

A VERY PRETTY WEDDING took place at the First Methodist Church in Roseburg Thursday evening, when Afton Dilworth became the bride of Merle Hampton. The wedding party, above, includes left to right: Virginia Ruth Hampton, Miss Joanne Gross, Mrs. Rose Konapatski, Mrs. John Ferguson Jr., Miss Maurine Dilworth, the bride and bridegroom, Lamarr Konapatsky, Ray Booher, Gordon Crook, Roger Oiler, and Margaret Ann Hampton. In front is the flower girl, Marsha Ferguson, and the ring bearer, Bobby Hatfield. Below, the newly married couple cut the first piece of their wedding cake. (Pictures by Fern Dailey).

Hampton-Dilworth Vows Are Exchanged June 14th

One of the most charming of June weddings took place Thursday evening, June 12, at the First Methodist Church, when Miss Afton Dilworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Tracey Dilworth of Roseburg, became the bride of Merle Hampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. Hampton, of this city. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed at eight o'clock in the evening by Elder Glen Peterson, minister of the LDS Church, assisted by Rev. W. A. MacArthur, pastor of the Methodist Church, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

An archway of ivy and red roses, flanked by baskets of lilies and blue delphinium and candelabra entwined with ivy and red roses and holding white candles, formed the beautiful setting for the ceremony.

Mrs. Paul Geddes played the wedding music and accompanied Harold Mobley, who sang, "Always," and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of white slipper satin with an embroidered net yoke. Her lace-edged veil of illusion was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

Miss Maurine Dilworth of Pocatello, Ida., sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mrs. John Ferguson Jr., of Helena, Montana, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Rose Konapatsky and Miss Joanne Gross were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of pastel shades and carried round bouquets of pink carnations, Marsha Ferguson, niece of the bridegroom, dressed in a pink organza dress and carrying a basket of rose petals, was flower girl and Bobby Hatfield was ring bearer.

Lamarr Konapatsky was best man and Gordon Crook, Ray Booher and Roger Oiler were ushers.

The candles were lighted by Virginia Ruth and Margaret Ann Hampton, cousins of the bridegroom, who wore gowns of pale yellow and wristlets of carnations.

The bride's mother wore an aqua-colored gown with a corsage of pale pink carnations and the bridegroom's mother wore a gown of coral with a corsage of deep pink carnations.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception followed in the church parlors. The lace-covered serving table was centered with a beautifully decorated wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom. White blossoms formed the floral decorations.

Mrs. Charles Close, aunt of the bridegroom, served the wedding cake and Mrs. Arthur Nelson, Mrs. John Ferguson Jr., and Mrs. C. W. Hatfield assisted with the serving. Miss Lorraine Kitchen had charge of the guest book. The many beautiful gifts were in charge of Miss ReNae Cottrell.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Miss Maurine Dilworth, of Pocatello, Ida.; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Smith and sons of Oakland, Calif.; Mrs. L. M. Hampton and two daughters, Margaret Ann and Virginia Ruth of Portland (aunt and cousins of the bridegroom); Mrs. Erma Skinner, Yakima, Wash., aunts of the bridegroom; Miss Barbara Anderson of Randle, Wash.; Mrs. Greydon Jones, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Close, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, Eugene and Mrs. John Ferguson and daughter, Marsha, of Helena, Mont.

For traveling the bride chose a grey suit with white accessories. Her corsage was red roses and stephanotis. Following a honeymoon to Portland and Vancouver, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Hampton will be at home to their friends after July 1 at their residence on Brown Avenue, Roseburg.

The bride attended school in Meridian, Ida., and was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School. She is employed as a nurse aide at the Douglas Community Hospital. The bridegroom attended the Roseburg Schools and is employed by the Todd Construction Company.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE SHEPARD walk down the aisle immediately following their wedding, an event of June 4 held at the First Methodist Church in Roseburg. Mrs. Shepard is the former Helen Wagoner of Garden Valley. Below, the couple cut the first slice of their wedding cake, an all white clover shaped motif. (Photo by Fredrickson's Photo Lab).

The First Methodist Church of Roseburg was transformed into an ethereal paradise the evening of Wednesday, June 4, when Miss Helen Wagoner, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Wagoner, exchanged marriage vows with George Shepard, son of Mrs. George R. Shepard of Missoula, Mont.

Preceding the ceremony, music offered by Esther Geddes wafted through the church and parlors. The aisle which the bride marched down, was lined with white balustrades with softly lit canes atop each pillar. The altar held two baskets filled with orange blossoms and delphiniums, deftly arranged by Mrs. Earl Wiley. The delphinium were taken from the Wiley garden, and ranged in shade from light to royal blue. Ushering the guests to their pews were Roland Worth, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Ted Ranlett, close friend of the couple. Before the strains of the processional rang out, Cloyd Riffe sang Grieg's "I Love You" and "I'll Walk Beside You."

First down the aisle was the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. George Shepard, escorted by the head usher, Roland Worth. Mrs. Shepard enhanced her loveliness with a pink dress with white accessories. Her hat was studded with rhinestones. The corsage was of white roses and stephanotis.

The bride's mother, Mrs. T. J. Wagoner, followed with her escort. She wore a pink nylon mesh suit with a light blue net hat trimmed with blue flowers and rhinestones. Navy blue shoes and purse completed the outfit. Mrs. Wagoner also wore a corsage of white roses and stephanotis.

After the mothers were seated, the strains of the bridal procession rang forth and the matron of honor, Mrs. Roland Worth, preceded the bride to the altar. She wore an apple green nylon net ballerina length dress. Her miniature bouquet, arranged by Mrs. Earl Wiley, was of pale pink. Cecil Brunner roses surrounded with green netting. In her hair, Mrs. Worth wore a coronet of the green illusion net bordered with the tiny pink roses. When the matron of honor assumed her place at the altar, the bride, on the arm of her father, started slowly down the aisle. Her dress was white starched chiffon, exquisitely detailed with Venice type medallion lace and her fingertip nylon veil was capped with a matching lace medallion headpiece sprinkled with rhinestones. Her bouquet, all white, was of stephanotis centered with one large white orchid. Rev. Walter A. MacArthur officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of 250 guests. Through the entire ceremony, "Traumerlei" was played softly on the organ. Dr. Wagoner gave his daughter in marriage. Courtland Shepard, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. The serving table was covered with lace cloth over aqua. The wedding cake placed in the center of the table, was all white and in clover leaf pattern. Candles placed in candelabra were in aqua shade and flanked the cake. The flowers were pink and white miniature rhododendrons. Mrs. Earl Wiley was in charge of table decorations.

Serving were Mrs. Earl Wiley, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. Ted Booth and Mrs. H. C. Wells. Mrs. A. B. Taylor, who had the honor of dressing the bride, cut and served the cake. Room hostesses were Mrs. Z. M. Canaday and Mrs. Frank Brown. Mrs. Barbara Dahl had charge of the guest book and at the gift table were Mrs. Rodney Peterson and Mrs. James Davis. Overseeing the entire operation was Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Circle No. 4 of the church were kitchen workers.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Shepard left during the reception for a brief honeymoon at Idlewild Lodge. They are now at home at 814 Rosewood homes. The new Mrs. Shepard is a graduate of Iowa State Teachers College and attended the graduate school of the University of Colorado. The bridegroom attended the University of Montana and the University of Mexico. Mrs. Shepard has a drama studio in Roseburg. Mr. Shepard is employed at Western Auto Supply company where he will start the manager - training course July 1. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Norman Siefkin, McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nelson, Portland; Courtland Shepard, Tucson, Ariz.; Mrs. George Shepard, Missoula, Mont.; Mrs. Carol Shepard, Missoula, Mont.; Mrs. Jack E. Trexler of Seattle, Wash.

MOLLIE FULLERTON IS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY
Miss Mollie Fullerton was hon-

MASTER STEPHEN BRATSCHE HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Master Stephen Bratsch was honored on his first birthday with a delightful party given by his mother, Mrs. Vernon Bratsch, at the home of his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bratsch in Dillard, Thursday, June 12.

The rooms were decorated with many colored balloons hanging from a central point. These were cut loose and captured by the children for their amusement. Sweet peas and roses in attractive arrangements were also used in decorating by the hostesses.

The highlight of the afternoon was the opening of the many lovely gifts by the popular young honored guest. The hostesses, Mrs. Vernon Bratsch and Mrs. Harry Bratsch served delicious refreshments of birthday cakes, one decorated in the circus motif in animal crackers, and the other one with "Happy Birthday Stevie." with ice cream and coffee. Animal crackers were served to the tiny tots. Each child was presented with balloon favors and matching napkins decorated in balloons and "Stevie" printed on them.

Guests attending the jolly occasion were Karin Gilliland and mother, Mrs. Marvel Gilliland; Janice Smith, Andy Collins, Pamela Swain and Mrs. Ira Swain; David and Ginger Remington and Mrs. Lovde Remington; Donny, Vicky and Judy Mattson and Mrs. Don Mattson; Sonny Swanson and Mrs. Leonard Swanson; Donna Sue Martyn and Mrs. Don Martyn; David Lee Swanson and Mrs. Lee Swanson; Jimmy and Mickey Parsons and Mrs. Ray Parsons; Ricky and Nancy Deahn and Mrs. Dick Deahn; Mrs. Berthy Swanson, Mrs. Patsy Morby, Mrs. Goldie Willis, the paternal great-grandmother and the hostesses. Gifts were received from those unable to attend, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Alpaugh, maternal grandparents from St. Helens, Danny Chapman and Beckie Hanning.

ored with a birthday party at the home of Miss Marilyn Nickens recently. A lovely birthday cake was served and Miss Fullerton received many lovely gifts. Those attending were the guest of honor, Beulah Sutton, Virginia Johnson, Malissa Stonebraker, Marilyn Nickens.

Irene Trapalis Is Honored At Shower

Mrs. Gaye Mowery and Mrs. Royd Bruton entertained at a mother-daughter party at the former's lovely home Wednesday evening, at which time a charming bridal shower was given Miss Irene Trapalis, who became the bride of Richard Clark Johnson Sunday, June 15.

Gifts were presented to Miss Trapalis in a miniature cottage complete with fireplace and wainpills, Mrs. Gary Piper and Mrs. Floyd Wilson.

Following a most enjoyable social hour, Mrs. Mowery and Mrs. Bruton served lovely refreshments.

MR. AND MRS. PHELPS LEAVING FOR CHICAGO
Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cockeram entertained at a no-host dinner at their home on Red Hill, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Philip Phelps, who have sold their ranch and will leave to spend the summer in Chicago.

Those enjoying the pleasant evening and delicious dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Philip Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Pinkston, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cockeram, Albert Cockeram, Mrs. Mabel Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Strong and Mr. and Mrs. Cockeram.

The beautiful home, nestled amid tall trees in the scenic hills of North Douglas County was beautifully decorated with gorgeous flowers.

land, Ore.
One sister, Jennie Cinamton of Napa, Calif., could not be present for the reunion.

Community Players Announce Calendar

During their regular business meeting held Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. in the YMCA office at the Armory, the Roseburg Community Players voted to create a special summer season with the stress on gaining memberships.

Sparking their membership drive, the Community Players also voted to hold a picnic Sunday, June 22, at 6 p.m. Interested persons and prospective members are urged to contact Wayne Wagner at Bob's Music Shop for further details.

During the summer season, no productions will be given for audiences, but a one-act play, "The Red Key," will be presented August 27 as a workshop project, for members and guests.

A membership drive is on, and the Players are splitting into two teams with the team bringing in the most new members to be honored at a party given by the losers.

The summer calendar is as follows:
June 24 — Detailed reports from all Productions
5 — Managers and Chairmen Schedule Casting for following meeting
Readings
Schedule short skit for July 15 meeting
July 1 — Casting
July 8 — Announcement of complete reading of play
Schedule rehearsal includes walk-through and complete memorization.

ALTRUSA CLUB HAS POTLUCK DINNER MEETING MONDAY

Altrusa Club of Roseburg held a delightful potluck dinner meeting Monday evening in the beautiful garden overlooking the South Umpqua River at the home of Agnes Fullerton.

Jennie Amorde, president, conducted the interesting business session. The program for the next six months was outlined. This was the last meeting of the club until fall.

Those attending the affair were: Audrey Johnson, Marian Ross, Viola Blessing, Lucilla Darby, Marjorie Roach, Jennie Amorde, Maida Brasfield and the hostess, Agnes Fullerton.

A board meeting has been called for July 21 to be held at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Marian Ross at 110 Flint Street.

GEORGE PANKEY HONORED AT BIRTHDAY PARTY
George Pankey was honored with a surprise birthday party Saturday evening at the Elgarose School. Cards and visiting were enjoyed during the evening. High prizes for pinocchio were awarded to Sally Brown and Andrew Hanson. Low score went to Mrs. Ula Pankey and George Sundberg.

Lovely gifts were presented to him from Mr. and Mrs. Chet Stiltner and son, Ray; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Woody Stiltner, Mr. and Mrs. George Sundberg and Donna; Mr and Mrs. Don Pankey, Mrs. Wlad, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brown and Dick and Sally; Mr. and Mrs. George Showers, Mr. and Mrs.