlin had charge of the Baby Alumni booth. The committee for the latter has decided to open the membership in the Baby Alumni group to all babies born in Mercy Hospital. Scrolls are being printed to present to the members of this group.

Assisting the various chairmen with the affair included: Mrs. Hall Seely, Mrs. C. L. Coke, Mrs. J. G. Verberkmoes, Mrs. R. C. Herbage, Mrs. Robert Foye, Mrs. Sidney Domenico, Mrs. Bakala, Mrs. William Lassiter, Mrs. Edward Montgomery, Mrs. Edward Murphy, Mrs. Mike Dilley, Mrs. L. J. Bean, Mrs. Dale Roles, Mrs. Walter Welker, Mrs. R. D. Parsons, Mrs. Anna Link, Mrs. Stephen Kiss and Mrs. Nelson Howard.

Students of the high school interested in taking up the study of medicine or nursing were guests at Mercy Hospital in the morning. The public was invited to call in the afternoon between two and four o'clock and in the evening between seven and nine o'clock.

Following the tour of inspection of the hospital, refreshments were served in the dining room. The homemade cookies were furnished by members of the Hospital Auxiliary.

In addition to the new, modern brick wing of the hospital, the older part of the building has been completely remodeled and redecorated.

Banquet For Elliott And Miss Tracy Given

A combination annual spring social and a banquet in honor of Paul Elliott and Miss Verlie Tracy was held at the Roseburg Country Club Wednesday night. The REA was sponsor for the affair. Approximately 160 members and guests were present.

There was a profusion of small blue iris on the tables and placed beside the flowers were favors. Tapers were set in silver tinfolied boxes.

Following the dinner, John Lucas introduced the entertainment director, Miss Paula Raff, who in turn introduced Henry Barnek, instructor at the High School. Mr. Barnek presented a skit with the assistance of Miss Jean Smith. A quartette, comprised of Romayne

Brand, Eli Hall, principal of Rose School; Carl Prickett, instructor at Sutherlin, and John A. Lucas, parodied old melodies.

Paul Elliott, who is leaving for Oak Ridge at the end of this semester made a number of humorous comments concerning the 40 year career in Roseburg of Miss Verlie Tracy, who is also leaving.

The presentation of the gifts followed. Miss Tracy was presented with a sterling silver teapot. Mr. Elliott received a twin Schaeffer desk set inscribed to him from the REA.

Following the formalities, dancing was enjoyed.

Miss Allene Inlow was in charge of the social committee and was responsible for the preparation of the banquet.

MOTHER'S DAY TEA HELD AT ELKS LOUNGE SUNDAY

One of the charming Mother's Day events took place Sunday at the Elks Temple Lounge. Special services in honor of mothers were held in the lounge room.
