

Vacation Bible School Starts In Rural Areas

Vacation Bible schools in the rural areas of Douglas County are getting underway this week. The American Sunday School Union, a non-sectarian home missionary organization is sponsoring two schools, both of which begin this week. A school will be held at the Dixonville Chapel beginning Wednesday, June 4 at 9 a.m. standard time. There will be classes for children from four years up. Joyce Merry will teach the pre-school group, Cleo Edwards will teach the primary class and Mrs. A. Kelstrup will direct the juniors. Transportation will be furnished those needing it. Students should call 3-7710 or 3-5410 for transportation.

Another school will get underway at Riversdale School on Wednesday, June 4 at 2 p.m. D.S.T. Theme for beginner's class is, "God, Our Father and His Loving Care." The primary's theme is, "What Our Lord Jesus Wants Of Us," and the junior's topic is "We use God's Guidebook."

Both schools will be directed by A. F. Kelstrup. All boys and girls in the two communities are cordially invited to either school.

The Dillard Methodist Church opened their summer Bible school Monday June 2, at 9:30 a.m. The school will run for two weeks. All youngsters from the ages of three years through the 7th grade are invited to attend. Any parents who can help with the transportation kindly notify Rev. Frank B. Drew.

Umpqua School Class Graduates

By JULIA OSBORN

Ten pupils received their 8th grade diplomas when the Umpqua school held graduation exercises at the Community Hall, Monday evening, May 26. The hall was decorated as befitting the occasion. Above the stage, blue and gold streamers added a festive touch in the class colors, the huge bouquets of rhododendrons adorned the front of the platform on each side.

Their teacher, Mrs. Delmar Murphy, and Lee Winniford played the processional in a piano and violin duet. The program began, with Marlene Anderson announcing the number of the invocation, offered by Lee Winniford, was followed by the presentation of flowers by the primary children.

The Class History, read by Sharon Lee Roadman, disclosed the fact that four of the group had started the first grade together. They were Alva Nichols, Sharon Lee Roadman, Sam Henry, and Dick Baird. Two months later Dolly Urban joined them. Lorena Judd, Donald Jumbo, Linda Lewis, and Ima Jean James were added to the register at intervals, and a late entry of the present term brought the total to ten when Jim Gilkinson became a class member. Most of the group had been Mrs. Murphy's pupils for four years.

Following the Class History, the graduation class sang "The End of a Perfect Day," with Mrs. Murphy at the piano and Mrs. Munson directing.

The class Will was read by Dolly Urban.

Mrs. Murphy then presented the class and turned them over to Kenneth Fortin, chairman of the school board, to receive their diplomas.

Although the next thing listed on the program was the benediction, Lee Winniford called Mrs. Murphy onto the stage. Lorena Judd stepped forward, made a brief presentation speech, and placed a small package in Mrs. Murphy's hand. Upon opening the package, Mrs. Murphy discovered a beautiful fountain pen.

Two Douglas County Men Taking Recruit Training

Undergoing recruit training at the U. S. Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif., are area seaman recruits Odell M. Bingham, USN, of Riddle, and Nathaniel W. Davis, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Davis of Myrtle Creek. This initial training includes instruction in such fields as seamanship, fire-fighting, gunnery, signaling, and other courses designed to make the recruit well-versed in every phase of Navy life.

Upon completion of their 11-week training period at the training center, graduates are assigned to duty stations with the Fleet or at Navy shore stations, or are sent to service schools for advanced technical training.

man, John Boyd, Elsie Bridges, Charles (Bud) Church, Lynette Cole, Roger Gunderson, Carolee Hargis, Alan Hatfield, Carolyn Henry, Sally Hook, Walter Hurlbut, Gregory Kuykendall, Betty Lewis, Lucinda McCord, Joyce Merry, Ernest Sharp, David Schrum, Emily Sinnott, Donald Smith, Judith Subrstedt, David Walker, Anita Watkins, Ruth Webster, and Janet Harris Stroud.

A GROUP of thirty junior high students have petitioned "Wild Bill Hickok" to get a little romance into his wild West adventures. Seems as though the six-gun action and the fistfights are "real George" as far as the teenage set is concerned, but they think that the business of a hero riding into the sunset and leaving a beautiful, but rescued, heroine waving goodbye is a bit far-fetched. "In the West men are men," said the petition, "and the girls wouldn't think of changing this situation for the world. Your program has everything except romance," the petition continued, "and we think that 'Wild Bill' should have some romance once in a while." The document is being passed on to "Wild Bill," played by Guy Madison, and his writers. Ah, "is spring! Hear him each day, 5:30 - 5:55 p.m.

SAVE TIME & MANPOWER with the Bale-O-Matic

HERE IS THE WAY BALE THAT ADJUSTS ITSELF TO ALL FIELD AND CROP CONDITIONS

It's the progressive farmer who preserves the food value of his hay, saves valuable storage space, makes hay easier to handle, saves time and manpower by harvesting his hay the modern way with the M4 Bale-O-Matic.

THE Bale-O-Matic effortlessly lifts hay from the windrow or swath, slices it into uniform layers, and ties it with two strands of steel wire while the bale is still under compression.

THE Bale-O-Matic has a pick-up mechanism which operates equally well in green or cured hay or straw, handles light, uneven, or extra heavy windrows and swaths. The new Uni-Matic Power mowers and lower pick-up mechanism "on-the-go" over ridges and ditches.

THE Bale-O-Matic can be used as stationary baler just as it is. The sturdy, quality MM construction assures you of trouble-free service and minimum maintenance.
