Society and ClubsMRS. NORA WILLIAMS
ENTERTAINS WSCS

A charming one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon was served Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Nora Williams on Highway 99 in Dillard. The lovely affair was sponsored as a benefit for the Dillard Church Woman's Society of Christian Service. The hostess, Mrs. Williams, and her co-hostess, Mrs. Ivan Williams, used Paul Scarlet roses and giant yellow Dutch iris in various arrangements throughout her spacious rooms for decorations.

The delicious luncheon was served from lace covered tables effectively decorated. The dining table was attractively centered with a large bouquet of colorful sweet peas, with red predominating, based with Paul Scarlet roses, alternated with a yellow iris arranged on a round mirror. Flanked on either side were tall yellow tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. Williams served the luncheon on her rare collection of fine china.

Covers were placed for the Mesdames C. E. Brittain, Mercy Buell, Mabel Brooks, Alton Owens and Karen; Miss Gladys Johnston, Ila Clayton, Rosa Heinbach, Miss Marsha Williams, Walter Middlestadt, Ronald Burgess, Bert Laurance, Fred Burks, Virgil Post, Stanford Buell, Clell Holten, Ivan Williams and Mrs. Nora Williams.

YONCALLA STREETS OILED

Yoncalla will enjoy a summer nearly free of dust. Many families have had the streets in front of their homes oiled, and the city council has scattered fine rock over the oil. If this done every year for three years, it is claimed it will be like a hard surface road.
