L.A. Rams Trade 11 Players For Richter

LOS ANGELES — The more flippant ones decided Friday that the Los Angeles Rams traded a football team for one player when they acquired California's All-America linebacker, Les Richter, from the new Dallas Texans in their big deal. True, the Texans get title to 11 players and the champion Rams obtain the agile, 230-pound belter from Berkeley in their bid for a Jher National Football League crown. Actually, of the 11 men, only two, fullback Dick Hoerner and defensive halfback Tom Keane, may be labelled solid bets; a few may be potential stars; some may be guys named Joe, and some others are doubtful quantities because of their availability.

Dr. Woodruff, a councilman of Roseburg, will visit Washington, D. C. and Niagara Falls on his return trip to Oregon. He is accompanied on the three-week automobile trip by his wife, Jeanne, and son, Scott.

City's Needs Stressed By Manager Gilchrist

Estimated budget revenue from state gas and license fees jumped from $28,000 in '51-'52 to $49,800 in the coming fiscal year. With a $19,000 balance, total estimates for the whopping $68,000.

More Street Improvements

Gilchrist pointed out that all gas tax revenue and license fees must be used for street construction or maintenance. "The last extensive improvement of the streets of Roseburg was in 1926. With gas tax dollars we will be able to start a street improvement program. The cost of keeping up these unimproved streets is quite high."

Steel Crisis Political Football, Murray Says

Referring to the Korean situation, Murray declared there is no question "that the boys in Korea will be provided the equipment they need." Fast breaking developments in the steel crisis turned the strike spotlight on Pittsburgh after the House Banking Committee in Washington voted 15 to 10 against a proposal that President Truman be empowered to seize the steel industry. The Senate has served notice on Truman that he should use the emergency provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act to get a court injunction against a strike.

ter efforts to tack on amendments bearing on the steel strike were abandoned. The bill as it stands contains a request to President Truman that he invoke the 80-day anti-strike injunction provisions of the Taft-Hartley law in the steel dispute. The Senate measure generally would continue control authority about as is, but for eight months instead of the two years the President had asked. The House version is for one year. This and any other conflict between the two bills would have to be worked out at a Senate-House conference, if the House approves the Banking Committee version. conflict between the two bills would have to be worked out at a Senate-House conference, if the House approves the Banking Committee version.
