GENEVA GUILD MEETS AT PARGETER HOME

Geneva Guild of the First Presbyterian Church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Tom Pargeter on Melrose Road. Mrs. James Loomis, president, presided during the business meeting. It was decided by the group to hold a picnic for members and their families Aug. 5.

Mrs. H. Neils Lindell gave an interesting talk on her work as a Ribsbird leader during the past year. Mrs. Paul Wray presented the program which dealt with the Presbyterian mission at Sheldon Jackson Junior College at Sitka, Alaska.

Lovely bouquets of roses, sweet peas, snapdragons, cantenbury bells, and other flowers decorated the living room and serving table. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Tom Pargeter, Mrs. Morris Bowker, Mrs. Jack Chapman, and Mrs. Harvey Lucas, to the following members and guests: Mesdames E. A. Nunn, Harold Glover, Russell Hagg, Floyd Wakler, Harland DeSpain, George Erickson, William Green, Lloyd Myers, James N. Sims, P. H. Schultz, George N. Lenci, Fred W. Field, William Burt, Clair G. Wheelchel, Paul Wray, H. Neils Lindell, Donald Monroe, Leo Martin, Robert Witt, Alford France, E. M. Apple, Leland Hall, Rex Jones, and V. P. Shugart.

NEIGHBORS OF WOODCRAFT MEET AT ERSKINE HOME

The Neighbors of the Woodcraft met at the home of Martha Erskine for a one p.m. covered dish luncheon and business meeting. A birthday cake was presented to Effie Croucher by Bertha Worthington. The club prize was won by Effie Croucher and given by Lilly Lohr.

Those present were Cynthia Gernond, Malinda Miller, Bertha Worthington, Effie Croucher, Martha Erskine, Lilly Lohr, Lydia Hooper, Hattie Neal, Anna Hess, Ella Heribson, Edith Welton and Eddie Welton, a guest.

The next meeting will be at the home of Effie Croucher, 1330 Ball St., Monday, June 9 at 10 a.m. to work on quilts. A one p.m. covered dish luncheon and business meeting will follow. Members are requested to bring table service.
