

Winston

By MRS. GEORGE BACHER

Guests in the J. Kerby Masters home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Carlin of Coos Bay. The Carlins recently returned from an extended tour of the southland.

George Butler of Canyonville attended to business in this vicinity on Thursday.

Mrs. M. E. Ulschaffer spent Monday in Portland on business. Mrs. Ulschaffer and her husband are proprietors of Schaffer's lodge in Winston.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence are entertaining the latter's father of St. Louis, Mo., this week.

J. Kerby Masters is confined to his home because of illness.

Poets of the Winston-Dillard area have been invited to submit manuscripts for the forthcoming book of contemporary poetry to be sponsored by the Roseburg Writers' club. The publication will be devoted to poetry of Douglas county and the Umpqua territory, and it's sponsors are endeavoring to use the compositions of local talent. A number of worthwhile contributions have already been received, according to the sponsors. Those desiring to submit their works are asked to mail them to post office box 352 in Roseburg.

To keep index tabs on books from curling up with use, dab them with two thin coats of fresh white shellac.

Fasting Pastor Of Ozark Dies In Keeping Vow

CHERRYVILLE, Mo. — The fasting preacher of the Ozarks died Monday — the 51st day since he vowed he would eat nothing until his prayers were answered for "the more perfect will of God for my own life."

The Rev. J. J. Ivie, 57-year-old minister of the Assembly of God Church, died in his modest home at the edge of a woods in this crossroads village of 36 persons, some 80 miles south of St. Louis.

His wife, herself an ordained minister, said Ivie was conscious until the end. Five sons and a daughter were at his bedside. The family took the death calmly.

From the beginning, his wife said, Ivie had insisted that "if the Lord wants me to die, I am ready to go."

Ivie had signed a statement to protect his family from possible legal action in case of his death. Mrs. Ivie said her husband, a minister since he was 17 years old, also had given strict orders not to let a physician in his home even if he should lapse into unconsciousness.

Ivie had insisted he was not fasting to "save the world from sin" although he had expressed concern about Communism in two recordings he had made since he announced the fast.

"I am seeking the more perfect will of God for my own life and asking God to show me why the signs do not follow my ministry as Jesus said they would," he wrote in a note clarifying the reason for his fast.
