left to right: Carolyn Skynor, Rita Sutton, Patsy Gemberling, Loya Hicks, Nadene Gibbs and Diane Myers. Gifts were presented to the guest of honor and games were played. Later birthday cake, ice cream and cold drinks were served by Mrs. Hicks and daughter, Joyce.

The distribution of warm weather types of plant after glacial times proceeded slowly and even today Ireland has far fewer types of plant than England and England has less than the Continent.

CAMAS VALLEY GRANGE HAS REGULAR MEETING

A Boy Scout Court of Honor was held during the lecturer's period of the Camas Valley Grange Tuesday, May 13, at the school. Martin Nieman and Bill Sundquist received their second class scout pins from Guy Moore, layman representative. Mr. Moore was assisted by Marlen Yoder and Robert Wheeler. The boys were presented to the court by their scout master, LaMar Ormand. Speaker for the evening was Charles Thomas, committeeman for the Boy Scouts, who gave a short talk on organizational and financial matters pertaining to the organization.

During the regular business meeting Robert Wheeler was chosen to have the power of attorney for the incorporation of the Camas Valley Grange. A Fourth of July Celebration committee was chosen by the Master, Lee Wilson: Milo Claughton, Wheeler and Ernest Booth. The committee is to pick one more man to work with them. It was reported by Mr. Booth that the Camas Valley VFW post has ordered $200 worth of fire works for the celebration. Present plans include the possibility of a barbecue and a dance on the Grange Hall floor, which should be laid by that time. Degree work was given to Ronny Claughton, Les Catchpole, and Jim Blanden. An announcement was made by Mrs. William Cunningham and Mrs. Ernest Booth about the Home Economics Club Election day dinner to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson. The dinner is to be served cafeteria style beginning at 10:30 a.m. (ST) and extending into the evening as long as the food lasts. No delegate was chosen to attend the State Grange at LaGrande in June. The Grange voted to sponsor a 4-H Scholarship as it has in former years.
