Melva Lindley Bride Of David L. Weaver

Melva Lauerene Lindley became the bride of David LeRoy Weaver at the Church of the Nazarene in Roseburg June 6, at 8 p.m. in the evening. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil L. Lindley of Roseburg; and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weaver, also of Roseburg. Rev. Paul R. Weaver officiated.

The matron of honor, Leona Buker, sister of the bride, was dressed in an orchid dress. Mary Louise Weaver, sister of the bridegroom from Roseburg, was dressed in yellow. Shirley Becker, friend of the couple, was a bridesmaid and wore green. The third bridesmaid was Ernestine Easterly, cousin of the bride. She wore blue. Flower girls were Patty Rowley, cousin of the bride, and Helen Woods, cousin of the bridegroom from Albany.

Frank Weaver was best man. He is brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Russel Buker, brother-in-law of the bride; Jim Ridgeway, friend of the couple and Jim Easterly, cousin of the bride. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Cecil Lindley. She wore a slipper satin red-tinge over a hooped net skirt. Her veil was white illusion. Her bouquet was of white carnations with yellow rosebuds interspersed with net. Those lighting the candles were Jim and Gerry Lindley.

The church was decorated with ivy and orange blossoms. Huge baskets of peace roses and snapdragons flanked the altar. Mrs. Roy Cox of Roseburg was soloist. Accompanying her was Lee Marsh at the organ.

The reception was held in the church parlors for 150 guests. The lace covered table was centered with a tiered wedding cake. The bride's mother wore a navy blue suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of salmon colored rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore a gray suit with navy accessories and a pink rosebud corsage.

For traveling, the bride chose an orchid suit with white accessories. Following a honeymoon trip to the coast and Portland area, the new Mr. and Mrs. Weaver are at home at 1631 Grandview.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Marjorie Woods and daughter, Helen from Albany; Mrs. Elpha Ritter, Albany; and Rev. and Mrs. L. E. Weaver of Winton, Calif. The bride is employed at J.C. Penney's and the bridegroom works at Smith Motors.
