

Boy In U.S. Four Days Is Rescuer

CLEMENTON, N.J. (AP)—"I saw they were in trouble so I jumped in and pulled them out." That statement, spoken in Danish, tells the story of the rescue Tuesday of two small boys from Clementon Lake by a 16-year-old Danish youth who arrived in America four days ago.

The Danish youth, Yohan Svendrup, was on his way to the grocery store. As he passed by the lake he noticed the two boys, Daniel Wayne, 3, and Francis Welsh, 3½, playing by the water.

Later on the way back from the store he saw the boys thrashing about in the water. He dropped the groceries, removed his shoes and stockings and jumped in. He dragged the Wayne boy ashore and then returned for the Welsh child. Later all three were treated for exposure.

Yohan, his widowed mother, two sisters and a brother are living with his aunt until they find a permanent home.

OUTDOOR EPIC AT INDIAN

KRNR Dial Log

TONIGHT: The plains surrounding Holbrook, Ariz., echo and re-echo the sound of six-guns and galloping horses as the "Cisco Kid" takes on the chore of running off the town's desperadoes, tonight, 7:30.

Listeners to Mutual-Don Lee's "Curt Massey Time," week-days, 4:30, will have an opportunity to see Curt and the crew in the May 29 issue of LOOK magazine. Martha Tilton, Country Washbourne and his orchestra join Curt in acting out one of LOOK magazine's Photo-Crime mysteries. Mr. Massey is the hero, "Liltin'" Martha Tilton the love interest, and Country Washbourne the corpse.

SMALL FRY. . . ATTENTION. . . this sounds like a good deal: Listeners to "Sgt. Preston of the Yukon" (Thursday 5:00-5:30; are offered a prospector's tent and cook-stove premium. You can rough it in style! The tent is of green plastic, three feet square at the base and 4½ feet high, comes complete with tent poles, stakes and instructions for setting up; included in the offer is an all metal cooking stove with cooking tongs.

TOMORROW NIGHT: 7:00, hear "Christopher Casanova" as he travels to Jamaica, B.W.I., for his latest adventure. A missing piece of statuary, which has been stolen from the Jamaica Museum, provides the mystery as this romantic adventurer takes on another assignment for WORLDPOL, the international police organization.

Here's something we'll bet you didn't know: The notorious Capt. William Kidd, hanged for piracy at London's Execution Dock in 1701, was once a successful merchant in Pearl Street near Hancock Square, and owned considerable property in the vicinity of Wall Street.

Salem Councilman Oustruns Two Rivals

SALEM (AP)—David O'Hara, who runs Oregon's elections, proved he isn't a bad vote-getter himself.

O'Hara, chief of the State Elections Bureau, was re-elected to the Salem City Council, and became the first councilman ever to get a clear majority in a primary in which there were more than two candidates.

He got 1,668 votes. His two opponents, who campaigned hard, got a total of 1,092.

Camas Valley Senior Wins Journalism Award

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene—William Dunham, Camas Valley High School senior, received the Eric W. Allen Certificate for outstanding service on his high school newspaper. Judy Chigns, senior, was presented with the George S. Turnbull Certificate for similar contribution on the yearbook. Shirley Harneson and Mary Lou Matthews, juniors, were recognized for their services on the yearbook and newspaper, respectively. The awards were made by the Oregon Scholastic Press for the year 1951-52.

This is the fourth year that the OSP, sponsored by the School of Journalism here, has presented the annual awards. The students who receive the recognition are recommended by their advisers.

ASTIN NOMINATED

WASHINGTON (AP)—Allen V. Astin of Bethesda, Md., was nominated by President Truman to be Director of the National Bureau of Standards. He has been acting director for some time.
