

Nickels On Car Fail To Ban Parking Ticket

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Carl Simmons parked his car, dropped a nickel in the parking meter and hung an envelope on his windshield reading: "Patrolman attention. Enclosed are several nickels for the parking meter. The owner of this car is a salesman calling on a local store and does not want to interrupt his sale. Thank you for your courtesy."

Local News

Returns To Dayton—Mrs. L. W. Magee, who has been visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. Clark Robb, returned to her home in Dayton, Ore., last Sunday.

Wilders Home From South—Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wilder returned to their home on Chadwick Street Sunday, following six weeks vacationing in Phoenix, Ariz., and other points of interest in the south. They were accompanied south by a cousin, Mrs. Franklin Laurence, who had spent several weeks visiting here and who was met in Phoenix by her husband, who took her back to their home in Evanston, Ill.

Arrive For Visit—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Houck and daughter, Cathey, of Seattle, and Mrs. Houck's mother, Mrs. Wilbur Longfellow, of Port Angeles, Wash., arrived in Roseburg Sunday for a few days visit with the latter's brother, J. H. Bosard.

Moving To Roseburg—Mrs. J. H. Morgan, mother of Mrs. John Carrigg of Garden Valley, will shortly be moving to Roseburg to be near Mrs. Carrigg and her daughters, Kathy, Kristy and Elizabeth Ann. Mrs. Morgan returned to Portland last Monday.

Plans To Leave—Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gildersleeve are moving to Grants Pass. They have made their home in Roseburg since 1922 at 434 Fowler Street. The Grants Pass address will be 728 S. West "1" Street.

Home For Weekend—Tom Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Taylor, 1310 West 2nd St., flew home from the University of Oregon for the weekend. Saturday evening, he attended the Junior-Senior High School prom at Senior High School. He is a sophomore at the University.

Returns From San Francisco—Rev. A. S. Tyson has returned to Roseburg from San Francisco, where he attended a week's session of the School of Prophets. The school, held in the Chapter House of Grace Cathedral, was led by Rt. Rev. Frank R. Barry, Bishop of Southwell Cathedral, England. Bishop Barry is the author of numerous books, several of which have been the selection of the religious book club in this country.

Attend Youth Rally—A group of Roseburg boys attended a Youth Rally at Cannon Beach near Seaside, last weekend, sponsored by the Evangelical United Brethren churches. The Rev. Clark Robb of the North Roseburg Church drove the boys to the beach and while there was guest speaker. Herb Hanks of Myrtle Creek was song leader. Dan Arnsmeier and Ernie Green of Roseburg presented an instrumental duo. Also attending was Jimmy Johanson of Roseburg. The boys returned Sunday.

To Be Inducted—The Junior Class Tri-Hi-Y Club of the Roseburg YMCA are installing their officers this evening in a candle-light service at 7:30, in the Library Arts Building of the Senior High School. Those being installed are: president, Mollie Fullerton; vice-president, Roberta Adams; secretary, Beulah Sutton; treasurer, Loretta Kelly; historian, Donna Sundberg; chaplain, Marilyn Nickens; sergeant at arms, Sandra Rapp. Guest speaker will be Merlin C. Donaldson, general secretary of the Roseburg YMCA. Refreshments will be served after the service. The public is invited.

Scottsburg Vote Doesn't Affect Race Leaders

Scottsburg precinct in late returns showed a strong liking for Democrat Cecil Bever for sheriff, but the 28 votes he received still does not affect the lead given Alvin E. "Al" Hughes in Friday's primary election.

Hughes polled only five votes at Scottsburg. Vernon Pouncey received 7, and Alfred Smith 4. The Scottsburg vote gives Bever a total of 1102 votes, but Hughes' total of 1283 is substantially above, and cannot possibly be materially altered when the one remaining precinct—Tiller—is heard from. Pouncey's total is 1010, and Smith's 802.

The deputy sheriff's race on the Democratic ticket was the only close contest for Douglas County positions. The Scottsburg precinct, however, showed a slight reversal over the county as a whole in its preference for Republican candidates.

The district showed a strong preference for incumbent O. T. Carter for Sheriff, who was beaten in the county by C. H. Baird. Carter was given 40 votes to 14 for Baird. There were five for Eckhardt and none for Billy Mohr.

For coroner, Dr. John J. Grabow polled 20 votes compared with successful candidate L. L. "Jim" Powers, 19, and 14 for Robert Bellows. Charles Doerner was strongly favored, 48 to 8, over Victor Micelli. Elmer Metzger came out a slight favorite, 26 to 23, over Herbert Lindner for commissioner.

Translator For Letter From Hungary Sought

A translator for a letter received Monday from Budapest, Hungary, was sought today by Mrs. R. E. Herman, executive secretary of the Roseburg Chapter of the Red Cross.

The letter, which says "Matyarpasta" on the outside of it, also enclosed several photographs of a city scene.

Mrs. Herman explained that a former translator for mail of that kind has moved away from Douglas County and she is anxious to contact some one else familiar with the language.

DST AT McMinnville—McMinnville will go on daylight time June 1 under a changed decision of the City Council. The Council earlier had voted to stay on standard time.

The June 1 shift is the same date chosen by Hood River.

AT LONG LAST—WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Japanese who had been hiding out in the Marianas islands for eight years were captured Thursday by the Saipan Island Submarine, the Interior Department was notified.

Dudley Walton was given a strong 42 vote, and Thomas C. Hartfield was favored 27 to 22 over John Amacher.

Scottsburg, in other contests, preferred Paget and Sweetland for National committeemen on the two tickets, and Burton for committeewoman on the Democratic slate. Eisenhower and Kefauver were strong winners, as were Ellsworth and Swanson for congressman.

Tribute Tonight For Volunteers

A ceremony honoring volunteers who have assisted at the Roseburg Veterans Administration Hospital will be held at 8 p.m. today in the hospital recreation building.

Tribute will be paid to members of veterans, welfare, civic and service organizations who contribute their time to improve morale of patients.

The program will include an address of welcome and appreciation to the volunteers by Dr. John L. Haskins, manager of the hospital.

Mayor Albert Flegel will discuss "The Hospital and the Community," and a patient will tell the meaning of the voluntary service to him.

Dr. Haskins will present certificates to the volunteers and there will be a premier showing of the film "Within the Town."

Wife Enjoyed From Scolding Husband

DETROIT (AP)—Arthur J. Knighton, Jr., a factory worker here, plans to catch up on some sleep—thanks to a ruling by circuit Judge Chester P. O'Hara.

Judge O'Hara Wednesday issued an injunction restraining Knighton's wife, Nettie Mae, from dousing him with scalding water. Knighton complained that his wife dumped the hot water on him while he slept.

The factory worker filed suit for divorce last Dec. 19. Although legally separated, the pair have continued to live in the same house.

Judge O'Hara said the injunction would be effective until Knighton's divorce suit is heard.
