Camas Grangers Work On Floor Of Meeting Hall

By JEAN YODER

Grangers held a work party and potluck dinner Sunday at the site of the new Grange Hall in Camas Valley. The men worked on the floor, which is being made of laminated two-by-fours. They plan to have the floor finished in time for a dance on the Fourth of July.

Camas Briefs: A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Lamm of Camas Valley. The infant, named Sylvia Louise, was born June 2, at the Mercy Hospital in Roseburg. She weighed seven pounds, one ounce. Her father recently received his honorable discharge from the Navy, arriving in Camas Valley last Friday to be on hand for the occasion. Mrs. Lamm, and their son, Bruce, have been staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Papst of Camas Valley.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Reiser were Mr. and Mrs. Van Hutchinson of Oakland; and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reiser, who have recently moved to Winston. Also visiting them for the week end was Mrs. Reiser's sister, Mrs. Also visiting them for the week-land. Mrs. Bush has just returned from a trip to California, Oklahoma and Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lutz and sons Mike and Mark have moved to Camas Valley from Myrtle Creek. They are renting the old Lawson place from its new owner, Ernest Wheeler. Lutz will teach in the high school next year at Camas Valley. They plan to be in Michigan most of the summer.

The Rev. and Mrs. L. G. Weaver plan to attend the Methodist Conference at Rose City Park Church in Portland on June 17-22. According to Reverend Weaver, the material for finishing the gable ends of the parsonage is ready to be put up. Several of the church women have applied linseed oil to the boards already, and the front gable is completed. The cedar boards, cut by Weaver and Mr. Hudson were donated by Hayden Taylor.
