

Closed Tavern's Owner Asks $3,500 Damages

Damages totaling $3,500 are sought in a Circuit Court suit in which a tavern owner charges his establishment's license was suspended because a minor purchased beer there.

Leonard S. Zacher, operator of the Friendly Tavern, filed the suit Monday against Archie McDonald, 29. Zacher charges McDonald purchased beer there and as a result the Oregon Control Commission closed the tavern for seven days. Zacher asks $2,500 for loss of revenue plus $1,000 punitive damages.

Social Security Boost Turned Down In House

WASHINGTON — Legislation to boost social security benefits at a cost of 300 million dollars a year was rejected by the house Monday.

The vote was 149 for the measure and 140 against it. However, the bill was brought up under a parliamentary situation which barred amendments and required a two-thirds majority for passage.

It is still possible for the house to consider the bill under different procedure.

Rep. Doughton, (D-N.C.), the sponsor, would have to get a clearance from the rules committee which would open the way for amendments and passage by a straight majority.

Administration leaders, however were divided on the chance for Administration leaders, however,
