Solons Batter Rainiers, 7-2; Padres Tounce Beavers, 8-2

By The Associated Press
It's hard to explain why a ball club frequently goes all-out for hits for a second flight hurler, then fails to support its best.

Sacramento's player-manager Joe Gordon offers a theory. He says that when a second ranker takes the mound "the boys start right out trying for hits, figuring we'll need them."

Gordon has a pitcher named Kenny Gables, who has been doing pretty well for himself around the Pacific Coast League since 1944. Going into Wednesday night's game with Seattle he had allowed only three earned runs in 26 innings. But the Sacs hadn't been batting for him. His record was 0-3.

Wednesday night the Solons accorded him the support to which he is entitled, and presto: Sacramento 7, Seattle 2. Elsewhere it was Los Angeles 5, San Francisco 1; San Diego 8, Portland 2, and Oakland 4, Hollywood 3.

Gables had a shutout going until the ninth when Al Lyons hit his seventh home run over the left field wall with Bobby Wilson on base. The Sacs backed Gables up with 11 hits and scored six runs in the sixth inning. A triple by John Ostrowski and a double by Gordon sparked the rally.

San Diego exploded for seven tallies in two innings to overwhelm Portland. That made it seven wins in a row for the Padres. Portland scored its two runs off Bob Malloy in the opening inning on Joe Brovia's homer with Don Eggert on base. Beaver pitcher Fred Sanford was chased from the mound after four runs in the fourth.

In squaring its series with Hollywood at one game apiece, Oakland snapped a six-game losing streak. A total of 30 players saw action in the tight ball game.

Los Angeles batted around in the eighth, combining five singles and two walks to produce four runs. Seal Elmer Singleton had the Angels well under control until that frame.

Chapman Upset, Knocked Out Of British Tourney

By TOM OCHILTREE

PRESTWICK, Scotland (AP) — Defending Champion Dick Chapman, one of America's big three, was knocked out of the British Amateur Golf Championship in a stunning upset Thursday.

But U. S. Amateur king Billy Maxwell and Frank Stranahan, former British Amateur titleholder carried Uncle Sam's colors into the sixth round.

The three other topflight American linksman, Walker Cupper Jimmy McHale, Frank Strafaci and Harvie Ward, also came through victoriously in the morning fifth round matches while Jack Penrose, unheralded Miami Beach, Fla., player, was beaten.

Chapman, 41-year-old socialite from Pinehurst, N.C., was blasted out of the running by Maj. David Blair, 35-year-old Scotsman who fired subpar golf, 3 and 2.
