The Myrtle Creek Junior Legion baseball nine is a heartbreaking nemesis to Drain either at home or away.

The Myrtle Creekers moved into Drain park Friday night to prove the point with their second straight one-run victory over Dave Dixon's charges. This time, they won, 5-4.

Drain's Legionnaires were just one base from tying the score on the tide of a two-run rally in the bottom of the seventh but Dick Joslyn snuffed hopes by flying out to the shortstop for the third out. The hosts were just this hair's breadth away from an overtime contest after trailing from the first.

On the weak side of a 5-2 score, Drain came to life with its last-ditch seventh-inning flareup. George LaGrandier pleased the big home-town crowd by setting the final spark with a whistling triple. Cecil Parker walked to put two men on bases and set the stage for Larry Oatney's two-run triple. Oatney was still on third when Joslyn blooped.

Myrtle Creek took the lead in the first on Drain shakiness. Ronnie Dersham gave up two hits, and his teammates bobbled two to give away two runs.

Having a big night, LaGrandier slammed a double to slice the lead in half. Each team picked up one in the third, but Myrtle Creek clinched the contest with a two-run flareup in the fifth on a walk, two hits and an error.

In an amazing change of form for team managers, Dixon complimented Umpires Frank Jacobs and Chuck Bafaro for their calls. The win pushed Myrtle Creek into a two-way leadership deadlock with Roseburg. Each has two wins and no losses.

Glide, Oakland Games Sunday

Games at Glide and Oakland close out the first half of Evergreen Baseball League competition this Sunday with the three top teams scrambling over each others' backs to hold down the lead.

Results last Sunday dropped Sutherland from first to third and pushed Oakland and Elkton into a deadlock lead. This put three-fourths of the League within a half game range. Only Glide is apparently running too far out of the money with five straight losses.

This weekend, Elkton appears to be an almost sure thing to continue in the top spot when it invades Glide. The top game of the Sunday session pits Sutherland and Oakland.

According to statistics compiled by League Secretary Emery Huntoon, Glen Cox of Elkton edged ahead of last week's leader, Phil Telford of Glide. Cox was credited with a .528 to lead the batters who have ten or more times at bat. Telford held an even .500 with 11 hits in 22 times at bat. Sutherland's Elmer Pleurad was a close third with .478. Ray Cole of Elkton, with a .466, and Red Cole of Oakland, with a .454, completed the top five.

Youngs Bay Garners 5-2 Win From Smith Motors

In a couple of tight YMCA Industrial League softball tilts at Veterans Field Friday night, Youngs Bay staved off a late rally to nip Smith Motors, 5-2, and Vets Employees whitewashed Moose Club, 4-0.

Both games were sprinkled with homers and highlighted by tight pitching. No team netted more than six hits.

Bob Kidder's hurling job against the Moose Club was outstanding. He divided up two hits in the fourth and sixth to beg for the 4-0 victory. Moose's Craig allowed only four hits, but gave them when they most counted.

The Vets Employees didn't get into the scoring column until the fourth when a walk set up the first run. They insured it in the fifth when Paulson opened the frame with a home run. A single, a walk and Joe Toman's double brought in two more.

In the other game, Phil of Youngs Bay gave up four hits including Carl's fifth inning two-run homer. J. Gerling of Smith Motors allowed six, but two were homers by Potter and Roberts.

Youngs Bay used the middle innings to build up a five-run lead, but spent the last three innings holding the Smithmen in check. The losers scored two in the fifth and another in the seventh.

Wallick Will Wrestle Yamato In Main Armory Bout Tonight

Leo Wallick hasn't missed a bout in the Roseburg wrestling arena in weeks, but when he strides through the ropes tonight at 8:45 it will be the first time in his current stand that he has been the favorite. Sharing the top billing with the pile driving expert is Toi Yamato, who has a reputation of meanness even more impressive than Wallick's. The tough Japanese has been running over opponents with reckless abandon in recent weeks with his vicious judo chops and sleeper holds.

BILL MELBY
... In Mat Opener

The disputatious Wallick didn't win any love from the fans when he hooked up with Bullet Bob Cummings last week to snare the Northwest tag team championship from Georges Dusette and Buck Weaver. But most fans would be quick to agree he is one of the toughest articles in Northwest wrestling circles and certainly the choice to stop the sinister Oriental. Voicing agreement, Wallick says, "I hate Japs." Anyway, he says, it's a good way to mark time while awaiting a title shot at Pacific Coast Junior Heavyweight Champion Rogers Mackay.

This will be an hour-long bout, but Matchmaker Elton Owen only uses this match to climax a stellar card. In a 30-minute two-out-of-three-fall semi-final, Gordon Hessel continues to climb toward main event recognition by taking on popular Jack Kiser. On a comparative basis, Hessel has the edge. He defeated Frenchy Roy last week, while in a previous match, Kiser could do no better than hold Roy to a draw.

Unveiling a superabundance of talent, Owen was forced to push Pacific Coast Light Heavyweight Champion Billy Melby into the 20-minute opener. He tangles with Bob Cummings, who has marked his recent engagements here with consistent wins.

Golf Club Team To Play Visitors

A delegation of about 40 Grants Pass Country Club golfers invade Roseburg Sunday morning for a team match on the local links. The Roseburg Country Club golfers will be pointing for their second team win of the season. They launched the season with a victory over the Coos Bay Country Club three weeks ago. They will also be aiming for a 1951 repeat of their 55½-31½ triumph.

The match is slated to get underway at 9:30 a.m. DST. Special match play is planned for women who wish to participate.

Rawls Battling For Open Title

CHICAGO (AP)—Elizabeth Earle Rawls, the Phi Beta Kappa golfer long known as Betsy, Saturday tries for her first Women's Western Open crown in an all-Texas rebounding Betty Jameson.

Miss Rawls, who nearly has stroked to her first $10,000 this year as a sophomore pro, is making her fourth stab at the Western Open title. Her best was a quarterfinal surge in 1951.

In two other shots, Betsy was knocked out early by the sister pro from the Lone Star state she encounters in Saturday's 36-hole championship match at Skokie Country Club.

'Old Timers' Teams To Be Named Today

With a crop of 50 "Old Timers" to pick from, Managers Al Flegel and John Linde settled down to the job of forming teams today.

Al Hughes and Lynn Beckley added their names to the list of players "of the old school" who will display their wares in the "Old Timer" benefit game on Friday Field Wednesday night at 8.

For identification purposes, the two teams were arbitrarily named the Flegel Sluggers and the Linde Bombers. The two mentors start flipping for players sometime today. The 25 "old folks" on each team will be announced this evening.

Tuesday night at 6:15, the two managers will discuss the potentials of their teams and are expected to heat the rivalry of the two teams to fever pitch. This mutual tongue lashing can be heard on station KRNR's "World of Sports" program.

Meanwhile, Earl Sargent, another of the oldsters, reports that admissions to the Wednesday night affair will be 50 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. The entire proceeds will go toward paying expenses of young Larry Archer and Mary Butler to the national skating championships at Denver. Just to make ends meet during the week-long competition in July, the two 14-year-olds must have $400. But Sargent states, "I don't see why a town this size can't send them in style. They deserve it for the recognition they bring to Roseburg."

Finals Underway In PGA Contest

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—There were a few familiar names still in the PGA battle Saturday as 16 survivors of Friday's slaughter of favorites settled down to the decisive 36-hole matches in the pro's private golfing party.

There were Cary Middlecoff, a new member of the lodge; Vic Ghezzi and Bob Hamilton, both former PGA champions, and such well known journeymen golfers as Jim Turnesa, Roberto De Vicenzo, Fred Haas Jr. and Chick Hareb.

After another, the golfers who have been drawing the headlines during the preliminary stages vanished from the scene Friday when the match play started with Friday's two 18-hole rounds.

New Camas Valley Cafe To Open In 3 Weeks

By JEAN YODER

"Bart's Cafe," a new eating place, will be opening in Camas Valley in about three weeks, according to the proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Bartley of Camas Valley.

The cafe, located across Highway 42 from the Camas Valley Dance Hall, will have a fountain and also serve regular dinners, specializing in fried chicken and steaks, according to Mr. Bartley.

Mrs. Ted Wiley of Camas Valley has been hired as cook for the establishment.

The cafe will be housed in a grey, two-story building now being completed by Mr. Howard Milton, Camas Valley builder. The Bartleys will have living quarters on the second level. A dining room is being supplied for family dinners and banquets. Bartley said that reservations will be "gladly" taken, and that he hopes to build up a clientele throughout the Roseburg-Camas Valley area. Bartley left for Portland last Monday to order restaurant equipment for the cafe.

Chicago Edges N.Y.; Bosox Lose

The Chicago White Sox of 1952 don't get around the bases as fast as the 1951 go-go model, but manager Paul Richards' current crew makes up for its lesser speed with more punch.

The socking Sox staged a stirring rally Friday night to beat the pace-setting New York Yankees, 5-5, and pull to within three games of the defending world champions.

Chicago rallied for four runs in the ninth inning to tie the score at 5-5 and then won out in the 11th when Sam Mele crashed a three-run homer off Bobby Hogue.

Nelson Fox opened the 11th with a double. Minnie Minoso was deliberately walked but the move back fired as Mele followed with a home run into the left field stands.

The victory moved Chicago to within a half game of the second place Boston Red Sox who were edged, 9-2, by the fourth place Cleveland Indians. The Indians are a half game behind Chicago and 3½ back of the Yanks.

Bob Lemon, supported by a 14-hit barrage, breezed to his sixth victory for Cleveland. Lemon allowed the Red Sox five hits.

In other American League games, the Philadelphia Athletics stopped the Detroit Tigers, 3-1, and the Washington Senators and St. Louis Browns battled to 5-18-inning tie under the lights at St. Louis.

Harry Byrd scattered eight Tiger hits in out-dueling Virgil Trucks who was charged with his eighth loss.

Old Satchel Paige starred in the marathon at St. Louis, longest game of the season so far. Paige took over in the eighth and pitched five-hit scoreless ball for ten innings. He went out for a pinch-hitter in the seventeenth and Dave Madison finished up.

Meanwhile, in the National League, the Brooklyn Dodgers clung to their five game lead over the New York Giants. The Dodgers edged the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-4, on pinch-hitter George Shuba's two-run two-out homer in the ninth while the Giants shaded the slumping Chicago Cubs, 4-3, in ten innings under the lights.

Chiefs To Play Brookings Sunday

The Roseburg Chiefs make their longest jaunt of the season this year when they move into Brookings for a double header Sunday.

Other southwestern Oregon League games find Bandon at Drain and Coos Bay-North Bend at Coquille.

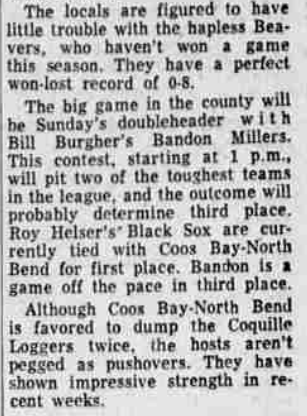

The Chiefs will use their three Oregon State College newcomers for the first time in a League game. They are Pitcher Don Hopp, Bud Shirliff and Chuck Fisk. Fisk will be making his debut in Chief uniform.

The locals are figured to have little trouble with the hapless Beavers, who haven't won a game this season. They have a perfect won-lost record of 0-8.

The big game in the county will be Sunday's doubleheader with Bill Burgher's Bandon Millers. This contest, starting at 1 p.m., will pit two of the toughest teams in the league, and the outcome will probably determine third place. Roy Helsler's Black Sox are currently tied with Coos Bay-North Bend for first place. Bandon is a game off the pace in third place.

Although Coos Bay-North Bend is favored to dump the Coquille Loggers twice, the hosts aren't pegged as pushovers. They have shown impressive strength in recent weeks.

Processes which provide energy for a living body are much the same as those which take place in a fire.

Stars In 5-1 Victory, Blast Padres Off Top Of Coast Loop

By The Associated Press

The Hollywood Stars, after two months of pursuit, are atop the Pacific Coast League heap.

Fred Haney's hustling crew drew Cleveland San Diego Friday night with a 5-1 verdict that knocked the Padres out of the lead they had held since April 17. Jim Walsh scattered six hits while the stars batted Ben Flowers for 11, although he fanned 11 batters.

The victory put the Stars two percentage points ahead of the Padres—.595—and gave them three wins out of four in the series, with three games to go.

Saturday night the Stars will shoot their young bonus lefty, Paul Pettit (7-2) against San Diego's veteran right-hander, Jack Salverson (9-5).

Elsewhere on the PCL mart, futures held firm. Oakland's Pete Milne rifled a three-run homer to pace the third place Oaks to a 12-5 win over Seattle. Los Angeles rept to within one point of Seattle and the first division with a 5-1 decision over Portland. Bottom-bound Sacramento looked bullish with a 2-0 triumph over San Francisco.

This last was a four-hit, nine strikeout job by Ken Gables. Bill Bevens tossed a five hitter for the Seals but three of them came in the eighth for both Solon runs that broke the scoreless tie.

Money Suits Put On Court File

Damages totaling $1,240.86 are asked in a Circuit Court suit filed by K. R. Linder and the General Insurance Co. of America against Emerson P. Black.

Plaintiffs allege that a tank truck owned by Linder was damaged in a highway accident when the defendant's vehicle struck it from the rear.

In a suit against two partners in Roy's Laundry at Myrtle Creek, Daisy Plummer asks $57.75 for services performed by herself, and $1,875 for services performed by Albert Plummer.

The Myrtle Creek Building Supply has filed suit against Carl and Bernice Wolf to foreclose a $2,435.43 lien for alleged non-payment of a bill for building materials.

A total of $482.41 allegedly due a department store is asked in a suit filed by The Valley Credit Service, Inc., against Theodore and Ethel Hand.

Donald Miller, plaintiff in a Circuit Court suit against William and Marguerite H. Ziedrich and others, has appealed to the Supreme Court from an April 22 judgment dismissing the suit.
