

Once Retired Grandma Becomes Inspiring Symbol Of Modern Age

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—This is the heyday of Grandma. Grandma no longer worries about acting her age. Grandma is the spirit of the modern age. We are living in the age of the jet-propelled Grandma.

There was a time when women hated the thought of becoming a grandmother, and maybe most of them still do.

Being a grandmother then meant sitting by the fire with a cat in her lap, while life passed you by. Dear old Granny—all she had left was her memories of more active days.

But today? A girl just starts hitting her stride by the time she's a Grandma. Some of the best years of her life are still ahead of her after she finishes untying her apron string.

Look at the world around you. You'll find Grandmas taking leading roles in practically every field except flagpole sitting, and the only reason they don't go in for flagpole sitting is that it is just too dog-gone sedentary for them.

Shining Examples Cited
Who is the best known living American artist? Most people would say Grandma Moses, whose brush is still as busy as ever. Glamor is supposed to be the property of the young-in-years, but three Hollywood grandmas—Joan Bennett, Marlene Dietrich and Gloria Swanson—have a seemingly timeless beauty that is the envy of many a more youthful actress.

One of the newest television stars is a grandma—Mrs. Arthur Murray. And in the bright arena of the theater who shines more luminously than dear old Granny Gertrude Lawrence.

She twinkles forever young, forever fair, and will keep on, we trust, until she is at least a great great grandmother.

Grandma's place used to be in the home. Not any more. Some Grandmas hold top industrial and political posts. They direct everything from racing stables to baseball clubs. And they run for Congress, get elected now and then, too. There's even a Grandma sheriff around somewhere.

The literary world has known few more consistently successful authors than Grandma Mary Roberts Rhinehart, who has written so many best sellers it would take a catalogue to list them all. Eleanor Buisert of All

The busiest grandmother of all, of course, is Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who year after year in polls taken among women is voted by them as one of the outstanding representatives of the sex.

Perhaps no woman of her time has been more widely recognized in so many fields. Her only concession to her years has been the purchase of a new hearing aid.

About the only role in life this sprightly grandmother hasn't played is grand opera.

The top star in grand opera for many years, however, was another grandmother—Kirsten Flagstad. It is hard to name a branch of human activity in which some grandmother doesn't excel.

Dear old Granny has put away her lace cap for good. She's out there pitching with the boys, and making good at their game.

About the one sure formula for success today is to be born a Grandma. It gives you a real head start in life.

PORTLAND (R)—James Walker, overlooked at Sunday commencement exercises at Portland University, had a private graduation ceremony here Tuesday.

Walker's name was accidentally left off the list of those to receive diplomas. When Sunday's ceremony ended, he thought he had failed, and without anything about it, went home.

Later university officials discovered the error and Tuesday held a one-man commencement for him. The entire faculty in caps and gowns was present. There was an audience, too—Walker's mother—Mrs. Rose A. Nyberg.
