At four-thirty in the afternoon of Tuesday, June 3, Miss Carolyn Jean Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Hill, became the bride of Thomas H. Ireland Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Ireland Sr., of Myrtle Creek. The ceremony was read by Rev. Olney L. Kendall of Canyonville in front of the fireplace in the attractive living room of the Hill home near Days Creek.

Hugh baskets of white peonies, pink snapdragons, bluebells and columbine in pastel shades flanked the fireplace, while tiered candles entwined with tiny pink roses and greenery decorated the mantel. Miss Marcy Gosness of Tillier lighted the candles and sang, "Because" and "I Love You Truly." Her corsage was of pink flowers and her gown of pale green tulle with net overskirt. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a gown of pink organza embroidered in white. She wore pink linen shoes and a brimless hat of pale pink forget-me-nots outlined with a veil. Her arm bouquet was white gladioli and white carnations centered by a gardenia.

Miss Patricia Anne Hill was maid of honor for her sister and wore a dress of pastel green nylon and a wristlet and headband of Dorothy Perkins roses. Charles Ireland was best man for his brother.

The bridal party took its place before the improvised altar to the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin.

Both the bride's and the bridegroom's mothers wore grey suits with white accessories with corsages of pink blossoms.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held with Mrs. O. C. Brown presiding at the coffee urn; Miss Gosnell in charge of the punch bowl and Mrs. Reginald Brown cutting the beautiful cake. The bride and bridegroom had cut the first piece. The cake, which was placed on a mirror surrounded by pink roses and blue iris, was baked and decorated by Miss Carol Ann Burgin. It was topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Late in the afternoon the couple left on a honeymoon to points of interest on the coast. For traveling the bride chose a blue tailored suit with white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Present at the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Ireland Sr., Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Paris, grandparents of the bride; Mrs. Edith M. Fisher of Corvallis, grandmother of the bridegroom; Mrs. O. C. Brown, great-aunt of the bride; Rev. Mr. Kendall, Miss Gosnell, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Brown, Miss Gloria Ward, who caught the bride's bouquet; Miss Edith Ireland, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Patricia Ann Hill and Charles Ireland.

The bride was a member of this year's graduating class of the local high school and is past honored queen of Riddle Bethel of Job's Daughters. The bridegroom graduated from the Myrtle Creek High School with the class of 1949 and attended OSC. He is now associated with his father in the log trucking industry. They will make their home in Myrtle Creek.

Mrs. Ray Wright had charge of the very lovely decorations used throughout the rooms of the Hill home and Mrs. Archie Ferguson and Mrs. Bud Gaulke made the corsages and the boutonnières.
