ANN RUTLEDGE MYTH?

Abe Lincoln Cared Only For His Wife, Says Letter Of Former Mary Todd

CHICAGO — The familiar tragic love story of Abe Lincoln and Ann Rutledge once was indignantly described as a myth by Mary Todd Lincoln.

In a letter written to a supreme court justice and made public Sunday, the Civil War resident's widow asserted Lincoln "always assured me he had cared for no one but myself."

Willard L. King, a Chicago lawyer and historian, said he came across the letter in his research for a biography of David Davis of Bloomington, Ill., an Illinois circuit judge whom Lincoln appointed to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Davis was administrator of Lincoln's estate. King said he found the letter in papers of Davis' grandson, David Davis IV.

Some historians have said Ann Rutledge and Lincoln were engaged to be married when both lived in New Salem, Ill., but that she died of fever before they could be wed. These biographers say Lincoln never recovered from shock and grief.

But Mrs. Lincoln wrote: "My husband ... always assured me he had cared for no one but myself.... I shall always remain firm in my conviction that Ann Rutledge is a myth.

"Nor did his ... joyous laugh lead me to suppose his heart was in any unfortunate woman's grave but in the proper place with his loved wife and children."

POW Camp Due For 'Changes,' New Head Says

KOJE ISLAND, Korea — The outspoken new commandant of Kojie Island said Thursday "you're damned right" there will be changes in running this turbulent war prison camp, but "no sudden revolutionary change."

After 24 hours on the job, Brig. Gen. Hayden Boatner said he thought Communist prisoners had been treated too leniently.

Had he seen anything that needed to be changed?

"You're damned right I've spotted some things," he said. "For one thing I don't like those insulting signs, and the flags and the demands."

The signs were insulting to the United Nations Command and the U. S.

The flags were Red banners flying over some of the 17 barbed wire stockades holding 79,000 prisoners of war.

The demands were those made for the release of a former camp commander, Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd.

Brig. Gen. Charles F. Colson was removed as commandant when he agreed to some of them. His promises were disavowed by the U.N.

Germ Warfare Charge Flayed By Secy. Lovett

WASHINGTON — Secretary of Defense Lovett said angrily Friday of Russian charges that the U. S. is using germ and gas warfare: "Any one who says that lies in his teeth."

In a news conference, Lovett also called the charges an "abominable, malicious falsehood" and said any country that deals in such a thing is guilty of an appalling act.

Lovett commented too that the traditional Communist technique has been to charge someone else "with a crime you expect to commit."

Then he declared: "If they do, they'll lose just the same. They'll wish they had never been born."

Lovett was asked if this meant that countersteps would be taken. He replied:
